Welsh Rescue Workers Find Three Young Pupils In Slide

ABERFAN, Wales (AP) — Thousands of rescue workers dug through tons of oozing coal slag today with a threat of a new avalanche hanging over them.

The remains of the 800-foot man-made mountain of coal waste that smashed a school and at least 14 homes Friday was still moving. If it came down, the diggers would be directly in its path.

Eighty-five bodies, 77 of those of children, had been recovered and officials feared the death toll would reach 200.

"It's a fight against time. The slag heap at the back of the school is still moving," said a Civil Defense spokesman.

The rescuers were spurred on (Related Article Page 5A)

by a report late Friday night that three children had been found alive more than 14 hours after the disaster.

A police spokesman said, "I have no knowledge of this at all at the moment."

The rescue workers, most of them hardened miners, faced heartbreaking scenes.

Late Friday night a miner found the bodies of David Benton, deputy head teacher at the school, and five children.

"David was clutching the five little children in his arms as if to protect them," the miner said. "He and the five children died clutching each other."

The miner then lapsed into shock.

Prime minister Harold Wilson flew to Aberfan and walked through the disaster scene with bowed head.

He told newsmen: "There is not very much I can say. I don't think any of you or any of us can find words to describe this tragedy."

For years the villagers feared that the slag heap, which in half a century had grown into an ugly mountain, would crash down onto their little terraced houses.

Friday, there was a report that the slag heap was stirring and David John Evans, a maintenance man at the Merthyr Vale colliery, climbed to the top to have a look.

"Suddenly I saw the heap shifting about 300 yards away," he said later. "Down it rumbled toward the village, disappearing into thick fog."

"The movement was like thunder. We could hear trees on each side being crushed to matchwood."

The roar of the avalanche could be heard a mile away.

Earthquake Hits

Argentine Town

CATAMARCA, Argentina (UPI) — A major earthquake Friday rocked northwest Argentina and first reports indicated heavy damage and possible casualties in the town of Belen, 250 miles west of here.

The tremor was the third major shock registered in South America this week. Previous earthquakes rocked Bogota, Colombia and the Pacific coast of Peru, killing more than 100 persons.

Belen, a town of 12,000, is nestled in the foothills of the Andes, some 800 miles northwest of Buenos Aires. It has no telephone communications.

Meager reports reaching Catamarca indicated several buildings were destroyed in Belen and unconfirmed rumors said there were also some dead.

Bill Halts Adjourning For Solons

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 89th Congress rammed through President Johnson's anti-inflation, college aid and food for peace bills Friday, but was forced to delay final adjournment for at least another day.

Campaign-hungry legislators eager to call it quits for the year were stopped short late in the day by objections in the Senate to a House-approved plan for voluntary taxpayer financing of presidential election campaigns.

LATE PROTESTS

Last-minute protests by Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and John J. Williams, R-Del., caught Senate leaders without any hope of meeting a threatened demand for a quorum of no less than 51 senators on the floor.

An unusual 7 a.m. CST Senate session was called for Saturday to try to settle the dispute with a showdown vote.

One other major controversy evaporated when the House reversed its opposition to expanded trade with the Communist bloc. It sent to the Senate for final approval a $5.1 billion supplemental appropriations bill including implied endorsement of the President's plan to widen commercial trade ties with Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria.

By a 129-102 roll call vote, the House abandoned its resistance to the idea and went along with the bill and its Senate-backed amendment permitting Johnson to carry out such trade through the Export-Import Bank if he found it was in the national interest.

Shortly after this crucial House vote, Speaker John W. McCormack received a telephone call from Canberra, Australia. It was the President, obviously expecting some good news about adjournment.

McCormack told him about the House retreat on Communist trade, and presumably reported prospects looked fairly good for the end of the 89th Congress by nightfall.

But those prospects foundered in the Senate, despite efforts by Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler, Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and others in a private huddle to find a way out of the deadlock over campaign financing. The proposal is part of a measure designed primarily to stimulate foreign investments in the United States.

Mansfield expressed doubts the squabble could be resolved today and talked of meeting "for several hours" on Sunday. The House action, taken after Democratic leaders warned against the appearance of undercutting Johnson during his Asian tour, came as Congress churned out scores of bills in hopes of quitting as soon as possible to hit the campaign trail.

House Lifts Credit Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, accepting a compromise, eased Friday a ban it had voted against use of new Export-Import Bank funds to underwrite credit sales to Communist Eastern European countries.

The House voted 129 to 102 to permit such action when the President certifies it is in the national interest.

Debate on the measure was vigorous and largely partisan, as was the vote in which Southerners, particularly those who have differed with President Johnson on domestic matters, gave their support.

U.S. Pilots Clobber 150 Red Barges

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Strike pilots claimed Friday knocking out 150 cargo barges along North Viet Nam's coastline.

Reporting on results of coastal raids Friday, U.S. military headquarters said fliers from three U.S. 7th Fleet aircraft carriers sighted some 300 barges and claimed destroying or damaging 125 of them.

LUBRICANTS

Some barges carried lubricants and oil, pilots reported.

The coastal attacks were carried out by Navy fighter-bombers from the carriers Constellation, Oriskany and Franklin D. Roosevelt patrolling "Yankee Station" in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Simultaneously, land-based U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs struck at a concentration of some 50 barges five miles south of coastal Dong Hoi on the southern end of North Viet Nam. Pilots reported destroying 15 barges and damaging 10 more.

The increased sightings of cargo barges indicated the Communists were turning more to water traffic to move their supplies than over heavily interdicted land routes.

High flying B52 bombers from Guam also were in action again. In the ground war, the U.S. military command reported no significant contact with the enemy.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported only one action. This was an engagement in Quang Nam Province about 350 miles northeast of Saigon. A spokesman said a unit of Viet Cong fighters killed 30 Viet Cong Friday and suffered only light casualties.

Warming Trend Is Developing

The warming trend that moved into the Monroe area Thursday is still going to be with us. The high today is expected to be 76 to 80 and the low just going to around 48 to 56. The nights will be warmer and the days cooler. Cooler temperatures are expected for Sunday. The winds will be out of a southeasterly direction today and changing to a northerly direction Sunday. There will be a few showers today and Sunday, with a 30 per cent probability of rain.

Friday in the Monroe area, the high as 71 between 1 and 2 p.m. and the low fell to around 35 at 6 a.m. that morning. There was no rainfall recorded by the FAA at Selman Field. The high for the same date a year ago was 66 and the low was 43.

Behind Closed Doors

Area Redistricting Plans Are Changed

By MILO DAKIN
World Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE — The Louisiana Reapportionment Commission Friday stayed behind closed doors five hours before finally changing five Senate districts in a reapportionment plan for Northeast Louisiana.

The House plan for the state was left untouched, ana.

As was the remainder of the senate seats.

The commission apparently ran into some difficulty in what was billed as the final meeting before presenting a reapportionment plan to Gov. John McKeithen.

Commission Chairman Rep. James Leake said his group still had to iron out difficulties in the House of Representatives plan for Lafourche and Assumption Parishes.

The changes in the Senate plan, the number of senators and the populations are:

Ouachita, West Carroll, East Carroll and Morehouse, one senator, 81,991.

Franklin, Madison, Richland and Tensas, one senator, 78,152.

Claiborne, Lincoln, Union and Bienville, two senators, 82,292.

Winn, Caldwell, Catahoula, Concordia, Jackson and LaSalle, one senator, 85,765.

Natchitoches, Red River, Rapides and Grant, two senators, 85,156.

The reapportionment council was appointed by Gov. McKeithen to draw up new seating plans that will meet federal guidelines based on the Supreme Court ruling of "one man-one vote," or a more equal population. The plan must still pass the legislature in a special session set for Nov. 28.

A three-man federal panel in New Orleans has given Louisiana until Jan. 1 to reapportion.

ment or face the possibility of every lawmaker running at large.

Leake expressed concern over the lagging House plan, and admitted the Senate plan was in much better shape. He said the Senate changes were made to pick up more votes during the special session.

Meanwhile lawmakers Friday expressed concern over a legislation jam in the November session, due to the probable addition of measures other than reapportionment, including a sales tax and the code of ethics.

A sampling of opinion of legislators indicates they expect some sort of sales tax, but most of them agreed it would not pass both houses. The code of ethics is expected to be worked over in the session, following a legal tangle in a district court decision here this week.

As Johnson motored through Sydney, people released balloons, threw colored streamers and gave him the greatest ticker tape welcome the city has ever seen.

He drove quickly to an official reception in an art gallery where he told Australians a great society cannot end at the water's edge in New York or Los Angeles.

"Nor can it end at the water's edge in Sydney or in Perth," Johnson said. "A truly great society can exist only in a great and unifying world dedicated to bringing out the best in people from all over the world."

As Johnson joined the 1,000 guests at the gallery reception, a great crowd massed outside to see him when he left.

Many were anti-Viet Nam demonstrators who cried virtually continuous boos. Some carried "Get out of Viet Nam" signs. There were other signs such as "You're fair dinkum Kall right, LBJ" and "We're 100 per cent behind you."

Many extra police rushed to the area and joined hands to keep the crowds back so they would be unable to swarm around Johnson.

One young man who tried to lie down before the presidential car while Johnson was inside at the reception was quickly carted off by police.

Among the police were several men mounted on thoroughbred, well schooled horses. Mounted police are frequently used in Sydney to control big crowds.

The Sydney demonstrators seemed more determined than those at Melbourne, where the paint was thrown.

LBJ Meets Yeas, Boos Along Way

SYDNEY (AP) — More than a million Australians gave President Johnson a tumultuous reception of cheers and jeers today in Australia's largest city.

The vocal opposition to the U.S.-Australian fighting alliance in Viet Nam appeared to be stronger in Sydney than it had been Friday at Melbourne, second largest city.

At Melbourne, the presidential limousine was splattered with red and green paint hurled by a demonstrator.

Soon after the President and his wife arrived in Sydney, an ugly crowd of slogan-shouting student demonstrators numbering several hundreds blocked the President's route at one stage, some of them lying on the roadway.

BODILY MOVED

Police moved in and lifted them bodily out of the path of two press trucks traveling immediately ahead of the President's bubbletop limousine.

Seconds later the President changed cars, getting into an inconspicuous black Pontiac.

The motorcade picked up speed and whisked past the demonstrators, zigzagging as it went.

A White House spokesman said the reason the President changed cars was that conetti and paper thrown by the excited crowds had blocked the air-conditioning ducts of the presidential limousine, making it uncomfortable.

As the motorcade accelerated and headed for the art gallery where the President spoke later, the demonstrators surged around the press cars following Johnson and pelted them with toilet paper and hard projectiles that forced the pressmen to shut the windows.

Tense Calm Settles On Laotian Capital After Plane Strike

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Tense calm fell over this Laotian capital Friday night after military installations were attacked by planes in an apparent power struggle between the nation's air force chief and the armed forces high command.

Eleven persons were killed and four wounded. There were reports of a possible coup, but in Paris, the Laotian premier, Prince Souvanna Phouma, said he was not aware of anything like that. He added, however, that it is "very possible," since rivalry among factions of the armed forces leadership had been developing for months. Souvanna Phouma reached Paris Thursday and said he plans to remain there, at least for the moment. Souvanna Phouma has been on an extended trip that included a stop at the United Nations and a meeting with President Johnson last week.

Vientiane shops closed for the day and most people remained indoors. Streets were deserted. The Laotian government radio announced the government was in control and appealed for calm.

Gen. Kouprasith Abhay, commander of the Vientiane 5th Military Region, told newsmen the air force chief, Brig. Gen. Thao Ma, had formed a revolutionary committee. He said Thao Ma had sent advance word he would send his planes to bomb Vientiane a second time.

The armed forces high command in Vientiane had planned to remove the 32-year-old Thao Ma from command of the air force, effective next Tuesday, and demote him to a post on the general staff at Vientiane.

The quarrel between the generals in Vientiane and Thao Ma was reported to be a personal rivalry.

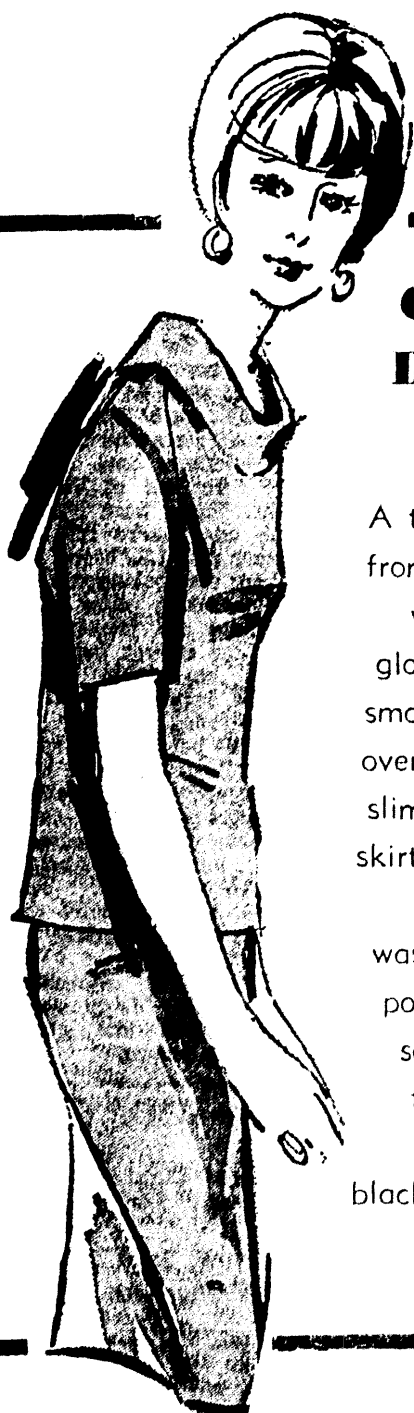

Reports reaching Vientiane said high ranking army officers, including Gen. Quan Rattikone, the royal army's commander in chief, escaped arrest at Savannakhet, fleeing with other officers in a jeep to Pakse.

In addition to dissension among the military, dissatisfaction with Souvanna Phouma's government developed several weeks ago when the National Assembly turned down the government's draft budget, a move tantamount to a vote of no confidence.

Viet Reds? Grenada Negroes Hold Morale Dips, Parade At City Square U.S. Claims

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department views the increasing number of enemy prisoners taken in Viet Nam as an encouraging sign of deteriorating morale among the Communists.

A Pentagon spokesman said Friday that the present rate at which allied forces are capturing prisoners would double that of 1965 if it continued.

There was a record capture of 1,444 prisoners in the first two weeks of October. Through mid-October, 7,488 Communists were taken, compared to 6,230 in 1965 and 4,150 in 1964.

If the October rate continues, authorities said prisoner of war totals could reach 2,500 to 3,000 a month, as compared to an average rate of less than 1,000 in past months.

Officials also were encouraged over the first Communist fighting unit to surrender as a unit — a 60-man group that was taken by U.S. forces in Operation Living in central South Viet Nam.

The only other unit surrendered so far in the Vietnamese war was a group of 40 "political cadres" taken early this year. The cadres, totaling about 40,000 men, are armed, terrorize villagers and enforce tax collections for the Communists and are not considered fighting units.

The prisoner count was only one of several signs being watched. Officials said the high losses suffered by the Communists and U.S. military victories in the past 14 months were also hurting enemy morale.

Hickey Warns On Legislative Power

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Sen. Theodore Hickey, chairman of the Legislative Council, warned Friday the legislature will "slip down to oblivion" unless it acts to hold its power balance in state government.

The council met here and authorized Hickey, New Orleans, to set up four subcommittees to study vital areas concerning the legislature.

The subcommittee work grew out of two resolutions of the last regular legislature.

These called on the council for recommendations on the powers, functions and duties of the legislature, and on the system of legislative committee meetings.

The council, research arm of the legislature, said there was a need for more space for legislative agencies and for streamlining the legislative mechanics.

The council also discussed its role in legislative directives for studies into a revised elections code, insurance rate making, revision of hunting and fishing laws, and a proposed style form for legislation.

Hickey said New Orleans area legislators would be seeking help on legislative proposals to make shyness a crime in Louisiana.

This matter now is covered only in civil statutes concerning usury and contracts, and Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison of New Orleans has urged the council to propose legislation to bring it under criminal law.

The council decided this was not something for it to do, and Hickey said he and other lawmakers would seek studies toward such legislation individually from the council, and perhaps drafting of bills.

A function of the council staff is to help legislators draw up their legislation.

Hickey urged the council to work on proposals to improve the image and power of the legislature.

Dale B. Martha, coordinator of city building, electricity and plumbing, hung the "Condemned" sign on the old City Hall and Engineer's Building Friday with mixed emotions, for the tiny room on the south side of the engineer's building had been his second home for many years. His desk in the new Government Center office is just about as big as the room from which he moved. His sentimental nature showed through, however, when he wrote a personal note on the bottom of the "Condemned" sign: "I sure hate to do you this way."

Thinking Ahead

Thinking more than two months ahead, the Christmas decorations for West Monroe city hall have been selected. Centered over the front door will be a large candle ringed by a red wreath and lights. Trailing from the circle of red are green garlands and lights. Should anyone not get the point, above will be red and green letters spelling "NOEL."

Grenada Negroes Hold Parade At City Square

GRENADA, Miss. (AP) — Some 260 Negro youngsters paraded around the city square Friday to magnify their charges of harassment by white pupils and teachers at newly integrated schools.

"We love all you white folks," chanted the marchers.

Earlier, 75 Negro pupils walked out of the two desegregated schools, John Rundle High and Lizzie Horn Elementary, and 50 others left all - Negro schools in sympathy.

Highway patrolmen, who have been in the city for more than a month, turned back a group of about 15 Negroes who approached John Rundle High School. Officers told them they could not see the principal without an appointment.

A spokesman for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference said one Negro student had been jerked by the collar and taken out of a school lunchroom by a school official.

Supt. Gayle Wilborn said there had been instances when both white and Negro pupils were talked to in the hall, but that no one had been "collared."

He said the only harassment in any school had come from a small group of Negro boys. SCLC leaders have said they plan to meet with school officials next week, but John Rundle Principal J. M. Ainsworth said he would not talk to any group. He said he "will talk to any parent individually about the problems of his child at any time."

The school walkout was the first break in the civil rights routine in Grenada in more than a month. The first days of integration had been marked by violence.

During the day, the city announced that Paul McKelroy has been named police commissioner and director of public relations. McKelroy until recently served as a training officer at the State Highway Patrol Academy in Rankin County. He has spent 14 years with the patrol, 12 serving in Grenada County.

Whites reacted with violence when the schools began desegregated classes early last month. Roving bands of white men armed with chains and ax handles attacked pupils and reporters. One Negro boy's leg was broken.

Several days later, the FBI arrested 13 white men on charges of conspiring to violate the civil rights of Negroes. Five white men later were indicted. Original charges against the 13 were dropped Thursday in what a government attorney called a routine action.

Some highway patrolmen have been in town since the term began. Negro pupils have told of occasional harassment, such as shoves in the hallways or name calling. But most have indicated at public meetings that white pupils had not bothered them. The Negroes said teachers were civil when integration started.

Rep. Vernon Grogan, Orleans Parish, picked up some sentiment in favor of his proposal to direct the Louisiana Office Building Corp. to provide a special building to house agencies of the legislature, committee rooms and offices.

Director Devan Daggett of the council said the council needed some 4,000 square feet itself, and this may not be available when Gov. McKeithen vacates his offices on the main floor of the capitol to move to the fourth floor.

One member of the council suggested the legislature should have its own 10 - story office building.

Tease To Stay

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Japanese stripteaseer Mayumi Sugi dropped part of her act on arrival here for a hotel cabaret engagement. When told night club performers by law must be adequately covered at all times — the fine may not exceed $2,000 — she said she would stop the strip and just tease, which is not illegal.

Tense Calm Settles On Laotian Capital After Plane Strike

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Tense calm fell over this Laotian capital Friday night after military installations were attacked by planes in an apparent power struggle between the nation's air force chief and the armed forces high command. Eleven persons were killed and four wounded.

There were reports of a possible coup, but in Paris, the Laotian premier, Prince Souvanna Phouma, said he was not aware of anything like that. He added, however, that it is "very possible" since rivalry among factions of the armed forces leadership had been developing for months. Souvanna Phouma reached Paris Thursday and said he plans to remain there, at least for the moment. Souvanna Phouma has been on an extended trip that included a stop at the United Nations and a meeting with President Johnson last week.

Vientiane shops closed for the day and most people remained indoors. Streets were deserted. The Laotian government radio announced the government was in control and appealed for calm.

Gen. Kouprasith Abhay, commander of the Vientiane 5th Military Region, told newsmen the air force chief, Brig. Gen. Thao Ma, had formed a revolutionary coup committee. He said Thao Ma had sent advance word he would send his planes to bomb Vientiane a second time.

The armed forces high command in Vientiane had planned to remove the 32-year-old Thao Ma from command of the air force, effective next Tuesday, and demote him to a post on the general staff at Vientiane.

The quarrel between the generals in Vientiane and Thao Ma was reported to be a personal rivalry.

Reports reaching Vientiane said high ranking army officers, including Gen. Quan Rattikone, the royal army's commander in chief, escaped arrest at Savannakhet, fleeing with other officers in a jeep to Pakse.

In addition to dissension among the military, dissatisfaction with Souvanna Phouma's government developed several weeks ago when the National Assembly turned down the government's draft budget, a move tantamount to a vote of no confidence.

Police On 12-Hour Shift In Manhunt For Strangler

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police went on 12-hour shifts Friday in an intensive manhunt for a sadistic killer blamed for five rape-strangings in the Cincinnati area the past 10 months.

The latest victim, Miss Rose Winstel, 81, a spinster, was found Thursday night in her home near the downtown area, adding to the fears of women that have been building up over the months.

Police said the latest murder displayed both similarities and dissimilarities to the other slayings.

Five Taken To Hospital After Mishap

Five West Monroe residents including two children, were taken to Glenwood Hospital in serious condition after an auto and pickup truck collided on the Arkansas Road Friday.

The driver of the pickup truck Mrs. Carolyn S. Bailey, 24, of Rt. 1 Box 146-D, West Monroe, was listed in serious condition late Friday while her 3-year-old daughter Adonna, a passenger in the truck, was said to be in fair condition, according to hospital officials.

Also in fair condition Friday night was the driver of the other vehicle, James F. Patrick, 48, of 3906 Whites Ferry Rd., West Monroe, his wife Orelle Patrick, 49, and Penny Kay Patrick, 8.

State Police reported that they had not completed their report of the accident and would not theorize what had occurred. However both vehicles were indicated to have well over a $1000 damage to both of them on the incomplete report.

The collision occurred approximately three miles west of here early Friday afternoon on State Highway 616, which is known as the Arkansas Road.

In another accident in West Monroe, two men, one a West Monroe policeman, was injured early Friday when their automobiles collided on Jonesboro Road in West Monroe.

Sgt. Harold Lofton, 32, was pursuing an old model automobile driven by Gussie L. Mitchell, 19, of 207 1/2 Morris, West Monroe, when his car collided with a vehicle driven by Woodrow T. Murphy, 50, of 1713 S. 6th St., West Monroe.

Murphy was listed in satisfactory condition at St. Francis Hospital Friday. Sgt. Lofton was taken to Glenwood Hospital for treatment.

Mitchell was booked for reckless driving.

Laurel Sets New Election For Mayor

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — The city of Laurel Friday scheduled a special mayors' election for Jan. 17 to replace Henry Bucklew, who was removed from office after conviction of attempted embezzlement.

Meanwhile, veteran public official Lonnie Meador was named acting mayor by the two city commissioners, C. A. Massey and T. A. Blackledge.

Meador has served Jones County as sheriff and both chancery and circuit clerk.

Circuit Judge Lunsford Casey stripped Bucklew of office on Thursday and fined him $816, the amount of a jeep repair bill Bucklew was found guilty by a jury of trying to embezzle from the city.

Rail Accident Kills 10 People

NEVERS, France (AP) — A rail accident near Cosne-Sur-Loire Friday night killed 10 persons and injured at least 13 others. They were passengers on a local bound for Nevers.

Rail officials at first said the train was the Paris-Lyon Express but later reported it was a local.

The accident occurred when the last car of the Montargis-Nevers local jumped the rails and toppled over soon after leaving the Cosne-Sur-Loire station.

The city's 950-man police force has been in a state of emergency since the fourth slaying—that of Alice Hochhauser, 51, the night of Oct. 11 in her garage in the Clifton section.

Police believe the rapist-strangler first struck on Oct. 12, 1965. On that date, a 65-year-old woman was raped, beaten and robbed. Her attacker tried to strangle her, but she lived and described the rapist as a Negro.

On Dec. 2, Emogene Harrington, 56, wife of a University of Cincinnati space scientist, was killed in the basement of her apartment house. The next victim, Lois Dant, 58, wife of a retired railroad employee, was found dead in her Price Hill section home on April 4.

Jeannette Messer, 56, a widow, was killed early on June 10 while walking her dog in Burnet Woods Park about a mile north of Miss Winstel's home. Three of the killings have occurred within two miles of there.

Wives Food Fight Goes Shore To Shore

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The housewives' battle to lower food prices was spreading from Denver Friday to both coasts.

In some cities the irate housewives aimed at promotion gimmicks such as trading stamps, bingo and cash awards.

A picket at a supermarket in Santa Maria, Calif., said, "We are tired of paying for games and stamps." One group proposed a boycott on stores with the promotion "gimmicks."

Esther Peterson, President Johnson's special assistant for consumer affairs, called on the Federal Trade Commission for a "high priority" study of the various promotion gimmicks used by the chain stores.

Her disclosure came at a news conference in Denver Thursday after her arrival to look at the local boycott of supermarkets.

The commission said it had Mrs. Peterson's request "under active consideration."

The staff director of a congressional inquiry into the Denver situation warned housewives not to precipitate a supermarket price war.

"I want to suggest to Mrs. Paul West — president of the Denver Housewives for Lower Food Prices — that she use her influence and good office to prevent any type of price war," said Peter Barsch, whose inquiry committee is a separate unit of the House Committee on Government Operations.

He warned that a rice war "might decrease competition — which is very bad for the consumer in the long run." He added that prices often shoot up after a price war and even beyond what they were before the war as the stores try to make back some of their lost profits.

Across the country, pickets appeared at supermarkets, women organized meetings, petitions were circulated and protests drafted.

Dallas housewives, who call their plans a "ladycott," continued picketing and planned a weekend boycott. Phyllis Welch said, "The stores think we can't hurt them by our picketing and protests, so we'll see what a boycott will do."

Theresa Alexander, organizing a boycott of food stores in the Charleston, S.C., said, "We've got a steamroller going." She reported the first picketing of local stores is planned to start Oct. 29, with one of the largest chains, A&P, ing.

Mrs. Paul Whitehead, organizing the "Citizens for Lower Prices" in the industrial city of Burlington, N.C., said an organization meeting is set for Saturday night. She said there was a "terrific response" to an advertisement announcing the meeting.

Police On 12-Hour Shift In Manhunt For Strangler

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police went on 12-hour shifts Friday in an intensive manhunt for a sadistic killer blamed for five rape-strangings in the Cincinnati area the past 10 months.

The latest victim, Miss Rose Winstel, 81, a spinster, was found Thursday night in her home near the downtown area, adding to the fears of women that have been building up over the months.

Police said the latest murder displayed both similarities and dissimilarities to the other slayings in the series that started Dec. 2, 1965. Miss Winstel was the second rape-slaying victim within 10 days.

Coroner Frank P. Cleveland said Miss Winstel was strangled with the cord of a heating pad. This links her death to those of the other four women.

Police said she also had been savagely beaten—the same as other victims of the strangler. At the same time she was more than 20 years older than the other victims and the killer for the first time used force to get into her house.

All doors and windows of Miss Winstel's modest home in a rapidly-mixed neighborhood had been locked. Detective Chief Jacob Schott said the killer smashed a chain lock to get into the elderly white woman's house.

Several men were questioned by police, one of them overnight, but all were released, detectives said.

City Manager William C. Wichman put the police on the long shifts after an emergency meeting of city officials. He said the effective force would be almost doubled by relieving police of non-essential duties and by pulling cadets out of classes.

More policemen will be put on foot beats — something that had been almost abolished in recent years.

Wichman also asked citizens to help police by keeping an eye on each other and invited men with experience in police work to offer their services.

The city's 950-man police force has been in a state of emergency since the fourth slaying—that of Alice Hochhauser, 51, the night of Oct. 11 in her garage in the Clifton section.

Police believe the rapist-strangler first struck on Oct. 12, 1965. On that date, a 65-year-old woman was raped, beaten and robbed. Her attacker tried to strangle her, but she lived and described the rapist as a Negro.

On Dec. 2, Emogene Harrington, 56, wife of a University of Cincinnati space scientist, was killed in the basement of her apartment house. The next victim, Lois Dant, 58, wife of a retired railroad employee, was found dead in her Price Hill section home on April 4.

Jeannette Messer, 56, a widow, was killed early on June 10 while walking her dog in Burnet Woods Park about a mile north of Miss Winstel's home. Three of the killings have occurred within two miles of there.

On Dec. 2, Emogene Harrington, 56, wife of a University of Cincinnati space scientist, was killed in the basement of her apartment house. The next victim, Lois Dant, 58, wife of a retired railroad employee, was found dead in her Price Hill section home on April 4.

Jeannette Messer, 56, a widow, was killed early on June 10 while walking her dog in Burnet Woods Park about a mile north of Miss Winstel's home. Three of the killings have occurred within two miles of there.

Police believe the rapist-strangler first struck on Oct. 12, 1965. On that date, a 65-year-old woman was raped, beaten and robbed. Her attacker tried to strangle her, but she lived and described the rapist as a Negro.

Five Taken To Hospital After Mishap

Five West Monroe residents, including two children, were taken to Glenwood Hospital in serious condition after an auto and pickup truck collided on the Arkansas Road Friday.

The driver of the pickup truck Mrs. Carolyn S. Bailey, 24, of Rt. 1 Box 146-D, West Monroe, was listed in serious condition late Friday while her 3-year-old daughter Adonna, a passenger in the truck, was said to be in fair condition, according to hospital officials.

Also in fair condition Friday night was the driver of the other vehicle, James F. Patrick, 48, of 3906 Whites Ferry Rd., West Monroe, his wife Orelle Patrick, 49, and Penny Kay Patrick, 8.

State Police reported that they had not completed their report of the accident and would not theorize what had occurred. However both vehicles were indicated to have well over a $1000 damage to both of them on the incomplete report.

The collision occurred approximately three miles west of here early Friday afternoon on State Highway 616, which is known as the Arkansas Road.

In another accident in West Monroe, two men, one a West Monroe policeman, was injured early Friday when their automobiles collided on Jonesboro Road in West Monroe.

Sgt. Harold Lofton, 32, was pursuing an old model automobile driven by Gussie L. Mitchell, 19, of 207½ Morris, West Monroe, when his car collided with a vehicle driven by Woodrow T. Murphy, 50, of 1713 S. 6th St., West Monroe.

Murphy was listed in satisfactory condition at St. Francis Hospital Friday. Sgt. Lofton was taken to Glenwood Hospital for treatment.

Mitchell was booked for reckless driving.

Laurel Sets New Election For Mayor

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — The city of Laurel Friday scheduled a special mayors' election for Jan. 17 to replace Henry Bucklew, who was removed from office after conviction of attempted embezzlement.

Meanwhile, veteran public official Lonnie Meador was named acting mayor by the two city commissioners, C. A. Massey and T. A. Blackledge.

Meador has served Jones County as sheriff and both chancery and circuit clerk.

Circuit Judge Lunsford Casey stripped Bucklew of office on Thursday and fined him $816, the amount of a jeep repair bill Bucklew was found guilty by a jury of trying to embezzle from the city.

Rail Accident Kills 10 People

NEVERS, France (AP) — A rail accident near Cosne-Sur-Loire Friday night killed 10 persons and injured at least 13 others. They were passengers on a local bound for Nevers.

Rail officials at first said the train was the Paris-Lyon Express but later reported it was a local.

The accident occurred when the last car of the Montargis-Nevers local jumped the rails and toppled over soon after leaving the Cosne-Sur-Loire station.

Wives Food Fight Goes Shore To Shore

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The housewives' battle to lower food prices was spreading from Denver Friday to both coasts.

In some cities the irate housewives aimed at promotion gimmicks such as trading stamps, bingo and cash awards.

A picket at a supermarket in Santa Maria, Calif., said, "We are tired of paying for games and stamps." One group proposed a boycott on stores with the promotion "gimmicks."

Esther Peterson, President Johnson's special assistant for consumer affairs, called on the Federal Trade Commission for a "high priority" study of the various promotion gimmicks used by the chain stores.

Her disclosure came at a news conference in Denver Thursday after her arrival to look at the local boycott of supermarkets.

The commission said it had Mrs. Peterson's request "under active consideration."

The staff director of a congressional inquiry into the Denver situation warned housewives not to precipitate a supermarket price war.

"I want to suggest to Mrs. Paul West — president of the Denver Housewives for Lower Food Prices — that she use her influence and good office to prevent any type of price war," said Peter Barasch, whose inquiry committee is a separate unit of the House Committee on Government Operations.

He warned that a rice war "might decrease competition — which is very bad for the consumer in the long run." He added that prices often shoot up after a price war and even beyond what they were before the war as the stores try to make back some of their lost profits.

Across the country, pickets appeared at supermarkets, women organized meetings, petitions were circulated and protests drafted.

Dallas housewives, who call their plans a "ladycott," continued a steamroller picketing and planned a weekend boycott. Phyllis Welch said, "The stores think we can't hurt them by cur picketing and

'Coal Again Demands Sacrifice'

Welsh Slag Pile Disaster Numbs Toughened Miners

ABERFAN, Wales (AP) — An ugly heap of coal mine dross that grew into a towering mountain of peril through the years avalanched Friday and brought a long-feared disaster down on this village.

Tough Welsh coal miners, hardened by long years of recurrent pit disasters, were numbed.

As they toiled without letup to recover the broken bodies of little children buried under a black avalanche of slag, their unspoken comment was: "Coal once again has demanded its sacrifice."

During the last 100 years mine explosions have taken a heavy toll of life in the Welsh mining valleys.

But this time it was school children who died — not their fathers.

For more than half a century the slag heap at Aberfan has looked above the little terraced houses and the village school. An unfriendly sight but one that had to be lived with.

The children of Pentglas junior and infants school grew up with the steadily growing mountain.

It reached a height of 800 feet. Then the rains came.

Heavy rain is nothing new in this part of Wales. But the horror that followed was something that rock-hard miners of 40 years experience underground had never seen before.

The mountain began to move.

A wave of soft, heavy coal sludge — an estimated two million tons of it — poured onto the village schoolhouse and nearby houses.

"This is how Pompeii died under a volcanic ash," said one awestruck onlooker.

The dark, dark mountain of Aberfan didn't erupt. It split under torrential rains and plunged downward.

Like the people of ancient Pompeii, most of the 4,000 inhabitants of Aberfan rushed from their homes as they heard the rumbling.

But for the little children of Pentglas School there was no escape.

This village under the evil, menacing mountain presented an unimaginable sight through the night.

Everywhere was a coal black morass of slime.

Rescue workers, some up to their knees in sludge, picked carefully in the debris of the buried school rooms.

Mechanically, they emptied the slag onto the streets where giant yellow earth-moving machines loaded it into dump trucks.

Weeping mothers huddled nearby in the chill night air. Most of them had stood gazing fixedly at the slag hour after hour.

At regular intervals the pandemonium of rescue work was interrupted by the shrill blast of whistles followed by shouts of "silence, silence."

The tolling thousands would stop as one man, lean on their shovels and wait expectantly.

Police officials then would shout "Hello...hello...hello..." into the tangled mass of debris in the hope that a faint cry from inside would give them a clue to the whereabouts of possible survivors.

After several minutes of uncanny, almost unbearable silence, the order would go out: "Resume rescue operations."

And the bustle would be restarted.

Sometimes white-helmeted miners, Red Cross nurses and policemen would stand back, their heads bowed, to allow a stretcher to be carried away.

On it would be the body of a child, covered by a red blanket. Blackened bodies were laid out for identification in a nearby chapel.

In an atmosphere of terrible tension, police allowed parents through one or two at a time. Neighbors lined up under dim street lamps and watched the chapel door silently.

Byrd Lies In State At Home

BERRYVILLE, Va. (AP) — Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia lay in a flag-draped mahogany casket in his beloved northern Virginia home country Friday while scores of saddened friends and neighbors stopped by to pay their respects.

Rosemont, Byrd's white-pillared residence in the heart of his vast apple orchard holdings had been open over the years of visitors — never a stately retreat, where a famous man could escape his public.

Only in recent weeks, while the former Virginia senator lay in a deep coma with the malignant brain tumor that finally took his life Thursday, was the "visitors welcome" sign removed from the entrance to Rosemont. It was painted on a direction arrow that stood near a line of four mailboxes. The one at the end was marked simply "H.F. Byrd."

A mounting flood of sympathy messages poured in from all over the nation to the three sons of the man who became a legend in his time in the government of his state and nation.

Two of the sons, B. Beverley Byrd and Richard E. Byrd,

MAJ. GEN. R. G. MacDonnell is expected to take over duties in December as president of the Mississippi River Commission, headquartered in Vicksburg, Miss. He will serve concurrently as division engineer of the Corps of Engineers for the Lower Mississippi Valley Division. He will be in charge of federal projects in eight states, including Louisiana.

Grocer Firms Losing Money In Price Wars, Council Says

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — seen by a panel of professional economists whose highly optimistic report on the business food retailers who have cut prices under pressure of housewives' boycott "are losing money hand over fist." He predicted an early end to the cut-price selling.

W.B. Murphy, president of Campbell Soup Co., Camden, N.J., told newsmen covering the fall meeting of the council of top-rung industrialists that "the housewife is wrong."

"A retail grocery store makes one per cent profit after taxes," Murphy said. "The retailer is not the guilty party. Neither is the food processor the guilty party. The guilty party is the over-all economy, with its rising cost pressures."

"The food store is a handy goat for the housewife, but the housewife is wrong. She will find out that she is wrong."

Stores in Denver and elsewhere have cut prices below cost to mollify the housewife protesters, Murphy said.

"The stores cannot stand it for long—everybody will come back to his senses," said Murphy.

Some slowing in the rate of living cost increases was fore-which they estimated at a record $738 billion. The economists' report, delivered by William M. Batten, board chairman of the J.C. Penney Co., Inc., New York, indicated that price inflation will continue, "but not at any runaway rate," Batten said.

If you have a question you want answered, write or call "Mr. Editor, Tell Me, Please" at the Morning World and News-Star. We'll be glad to get the information and pass it on to you each Saturday in this column.

What happens to the proceeds or profit made at the Ouachita Valley Fair? Is this controlled by the parish's police jury?

The fair is privately-owned by a group of individuals. John Birdson Sr., Monroe businessman, is president of the Ouachita Valley Fair Association. Various organizations set up benefit booths or concession stands at the fair, and keep their own profits. Ticket sales at the gate are handled by civic groups who share in the proceeds. The police jury does not finance or benefit from the fair. Repairs of the fairgrounds and all financial worry is in the hands of association members.

Who are the members of the cabinet of the United States?

Secretary of State, Dean Rusk; Secretary of the Treasury, C. Douglas Dillon; Secretary of Defense, Robert S. McNamara; Secretary of the Interior, Stewart L. Udall; Attorney General, Ramsey Clark; Postmaster General, John A. Gronouski; Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman; Secretary of Commerce, John T. Connor; Secretary of Labor, W. Willard Wirtz; Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Anthony J. Celebrezze. The Secretaries of the U.S. Air Force, Army and Navy formerly were cabinet members, but with the creation Sept. 18, 1947, of the Department of Defense, these department secretaries were incorporated into one. The heads of the Army, Navy and Air Force are now under the Secretary of Defense, in this case, Robert McNamara.

Who are the nine members of the U.S. Supreme Court?

Earl Warren is Chief Justice. Associate Justices are Hugo Black, William O. Douglas, Tom Clark, John Marshall Harlan, William Joseph Brennan Jr., Potter Stewart, Byron R. White and Abe Fortas.

I own savings bonds which I bought between 1947 and 1954. Are these bonds still earning interest and when will this interest stop?

Any Series E Savings Bonds ever purchased is still earning interest the Treasury Department says. Bonds purchased prior to May 1949, have been given two 10-year extensions. Bonds purchased since then have been given one 10-year extension. Interest will continue until the bonds are cashed or reach absolute maturity.

What are the new limitations on holding Savings Bonds?

Under new government regulations, the limitations on holdings of bonds issued during any one calendar year are $20,000 (face value) for Series E Bonds and $30,000 for H bonds.

What is the U.S. Court for Impeachments?

The Senate of the United States has the sole power to try impeachments. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice of the United States presides. Conviction requires concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Is any time of the year more advantageous than another for cashing in Series E Bonds?

It should be on the anniversary date of the particular bond or at six-month intervals thereafter, so says the Treasury Department. E bonds gain in value every six months. When held to maturity, they return a yield of 4.15 per cent, compounded semi-annually.

Will you tell me please if Northeast State football team in Tampa, Fla., and when?

yer to determine which amount is given to the surviving spouse and which goes to the children. Louisiana's Community Property Law provides that half the money would go to the wife, and the husband's half would be divided among the children. All such matters are legal, however, and can best be answered by an attorney, because exceptions to every rule crop up, and our general answer could guide you incorrectly.

Recently you answered a question in your column about how a street in another state got its name, so will you please tell me where the name 'Bres' came from, for Monroe's Bres Avenue.

The name came from an early resident of Monroe. The Rev. Jerome Bres was the first native Catholic priest of Northeast Louisiana, ordained in 1881. Father Bres was born at Logtown, and his mother's dying wish was that her son become a priest. He studied at St. Charles' College, Md., and St. Mary's at Baltimore, Md., and was ordained in the Cathedral of Baltimore at the Christmas embers day of 1881. His father, Jerome, and his maiden sister, Aurora, went to Baltimore for the occasion. He celebrated his first mass a few days later at St. Matthew's Church here on Christmas Day, 1881. He died a few months later in Alexandria, where he was in the Natchitoches Diocese.

In a motion picture showing in this area recently, a criminal terrorizes a girl bank clerk in an attempt to force her to embezzle money from the bank. The criminal takes the clerk's younger sister as hostage. What is the name of the movie and which actor portrayed the killer?

The motion picture "Experiment in Terror" released in April, 1962, stars Lee Remick as the bank clerk and Glenn Ford as the FBI man who solves the crime. In the plot, Miss Remick arrives at home to find a man standing in the dark garage. Thereafter begins a long, frantic chase by the FBI. The only clue to the identity of the embezzler is that he has asthma. The director of the film never reveals the identity of the man or allows the audience to see his face until the final scenes, when the hunted man is shown after a chase across a San Francisco ball park. The actor portraying the embezzler is Ross Martin.

Now that Monroe Police Chief Kelly has complete records on the Ku Klux Klan, does he plan to compile or have on file, and make available to other legal agencies, records on such groups as CORE, SNCC, NAACP, and the Southern Christian Leadership Council?

According to Chief Kelly, records of all such groups are maintained and kept on file by the police department and other legal agencies. These groups exchange information with each other in a continuing program for intelligence purposes.

Can the police jury of a parish pay per diem and mileage to members of a parish planning commission?

No. A recent ruling by John R. Hunter Jr., assistant attorney general for the State of Louisiana, said the Louisiana statutes make no provision or authority for payment of either mileage or per diem to members of a planning commission, whether this is to attend a meeting or other types of business.

Who has the power to declare and enforce a stock law in each ward? I have been told that it is left up to the police jury. If so, to what extent does he control the roads? Does this include gravel roads?

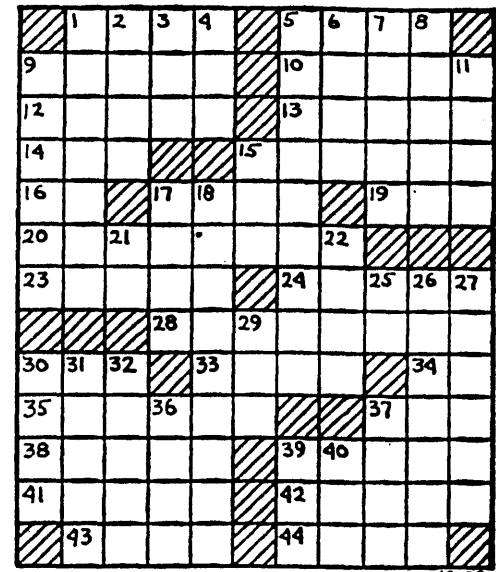

Arlan Rawls, Ward 5 Ouachita Parish police jury and chairman of the jury's stock law committee, explains that a parish stock law must be passed by the entire jury, and that individual wards may not take independent action. The individual jury therefore exercises no control over the roads. In Ouachita Parish, where there is a stock law, its enforcement is in the hands of a parish range rider to whom complaints are referred. Passage of the stock law entails its effectiveness on every road of the parish — gravel and paved, even those in cities, Rawls said.

Brazilian Troops Quit Building

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — Government troops were removed Friday from around the Congressional Building and free access to the structure was restored.

Three army trucks removed 50 to 60 soldiers who had stationed themselves around the twin tower building at dawn Thursday when President Humberto Castello Branco took over complete control of Brazil by ordering Congress into recess for one month.

A small detachment of the permanent congressional guard remained on duty. The city was calm.

deals with the Municipal Employees' Retirement System of Louisiana. If it is compulsory for all municipal employees to participate in the retirement plan, why is it just now being enforced?

Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard answers that the reason is essentially an initial misinterpretation of the law and faulty communication of its content. When the current administration came into office in 1956, he says, the time for municipalities to decide whether to participate was just expiring. Having agreed then to participate employees were given a year to decide whether to join, on the assumption that membership was voluntary. Actually, employees under the age of 55 in participating cities must join, the law says. Those over 55 cannot join. These facts have only recently been called to the attention of Monroe officials and those of various other cities, Howard declares, which accounts for the apparently sudden enforcement. Employees under 55, therefore, must join. As to the intervening years, they may elect to make back payments and receive retirement credit for the period since the law became effective. Employees and the state pay into the system; the city does not.

Israelite Tension Mounting

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Tension mounted along the already explosive Israeli-Syrian border Friday as Israel angrily charged Syria with a new bombing attack.

Military officials said a kiosk on the outskirts of Ein Gedi, less than a mile from the Jordanian border, was blown up Thursday night and that an Israeli patrol also discovered a mine planted in a nearby road.

"They said the sabotage followed the pattern of previous raids by Syrian infiltrators, although footprints showed the raiders left Israel by way of the Jordanian border."

Israel filed a formal complaint with the Israel Jordan mixed armistice commission after the attack which followed by hours a speech by Israeli Premier Levi Eshkol in which he advocated restraint in the face of Syrian aggression.

"It takes courage not to make war immediately on being attacked," he told a parliamentary meeting. "It is necessary to wait and see that is not a sign of weakness."

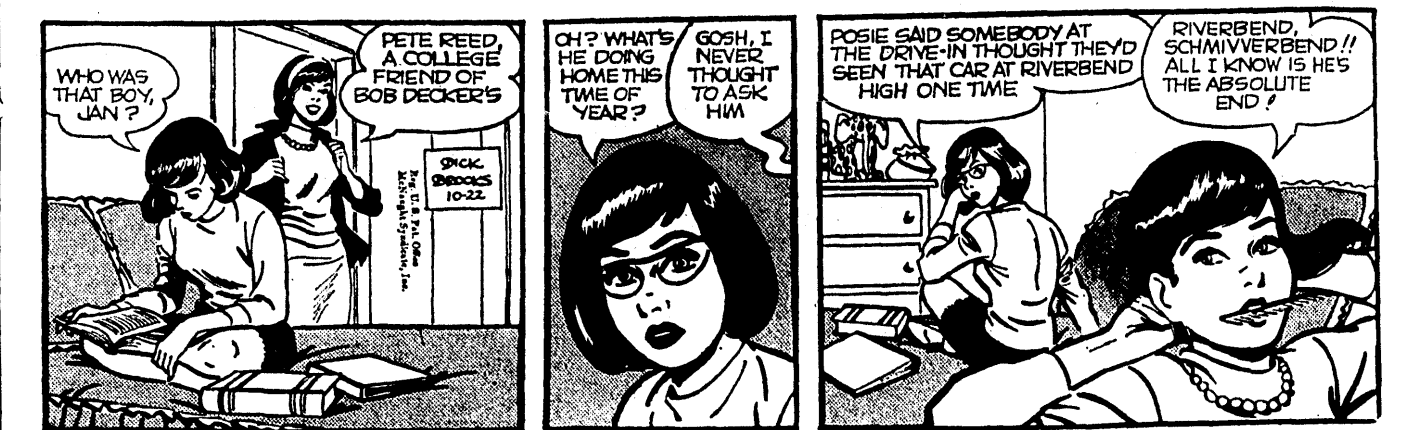

However, he warned that Israel would not hesitate to war on Syria over the border incidents if it became necessary, and said Israel's defensive power was greater than ever.

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is moving day for the Hubert H. Humphreys. But like husbands the world over, the vice president managed to be out of town. He is on a campaign swing through Midwestern states. Moving trucks took the family's possessions from their home of 18 years, on Coquelin Terrace in Chevy Chase, Md., to Harbour Square, a cooperative apartment building in southwest Washington. The Humphreys now have an eighth-floor apartment overlooking the Potomac River.

If a married couple has on deposit in a bank sums in the name of Mr. and Mrs. Doe, or Mr. and Mrs. Doe, and the man dies, would the wife be given rights to it all?

In most cases, the wife would gain rights of all the money if the capital was in an account marked Mr. or Mrs., but the signatures of both the husband and wife are needed for withdrawal of money from accounts marked Mr. and Mrs. In such cases, you must see a law-

Young Melbournier 'Bombs' LBJ's Limousine With Paint

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — President Johnson's limousine withstood a bombing — with washable paint — as Australia's second largest city turned out half a million persons to cheer him Friday.

The President laughed off the red and green paint incident, telling his staff: "I guess they just couldn't stand the size of that turnout." He was not touched by the paint — tossed perhaps by one of Australia's Viet Nam dissidents.

The Johnsons had just passed through the heart of Melbourne to the cheers of the biggest crowd yet on their Asian trip. It happened so quickly that eyewitness accounts differed.

Northeast's Role Noted For Meeting

Both faculty and students of Northeast Louisiana State College's Department of Music will have key roles when the Louisiana Music Teachers Association has its convention in Lafayette Friday, Oct. 28.

Miss Jerry Vann, instructor in music, will sing at the 10:45 session that morning in the music building at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Eloise Stanhope, associate professor of music.

Miss Vann, who joined the faculty this fall, has been a soloist with an acappella choir in Europe, and won second place in Louisiana regional Metropolitan Opera auditions.

Mrs. Stanhope has been associated with Northeast since 1942, and has toured with professional ensembles. She is frequently invited to serve as accompanist for both soloists and ensembles.

Joe Barry Mullins, head of Northeast State's music department, is vice president of the Association and will be presiding at the same general session featuring Miss Vann and Mrs. Stanhope.

That afternoon at 2:15, a concert of music by Louisiana composers is planned. Among the presentations will be a composition for chorus by Jerry Roberts, senior music education major at Northeast.

Roberts, of West Monroe, has been rehearsing a chosen group of NLSC music students who will perform his work under his direction.

Dr. James F. Monroe, professor of music at Northeast State, is Roberts' instructor in music composition.

The presidential couple immediately went on to their next engagement, a reception at Government House. The paint smeared so thickly over the windshield that the driver had to stop along the way to get it wiped off. During the reception, a fast auto washing removed the paint, which had a water base and came off easily.

Asked if she was frightened, Mrs. Johnson said: "Heavens no."

One other incident struck a jarring note in Melbourne's enthusiastic reception. As the motorcade passed near the campus of Melbourne University, students waving placards opposing the Vietnamese war stormed past police barricades. They tried to halt the motorcade, but the cars speeded up. For two blocks, the President rode past booing and jeering students, some of whom threw unidentified objects at his car.

The Melbourne visit was a half-day side trip from Canberra, the Australian capital 300 miles away, and it produced the most spectacular turnout yet in past police barricades.

A sea of humanity filled Swanston Street, the principal downtown thoroughfare, as the Johnson motorcade inched through. People waved out of office windows and stood on marquees.

Some Australian officials figured the crowd at a million, out of Melbourne's total population of more than two million. The police estimate was half a million. All agreed the total topped that for Queen Elizabeth II when she visited in 1963.

The vast majority seemed enthusiastic about their first glimpse of an American president in this country. A small, but sometimes boisterous, minority waved placards and shouted denunciations of Johnson's policy on Viet Nam.

After returning to Canberra Friday night, he planned to fly to Australia's largest city—2½ million—population Sydney — for a similar visit today.

Faculty Hears Explanations For Guidance

Mrs. Dorothy G. Smith, guidance supervisor of the Louisiana State Department of Education met recently with the Ouachita Elementary Faculty.

According to Mrs. Smith, one of the valuable elements of a guidance program is the measurement and evaluation of each pupil so that the teacher may have a place to begin in working with each individual. The intelligence quotient is only one measure used in child study and we should not take a definite score on one test and thus label a child. Scores on such test may vary with the grade level at which they are given and the particular test used.

Another valuable resource in understanding the child and his achievement is the Scattergram, which presents a clear diagram of how a student is achieving academically according to his ability.

Mrs. Smith pointed out that one of the purposes of a guidance program is to help the child develop well socially. Sociograms may be used to help teachers see how well a student gets along with his classmates and identify his needs.

Spuds Galore After Wreck

LEADORE, Idaho (AP) — Residents of Leadore, had no worry about the price of potatoes Friday.

A trailer loaded with 26,000 pounds of Idaho russets overturned, spilling its cargo in great heaps.

Rather than leave the spuds to freeze, the owners gave them to residents who swarmed over the highway.

LBJ Lifts Restrictions Of Lady Bird Campaigns

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Lady Bird Johnson is a campaigner like her husband — a role a bit alien to most officials' wives in this part of the country.

Accompanied by the wives of Prime Minister Harold Holt and U. S. Ambassador Edward A. Clark in a bubbletop limousine during the exuberant turnout Friday of 500,000 persons in Melbourne, Mrs. Johnson found herself somewhat restricted.

The crowds kept looking for her and shouting: "Where's Lady Bird? Where's Mrs. Johnson?"

In motorcades here and in New Zealand, in past days, she has hopped out of her car to greet people as her husband does, with a handshake, a "Hi" and a friendly smile.

But, in Melbourne she sat out some of the excitement mainly because she did not want to leave her hostesses. And Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Clark showed no great inclination to move into the crowd.

Behind the scenes, presidential aides were unhappy that the First Lady wasn't in position to make as big an impression as she has in recent days by stepping out into the throngs.

The dilemma of Melbourne was finally solved by the President himself. When the motorcade stopped in the crowds, he got the First Lady to come up and ride with him. From there she, too, got out into the crowds a bit.

As one result, she was riding in the President's car when demonstrators' paint bombs splattered its windshield and scorching Secret Service agents. Among those getting a dousing of red and green paint was the First Lady's Secret Service guard, Jerry Kivett, who has traveled thousands of miles with her.

After the incident, Mrs. Johnson was asked if she was frightened.

"Heavens, no!" she said. In comparison with the total crowd the demonstration "was just like a grain of sand."

In the first four days of this Asian journey, Mrs. Johnson has scored impressively with the people from oldsters to the kids she kissed and hugged and hoisted in her arms.

Friday night at a reception for 1,500 in Government House in Melbourne, she heard herself addressed in this British-oriented society as "Lady Johnson," by Prime Minister Holt.

Holt, immediately realizing his slip of the tongue, told the crowd: "That's what I feel about her." Then, he said to the visiting First Lady from America: "I can assure you that you have more than come up to the expectations of all who have come in contact with you."

Mrs. Johnson enjoyed her first real sightseeing venture in Canberra Friday. She took a cruise on Lake Burley Griffin to see what this capital, planned from the designs of a Chicago architect, has done in the way of beautification.

She saw a baby wallaby named "Droopy," owned by the Holts, and fed cake to their big gray pet kangaroo, "Fred," who has been trained to fetch the morning paper from the mailbox.

Eighteen Join Service At City Sites

Eighteen area youths joined the military service during the past week, according to lists at three recruiting offices in the Monroe Post Office Building.

Army Recruiting officials said they sent eight young men to train at Fort Polk, including Robert C. Jones of West Monroe, Dwight C. Anderson of Ruston, R. L. Munn and Pat Waltham, both of Lake Providence, Ricky Melton of Monroe, Billy Dunn of Tallulah, Michael L. Nugent of St. Joseph and Michael Parker of Columbia.

Air Force officers said they recruited Brianfield Jones Jr. and Jerry D. Harper, both of Bastrop, Mike Hale and Ralph W. Harker, both of West Monroe, Gene Wright of Rayville, and James Ruffins, Eddie Hawkins and Larry Kendrick, all of Oak Grove. All eight left for training immediately.

Recruited into the Navy's Cache Program (delayed departure after enlistment) were James L. Lindsay of Monroe and Zachary M. Stanley of Bastrop, both to leave for training in February, 1967.

A Marine enlistment list was not available Friday, but will be announced next week.

Malik's Visit

MOSCOW (AP) — Indonesian Foreign Minister Adam Malik has spent only a small part of his visit here discussing Viet Nam, Indonesian sources said Friday on the eve of his departure.

Earlier reports from Jakarta had raised the possibility he would offer to try to mediate a Viet Nam settlement if he got encouragement from the Russians.

Scientists Report Rheumatic Vaccine

NEW YORK (AP) — University of Chicago scientists reported Friday a vaccine which appears to be effective against the infection which causes rheumatic fever and one form of kidney disease.

The infection, streptococcus, causes infections which can lead to rheumatic fever — and possibly to heart disease — and to glomerulonephritis, a kidney ailment.

The vaccine has been tested with success and safety on mice, rabbits, guinea pigs and 50 adult human, according to a report by Eugene N. Fox, presented to an American Heart Association meeting here.

Fox said the vaccine was prepared by purifying a protein, called the "M" protein, from the cell wall of the streptococcus. When the protein was injected into a human or animal, antibodies formed against the protein.

Antibodies attack foreign organisms within an animal or human system, protecting it. With the vaccine, the body responds by forming antibodies against the protein "M." Fox said. They will help destroy the streptococcus before an infection begins.

Fox, an associate professor at the La Rabida-University of Chicago Institute and in the university's microbiology department, stressed that despite test successes on some adults as well as on laboratory animals, the vaccine's true effectiveness would not be known until it was tested in children, particularly infants susceptible to streptococcus.

Young Melbournier 'Bombs' LBJ's Limousine With Paint

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — President Johnson's limousine withstood a bombing — with washable paint — as Australia's second largest city turned out half a million persons to cheer him Friday.

The President laughed off the red and green paint incident, telling his staff: "I guess they just couldn't stand the size of that turnout." He was not touched by the paint — tossed perhaps by one of Australia's Viet Nam dissidents.

The Johnsons had just passed through the heart of Melbourne to the cheers of the biggest crowd yet on their Asian trip. It happened so quickly that eyewitness accounts differed.

According to some a cleancut-looking man in his 20s darted out from among bystanders, got past security guards and smashed a plastic bag of green paint against the windshield in front of the driver.

Either he, or another youth — witnesses differed — also tossed a bag of red paint that splashed on the roof and other parts of the bubbletop limousine.

With the windows closed, neither the President nor the First Lady was hit nor hurt. Splattered in their positions outside the limousine were three Secret Service men, including Rufus Youngblood, Johnson's guard in the Dallas motorcade when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

The young man who threw the paint then either fell or threw himself in front of the slowly moving auto. The car stopped and U.S. Secret Service agents seized him and turned him over to Australian police. Under Australian law, his name was withheld.

The presidential couple immediately went on to their next engagement, a reception at Government House. The paint smeared so thickly over the windshield that the driver had to stop along the way to get it wiped off. During the reception, a fast auto washing removed the paint, which had a water base and came off easily.

Asked if she was frightened, Mrs. Johnson said: "Heavens no."

One other incident struck a jarring note in Melbourne's enthusiastic reception. As the motorcade passed near the campus of Melbourne University, students waving placards opposing the Vietnamese war stormed past police barricades.

They tried to halt the motorcade, but the cars speeded up. For two blocks, the President rode past booing and jeering students, some of whom threw unidentified objects at his car.

Northeast's Role Noted For Meeting

Both faculty and students of Northeast Louisiana State College's Department of Music will have key roles when the Louisiana Music Teachers Association has its convention in Lafayette Friday, Oct. 28.

Miss Jerry Vann, instructor in music, will sing at the 10:45 session that morning in the music building at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Eloise Stanhope, associate professor of music.

Miss Vann, who joined the faculty this fall, has been a soloist with an acappella choir in Europe, and won second place in Louisiana regional Metropolitan Opera auditions.

Mrs. Stanhope has been associated with Northeast since 1942, and has toured with professional ensembles. She is frequently invited to serve as accompanist for both soloists and ensembles.

Joe Barry Mullins, head of Northeast State's music department, is vice president of the Association and will be presiding at the same general session featuring Miss Vann and Mrs. Stanhope.

That afternoon at 2:15, a concert of music by Louisiana composers is planned. Among the presentations will be a composition for chorus by Jerry Roberts, senior music education major at Northeast.

Roberts, of West Monroe, has been rehearsing a chosen group of NLSC music students who will perform his work under his direction.

Dr. James F. Monroe, professor of music at Northeast State, is Roberts' instructor in music composition.

Jimmie Davis Here But Leaves Politics Home

By VERNON GUIDRY
World Staff Writer

Two-time governor of Louisiana Jimmie Davis played a one-night stand in Monroe Friday to a group of women here at a convention and left his politics at home.

Davis, along with his Plainsmen Quartet, was the featured attraction at a buffet of the Fourth District of Altrusa International.

In opening his program of spirituals and country music, Davis told delegates of the women-only group that he belonged to almost everything but found out he just didn't qualify for Altrusa, setting the mood for a low key delivery of songs and "back home" jokes.

About the only mention of politics came when Davis recounted a question from a club member about what title should be used in introducing him. He said with two terms as governor, "I've been called just about everything."

The possible candidate for a third trip to the mansion told a reporter after the show that he doesn't "answer political questions at women's meetings."

Davis did however, sing songs that mentioned "that loveless mansion on the hill," and another about unrequited love that had a line something like, "When you found somebody new."

He did see a bright future in one spiritual, singing "A voice seems to say, child there'll be another day." He didn't say another election.

At the close of the program, Davis said, "We'd like to do a number I call my meal ticket." With everybody joining in, he sang "You Are My Sunshine."

Humphrey Tells Of 'Win' Against Reds In Viet Nam

By HARRY KELLY
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said Friday the Communists "have been defeated and checked" in Viet Nam.

"We could go ahead and proclaim the victory," he said at a news conference, "but that doesn't mean the Communists would stop fighting."

He said, "The prospects of a military victory for the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese are nil."

And he predicted that the upcoming seven-nation summit conference in Manila would deal primarily with civil and economic questions.

This was as close as any high government official has come to declaring that a military victory had been achieved in the Viet Nam war.

Earlier this week, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., had called upon the administration to declare a military victory.

Humphrey, asked about this at the Salt Lake City news conference, said, "Sen. Aiken is right, but the enemy is not ready to acknowledge it."

"I'm not saying we have won the war, but Communist aggression from the North cannot succeed."

Boy Scouts of Ouachita and Caldwell Parishes are conducting the largest Camporee in the Central District's history this weekend.

activities at 3 p.m. today. The boys will camp out tonight and will hold religious campfire ceremonies to night when scouts will sing and perform skits.

Scouts will begin Camporee activities at 3 p.m. Saturday and will meet through 3 p.m. Sunday on the vacant lot across from the parish courthouse, downtown Monroe.

The boys will camp out tonight and will hold religious services Sunday morning on the Camporee grounds, according to Tony Embanato, camping and activities committee chairman.

Events of interest will include campfire ceremonies to night when scouts will sing and perform skits.

After church services on Sunday, scouts will begin their various Camporee events such as first aid, nature, log chopping, height judging, trail signs and other scouting practices.

The climax will be presentation of awards to the various troops of the area. The public may attend the Sunday session on the scouting program.

More information may be obtained by contacting the local Boy Scouts of America or Embanato.

Suit On Doe Season May Be In Works

Sen. Spencer Myrick, Oak Grove, said Friday he will file suit against the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission unless a one day doe season, set for Nov. 25, is closed in Morehouse Parish.

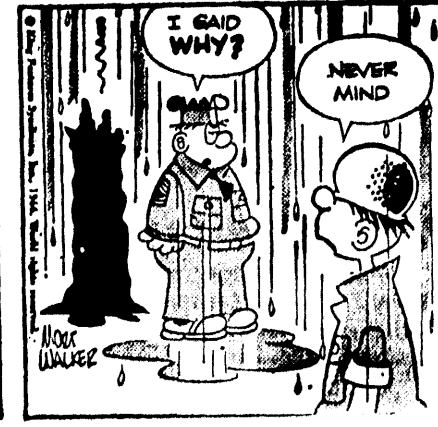

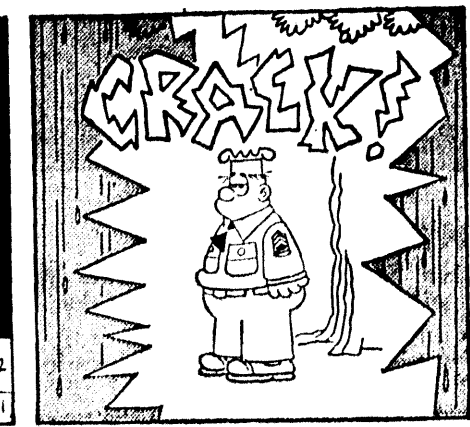

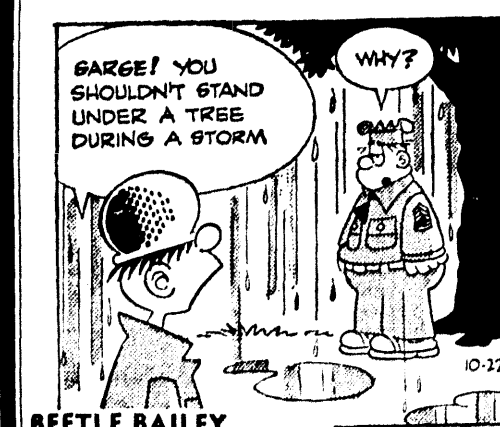

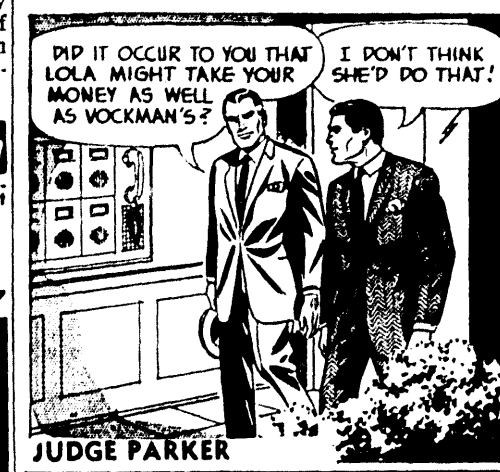

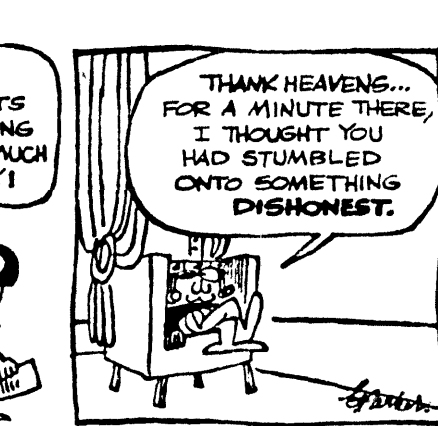

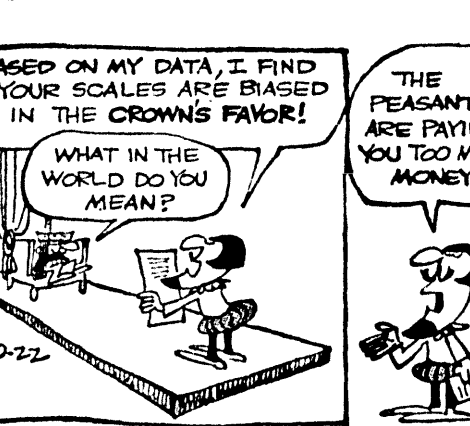

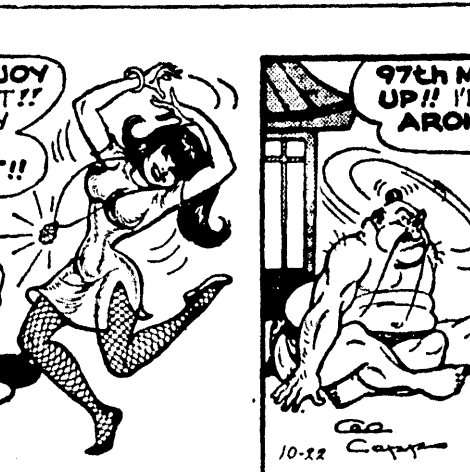

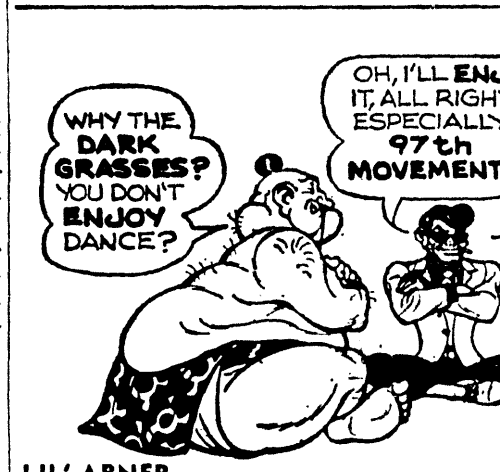

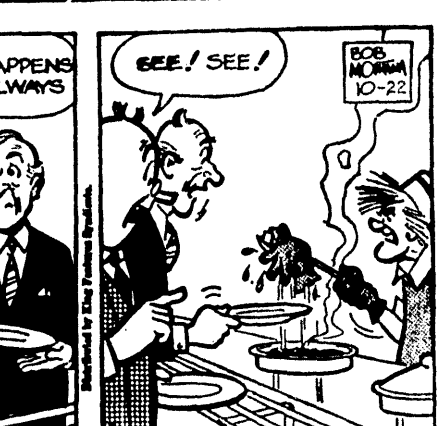

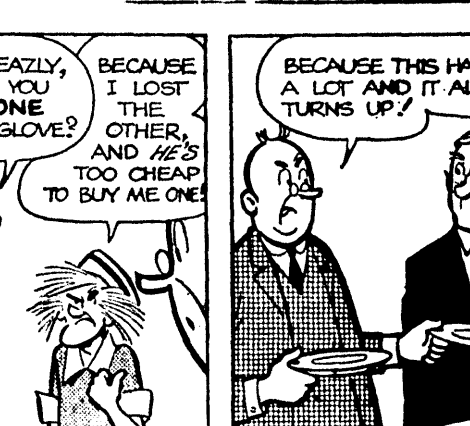

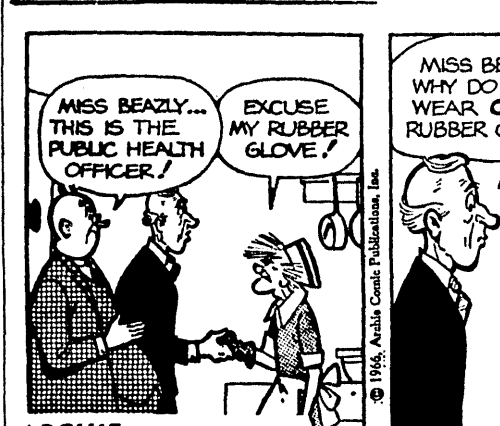

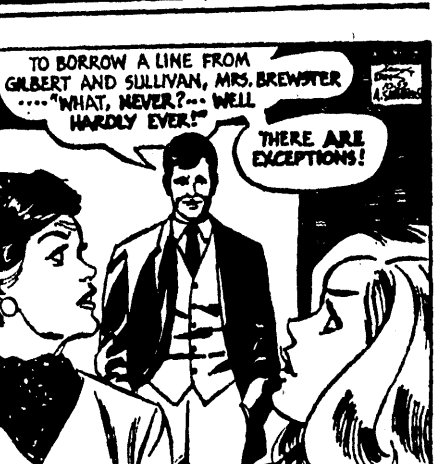

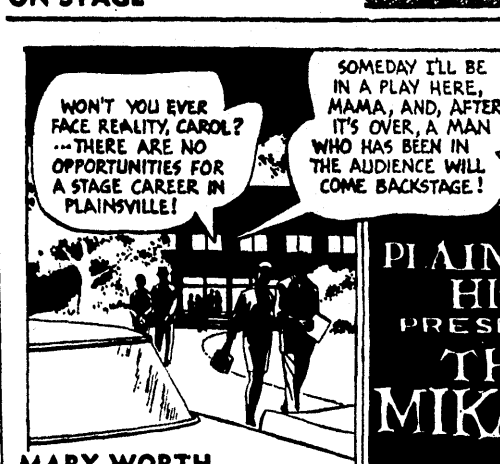

Morehouse is one of three parishes excluded in 1966 legislation from biologist control in determining deer seasons based on animal population.

"The Commission doesn't have the right to tell us when to hunt deer, especially doe," Myrick said. "Morehouse was cut from that bill just to prevent something like this."

He said the Morehouse Parish police jury had presented a resolution to the commission Friday asking that the one day season order be rescinded.

"If they don't act, we're going to court," Myrick promised. "If the local governing officials don't want a doe season, that's the way it's going to be."

In a similar case last year, Myrick filed suit on behalf of himself and others including Rep. Lantz Womack, Franklin, and was successful in closing the short doe hunting period.

Jimmie Davis Here But Leaves Politics Home

By VERNON GUIDRY
World Staff Writer

Two-time governor of Louisiana Jimmie Davis played a one-night stand in Monroe Friday to a group of women here on a convention and left his politics at home.

Davis, along with his Plainsmen Quartet, was the featured attraction at a buffet of the Fourth District of Altrusa International.

In opening his program of spirituals and country music, Davis told delegates of the women-only group that he belonged to almost everything but found out he just didn't qualify for Altrusa, setting the mood for a low key delivery of songs and "back home" jokes.

About the only mention of politics came when Davis recounted a question from a club member about what title should be used in introducing him. He said with two terms as governor, "I've been called just about everything."

The possible candidate for a third trip to the mansion told a reporter after the show that he doesn't "answer political questions at women's meetings."

Davis did however, sing songs that mentioned "that loveless mansion on the hill" and another about unrequited love that had a line something like, "When you found somebody new."

He did see a bright future in one spiritual, singing "A voice seems to say, child there'll be another day." He didn't say another election.

At the close of the program, Davis said, "We'd like to do a number I call my meal ticket."

With everybody joining in, he sang "You Are My Sunshine."

Neville's Tigers Score Every Way For 37-6 Win

By BOB CARROLL
World Sports Writer

Neville's Tigers, putting points on the scoreboard in every imaginable manner and using its alert and rugged defense to take advantage of numerous Bossier City mistakes, crushed the Bearcats, 37-6, in a District 1-AAA at Tiger Stadium Friday night.

The Tigers put together two field goals off the toe of Mike Weaver, two safeties and four touchdowns, two of them on

Boll McSherry-Keith Moncrief pass combinations, in running their record to 4-1-1 for the year and 4-1 in league play.

It was the Neville defense as much as anything, quick, alert and playing tough heads up football, that accounted for the smooth and easy victory for the Tigers, who, with the six points scored in this game against them, have been scored upon in the only two games this year. The other was a 21-7 loss to Fair Park.

The Tiger defense came up with eight Bearcat fumbles and the offense turned five of them into tallies.

Neville scored first early in the initial period, scoring from two yards out with quarterback Tom Brown going in around left end on a bootleg play. The first attempt at the extra point by Weaver was no good but an offside penalty against Bossier City gave Weaver another chance and he split the uprights for a 7-0 Neville lead with 6:31 left in the period.

This score was set up when Joe Coats pounced on a fumble at the Bossier City five-yard line after Weaver had punted deep to put Bossier at its own 12.

After an exchange of punts, Bossier City began a 62-yard scoring march that carried from the first period into the second with quarterback Jerry Harris skirting left end from six yards out to tally. A fake kick and pass attempt by Harris for the extra point was diagnosed by the defense which pulled him down, and Bossier City trailed 7-6 with 8:08 left in the half.

Only minutes later Neville was given a two-point gift when Harris was hauled down in his end zone by Robert Patterson and Joe Coats for a safety and a 9-6 lead.

After bogging down on its next turn with the pigskin, Bossier City punted, but a 15-yard penalty against the Bearcats for hitting a Neville back calling for a fair catch set the Tigers up on the Bossier City 33 where Neville began to march for a score. A 12-yard-pass from Brown to Moncrief in the cut corner connected for the tally. Moncrief kicked the PAT and Neville was on its way with a 16-6 lead.

The score was run up to 22-6 before halftime as Steve Smith came up with a Bearcat fumble at the Bossier City 20, and Brown again found Moncrief in the end zone, hitting him with a 10-yarder. The extra point try failed.

Midway of the third period Neville picked up still another touchdown via a Bossier City fumble which Robert Patterson pounced on at the Bossier City five. This time halfback Mark Hansen carried in for the tally, but from six yards out as an offside penalty set the Tigers back on the six after they had driven to the one. Weaver's kick connected and the scoreboard read 29-6.

With the score this high, and Neville continuing to stay in scoring range due to Bossier City fumbles, the Tigers elected to try field goals rather than run the score up with touchdowns.

Weaver kicked his first of the night, a 35-yarder, even after a bad snap from center. He tried another minutes later but it went wide.

The Tigers picked up their second safety when Cleve Davidson, punting from the shadow of his own goal posts, received a bad snap from center and fell on the ball in the end zone, giving Neville another two-point gift.

The final tally came on a 26-yard boot by Weaver with 2:12 remaining in the game.

Bastrop Routs Rebels, 27-7

BASTROP — Bastrop's Robert DeFee and Jimmy Clark—the leading pass combination in 1-AAA's eastern half—lead the Rams to their first victory of the season.

the season, a 27-7 drubbing of West Monroe, here Friday night.

The win moved Coach Jimmy Gilbert's Rams to a 1-6 overall record and 1-5 in league play, a half-game lead over Coach Walter Brister's Rebs, who dropped their fifth straight district tilt and fell into the cellar. West Monroe is 1-6 on the season also.

DeFee, who had completed 47 of 83 tosses, 30 to Clark, connected for six of nine, all to Clark, for 88 yards and one touchdown. The Rams' signal-caller also ran for one touchdown on an 18-yard burst and picked up 39 yards on the ground.

Bastrop's first score came early in the second period with DeFee capping a 37-yard drive that started when linebacker Kenny Rains recovered his first of two fumbles.

The Rams moved to the score quickly, using only five plays, with DeFee, who slipped out of the grabs of two Reb defenders at the 20, going over. Wain Rely made it 7-0 with his first of three extra point kicks with 11:24 to go in the second period.

But West Monroe, still very much alive and well-spirited, came back in four plays to tie the game up. Taking the ball at the 40 when Rely kicked out of bounds, the Rebs moved to the 47 before Rhodes hit Brewster for a 50-yard gainer down to the Rams' three.

Brewster made a circus catch of the pass. Caught in between two defenders, Brewster went in, tipped the ball a couple of times, then came down with it at the three.

Fullback Richard Ware then bulled his way to paydirt on the first play. Randall Walker, who played another great game on defense, booted the extra point, the last the Rebs would make, with 9:59 to go in the first half.

Bastrop came right back to go in front for good. Taking the ball at the 40, the Rams moved down the field with authority, with the big gainer a 26-yard burst around end by Morris.

Blocking-back David Jones went over for the score from one-yard out, capping a 11-play match that ended with 5:07 to go in the half. Rely's kick was blocked by Walker and Glenn Gallaspy, leaving the score 13-7.

Bastrop got another break just two minutes later. Following the kickoff, which Gallaspy returned 34 yards to the Reb 44 and almost went all the way, West Monroe moved to the Ram 30.

But sub-quarterback Downey Barker fumbled a hike from center, and Rains recovered his second of the night.

Setting up on his own 35, DeFee hit Clark twice, moving to the Reb 38 yard stripe. Then, seemingly caught, he got off a long one, which Clark made a catch similar to Brewster's, and stepped into the end zone.

Rely's kick made it 20-7 at halftime.

West Monroe made two threats in the second half.

The first, early in the third quarter, was ended when Barker, in after Reb starting quarterback Danny Rhodes was injured, had a fourth down pass intercepted at the Ram 27.

Later, the Rebs started a drive at their 36 that went to the Bastrop 14. But the Rams stopped the march when Barry Naff, who intercepted the pass to stop the earlier drive, recovered a Ware fumble.

Tallulah Loses

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — The Lake Providence ramblod for 20 points in the third quarter to upset double-A Tallulah, 26-19, here Friday night.

Tallulah took a 19-6 lead into the dressing room at halftime, thanks to a 78 yard TD by Jerry Copes and two touchdowns passes from Sid Bailey to end Bill Goss — one for 30 yards and the other for 15.

Lake Providence, down 19-0, scored in the second quarter with just 32 seconds left in the half when Riley Brown threw to Gordon Cain for 50 yards.

Then the bombs fell. In the third frame Brown passed to David Shockley for 15 yards to score capping a 60 yard drive and then threw to Cain again on an 80 yarder that went the distance.

To cap the big night, a defensive guard — Ed Robinson — picked up a Tallulah fumble and went 15 yards for the winning touchdown.

The Rams final TD came when Rains blocked a Barker punt at the Reb 18 and fell on the ball in the end zone with 5:28 left in the game. Rely again booted the PAT.

Rains, the defensive spark-plug throughout the night for the Rams, was injured just moments later and missed the rest of the game.

West Monroe led in statistics, picking up 14 first downs to the Rams' nine, and gained 149 yards on the ground and 138 in the air for a total offense of 289 yards. Bastrop picked up 133 on the ground and 88 ghrough the trict 1-AAA victory over Ouachita before a small crowd of about 2,000 at State Fair Stadium here Friday night.

Miller booted a 31-yard field goal straight through the uprights to start the Indians' scoring parade. The highly touted signal caller also passed for two touchdowns and kicked two extra points.

Fair Park rolled up 17 first downs to the Lions' five and managed to maintain control of the game throughout. Both teams were victims of several costly miscues as Fair Park fumbled six times and lost five and Ouachita dropped four and lost three.

The Indians mounted the drive that resulted in Miller's field goal the second time they got the ball. A 17-yard pass from Miller to end Terry Summerlin and a 15-yard penalty against Ouachita proved to be the key plays in the Tribe drive.

Ouachita stopped Fair Park at its own 15 and Miller kicked the field goal from the Lions' 21 on fourth down. Counting the extra 10 yards through the end zone, Miller's 31-yard boot crossed the bar with 5:17 left in the first quarter.

The Indians also scored the next time they got the pigskin, this time after a 40-yard march.

Fair Park halfback Wayne Haney scampered the final six yards for the score with 40 seconds remaining in the period. Miller tacked on the PAT with a kick on his second try, the first play being nullified by a penalty.

The Tribe defense sparked throughout the contest with guard Bobby Joe King breaking through to jar the ball loose from Ouachita quarterback Wayne Acres on two occasions.

Fair Park managed to squeeze in one more touchdown in the first half when Miller fired the ball 34 yards to Haney for a tally with just 23 seconds left in the half.

Miller's PAT attempt was blocked.

The ball bounced back and forth between the two teams a couple of times before the Indians put together another TD drive late in the third stanza. The drive covered 79 yards and was highlighted by a 22-yard jaunt around end by Haney, who finished the night as the game's leading rusher with 83 yards.

The score came when Miller connected on a 29-yard TD strike to Summerlin. The PAT try was blocked again with 2:30 left in the third.

Ouachita chalked up its only touchdown on the ensuing kickoff when tailback Kenneth Williams gathered in the ball and whipped down the right side-lines for a 79-yard return for the score. Billy Kemp tacked on the PAT with 2:18 left in the third.

Fair Park mounted a 57-yard drive early in the fourth frame that was sparked by a 10-yard run by Haney and a 20-yard Miller - to - Summerlin pass. James Peak swept left end behind first class blocking to score on an 18-yard run with 11:49 left in the contest. Miller kicked the extra point.

Fair Park's final touchdown was sparked and scored by sub-quarterback James Cotterell. The signal caller connected on a 32-yard toss to Summerlin to set up the score and then cross the goal himself on a three-yard run.

Miller missed the PAT kick with 4:20 left in the contest.

In all, Fair Park rolled up 220 yards rushing and added another 141 stripes through the air. The Tribe defense held Ouachita to just 30 yards on the ground and 40 passing.

Miller hit on five of 14 passes for 76 yards and Cotterell added the rest of the aerial yardage. Tommy Attie's 20 yards on the ground made him the Lions' leading rusher.

Neville's Tigers Score Every Way For 37-6 Win

By BOB CARROLL
World Sports Writer

Neville's Tigers, putting points on the scoreboard in every imaginable manner and using its alert and rugged defense to take advantage of numerous Bossier City mistakes, crushed the Bearcats, 37-6, in a District 1-AAA at Tiger Stadium Friday night.

The Tigers put together two field goals off the toe of Mike Weaver, two safeties and four touchdowns, two of them on

Boll McSherry-Keith Moncrief pass combinations, in running their record to 4-1-1 for the year and 4-1 in league play.

It was the Neville defense as much as anything, quick, alert and playing tough heads up football, that accounted for the smooth and easy victory for the Tigers, who, with the six points scored in this game against them, have been scored upon in only two games this year. The other was a 21-7 loss to Fair Park.

The Tiger defense came up with eight Bearcat fumbles and the offense turned five of them into tumbles.

Neville scored first early in the initial period, scoring from two yards out with quarterback Tom Brown going in around left end on a bootleg play. The first attempt at the extra point by Weaver was no good but an offside penalty against Bossier City gave Weaver another chance and he split the uprights for a 7-0 Neville lead with 6:31 left in the period.

This score was set up when Joe Coats pounced on a fumble at the Bossier City five-yard line after Weaver had punted deep to put Bossier at its own 12.

After an exchange of punts, Bossier City began a 62-yard scoring march that carried from the first period into the second with quarterback Jerry Harris skirting left end from six yards out to tally. A fake kick and pass attempt by Harris for the extra point was diagnosed by the defense which pulled him down, and Bossier City trailed 7-6 with 8:08 left in the half.

Only minutes later Neville was given a two-point gift when Harris was hauled down in his end zone by Robert Patterson and Joe Coats for a safety and a 9-6 lead.

After bogging down on its next turn with the pigskin, Bossier City punted, but a 15-yard penalty against the Bearcats for hitting a Neville back calling for a fair catch set the Tigers up on the Bossier City 33 where Neville began to march for a score. A 12-yard-pass from Brown to Moncrief in the coffin corner connected for the tally. Moncrief kicked the PAT and Neville was on its way with a 16-6 lead.

The score was run up to 22-6 before halftime as Steve Smith came up with a Bearcat fumble at the Bossier City 20, and Brown again found Moncrief in the end zone, hitting him with a 10-yarder. The extra point try failed.

Midway of the third period Neville picked up still another touchdown via a Bossier City fumble which Robert Patterson pounced on at the Bossier City five. This time halfback Mark Hansen carried in for the tally, but from six yards out as an offside penalty set the Tigers back on the six after they had driven to the one. Weaver's kick connected and the scoreboard read 29-6.

With the score this high, and Neville continuing to stay in scoring range due to Bossier City fumbles, the Tigers elected to try field goals rather than run the score up with touchdowns.

Weaver kicked his first of the night, a 35-yarder, even after a bad snap from center. He tried another minutes later but it went wide.

The Tigers picked up their second safety when Cleve Davidson, punting from the shadow of his own goal posts, received a bad snap from center and fell on the ball in the end zone, giving Neville another two-point gift.

The final tally came on a 26-yard boot by Weaver with 2:12 remaining in the game.

Bastrop Routs Rebels, 27-7

the season, a 27-7 drubbing of West Monroe, here Friday night.

The win moved Coach Jimmy Gilbert's Rams to a 1-6 overall record and 1-5 in league play, a half-game lead over Coach Walter Brister's Rebs, who dropped their fifth straight district tilt and fell into the cellar. West Monroe is 1-6 on the season also.

DeFee, who had completed 47 of 83 tosses, 30 to Clark, connected for six of nine, all to Clark, for 88 yards and one touchdown. The Rams' signal-caller also ran for one touchdown on an 18-yard burst and picked up 39 yards on the ground.

Bastrop's first score came early in the second period with DeFee capping a 37-yard drive that started when linebacker Kenny Rains recovered his first of two fumbles.

The Rams moved to the score quickly, using only five plays, with DeFee, who slipped out of the grabs of two Reb defenders at the 20, going over. Wain Rely made it 7-0 with his first of three extra point kicks with 11:24 to go in the second period.

But West Monroe, still very much alive and well-spirited, came back in four plays to tie the game up. Taking the ball at the 40 when Rely kicked out of bounds, the Rebs moved to the 47 before Rhodes hit Brewster for a 50-yard gainer down to the Rams' three.

Brewster made a circus catch of the pass. Caught in between two defenders, Brewster went up, tipped the ball a couple of times, then came down with it at the three.

Fullback Richard Ware then hulled his way to paydirt on the first play. Randall Walker, who played another great game on defense, booted the extra point, the last the Rebs would make, with 9:59 to go in the first half.

Bastrop came right back to go in front for good. Taking the ball at the 40, the Rams moved down the field with authority, with the big gainer a 26-yard burst around end by Morris.

Blocking-back David Jones went over for the score from one-yard out, capping a 11-play march that ended with 5:07 to go in the half. Rely's kick was blocked by Walker and Glenn Gallspay, leaving the score 13-7.

Bastrop got another break just two minutes later. Following the kickoff, which Gallspay returned 34 yards to the Reb 44 and almost went all the way, West Monroe moved to the Ram 30.

But sub-quarterback Downey Barker fumbled a hike from center, and Rains recovered his second of the night.

Setting up on his own 35, DeFee hit Clark twice, moving to the Reb 38 yard stripe. Then, seemingly caught, he got off a long one, which Clark made a catch similar to Brewster's, and stepped into the end zone.

Rely's kick made it 20-7 at halftime.

West Monroe made two threats in the second half.

The first, early in the third quarter, was ended when Barker, in after Reb starting quarterback Danny Rhodes was injured, had a fourth down pass intercepted at the Ram 27.

Later, the Rebs started a drive at their 36 that went to the Bastrop 14. But the Rams stopped the march when Barry Naff, who intercepted the pass to stop the earlier drive, recovered a Ware fumble.

Tallulah Loses

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — The Lake Providence ramblod for 20 points in the third quarter to upset double-A Tallulah, 26-19, here Friday night.

Tallulah took a 19-6 lead into the dressing room at halftime, thanks to a 78 yard TD by Jerry Copes and two touchdown passes from Sid Bailey to end Bill Goss — one for 30 yards and the other for 15.

Lake Providence, down 19-0, scored in the second quarter with just 32 seconds left in the half when Riley Brown threw to Gordon Cain for 50 yards.

Then the bombs fell. In the third frame Brown passed to David Shockley for 15 yards to score capping a 60 yard drive and then threw to Cain again on an 80 yarder that vent the distance.

To cap the big night, a defensive guard — Ed Robinson — picked up a Tallulah fumble and went 15 yards for the winning touchdown.

Kentwood Leaps

KENTWOOD, La. (AP) — Kentwood's Kangaroos leaped to a 35-7 triumph over Liberty, Miss., here Friday night to protect their No. 1 ranking in Class B prep football. Ronnie Garner scored two touchdowns to pace the Kentwood assault,

The Rams final TD came when Rains blocked a Barker punt at the Reb 18 and fell on the ball in the end zone with 5:28 left in the game. Rely again booted the PAT.

Rains, the defensive sparkplug throughout the night for the Rams, was injured just moments later and missed the rest of the game.

West Monroe led in statistics, picking up 14 first downs to the Rams' nine, and gained 149 yards on the ground and 138 in the air for a total offense of 289 yards. Bastrop picked up 133 on the ground and 88 grough the

LBJ Final Hurdle For Merger Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson remained Friday

the lone but minor hurdle in the proposed merger plans of the American and National Football Leagues.

The nation's two major professional leagues, however, will probably put the machinery in high gear immediately for the world championship game in January—first step in the merger—because Johnson almost certainly will sign the football bill passed by Congress.

The Senate, with only six members present, approved the bill allowing limited exemption to antitrust laws Friday on a voice vote. The measure was passed by the House, where most of the opposition lay, Thursday night.

The legislation now goes to Johnson for his signature which appears to be a formality since the measure is a rider on the administration's anti-inflation tax bill which the President wants badly.

No date has been set for the signing, but the measure will not physically reach the White House before next week. It is also doubtful that Johnson would sign the tax bill before he returns from his Asian tour Nov. 3.

The football bill, in addition to setting the stage for the world championship game—most likely to be held Jan. 8—will allow the leagues to combine into one 24-team operation, expand to a 26-team league by 1968 and possibly 28 by 1970.

A key provision in the legislation will permit the two leagues to hold a common draft and thus eliminate the bidding and paying of high bonuses and salaries to untied college players.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., who steered the bill to passage in the Senate, emphasized the antitrust exemption applied only to the merger agreement of the two football leagues.

He said the combined league, in its operations, will not have any greater immunity from the antitrust laws than the individual leagues have now.

The Senate had twice before approved the merger bill—once as a separate bill and then as a rider to the tax measure when it looked as though the original measure was going to be blocked in the House by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y.

Hooking it on the tax bill was maneuvered by Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who joined Long in sponsoring it in the Senate.

Besides granting antitrust immunity for the merger, the bill also extends to high school football games on Friday nights the same protection the colleges now have against televised professional football games on Saturdays.

It would prohibit league contracts for the telecasting of pro games within 75 miles of a high school or college game played after 6 p.m. between the second Friday in September and the second Saturday in December.

While the provision specifically refers only to league contracts, Long and other senators said it was also intended to cover television agreements by individual teams.

Sens. George A. Smathers, D-La., and Frank Carlson, R-Kan., both members of the conference committee that worked out the final form of the legislation, said they felt this should be made clear.

Long, agreeing, said although the conferees were in a preliminary situation that prevented them from spelling this out in the bill, this was their intent. If necessary, he said, legislation to this effect can be adopted next year.

Fair Park's final touchdown was sparked and scored by sub quarterback James Cotterell. The signal caller connected on a 32-yard toss to Summerlin to set up the score and then cross the goal himself on a three-yard run.

Miller missed the PAT kick with 4:20 left in the contest.

In all, Fair Park rolled up 220 yards rushing and added another 141 strides through the air. The Tribe defense held Ouachita to just 30 yards on the ground and 40 passing.

Miller hit on five of 14 passes for 76 yards and Cotterell added the rest of the aerial yardage.

Tommy Autie's 20 yards on the ground made him the Lions' leading rusher.

NAME DROPPING, a sport of the ages, while mixing in a few events and comments for flavor.

If you believe folks in the college football business think more of home field advantage than money you're wrong, and need only to look at the LSU schedule for the next six years for proof. A couple of examples show Mississippi State coming to the always-packed Tiger den five of six years and Texas A&M coming six of six. Of course, it's even nicer from the LSU standpoint — home field and money.

Congratulations to FERRIDAY. It has been selected as host for the 1967 state championship Dixie Boys Baseball Tournament next August. Guess what all-America center is going to switch positions this fall? It's ELVIN HAYES, the University of Houston cage star by way of Rayville. UH coach GUY LEWIS must be sitting on top of a gold mine of talent and height in Cougar land. By the way, UH officials are expected to announce a "Dream Game" between Houston and UCLA for next season 1967-68 in the Dome. Of course, that would match Hayes against the Bruins' 7-footer, LEW ALCINDOR.

Our vote for most beautiful football facility in the state, bar none, goes to McNeese's COWBOY STADIUM. Wish I knew some words pretty enough to describe it fairly, but can only say "see it when you can." Funny thing, everybody in press box we tried to talk to about the structure, always seemed to find a way to bring the conversation around to Brown Gym. Wonder why?

How about an honest quote from TCU quarterback P. D. SHABAY: "I got my nose broken on the second play against SMU. After the doctor fixed it, I thought I'd be brave and asked to go back in. I almost choked when he said I could."

A statistical surprise to me — In DARRELL ROYALS nine years at Texas, only three out-of-staters have gained football letters. Speaks well for all concerned. Said Houston Post columnist JACK GALLAGHER after the Oilers brouched hapless Denver at the start of the pro season without allowing the Broncos a first down: "Denver is the nearest thing in football to an open date."

True But Sad Department: Said Northeast fan BUTCH HOFFMAN after the weird turn of events at Lake Charles last Saturday left our Indians an 18-17 loser — "I wish they'd keep score by quarters. We'd have won, 3 to 1." ... Whether the Dome Stadium amendment passes or not (and we believe it will) you have to give DAVE DIXON credit for a supreme effort. His name and game have been popping up all over the South. He recently received a big welcome in Houston and sports writers from both the Post and Chronicle spoke of Dixon and his plan in glowing terms. Said DICK PEEBLES of the Chronicle concerning the Louisiana domed stadium tax increase proposal for New Orleans area hotel rooms, "Dixon has come up with an ingenious financing plan."

PAUL DIETZEL, was interviewed following the scandal talk at LSU earlier this week. His comments included: "One of the most common approaches is the one in which the gambler takes on the apparently innocent role of an enthusiastic alumnus. He is happy after a win and offers the player a congratulatory hand afterwards — with a $10 or $50 bill in it. Same thing next week, then it goes up to $100."

"This is followed by a mid-week suggestion about shaving points, with a threat of photographs having been taken of the $100 changing hands ... and after that it's 'throw the game' and the possibility of physical maiming if the player refuses." THE SOLUTION: "Take preventive measures early. Players are advised to come to the coaches immediately with anything that appears out of context, no matter how innocent it may appear." Makes you wonder about many of the "loyal" fans who always have a few dollars to spare after a big win. ... And, how about one for the road ... Did you hear the one-liner from UCLA coach TOMMY PROTHRO when telling about the nervous young lineman who kept jumping offside. A mild tranquilizer was prescribed to calm the lad. A couple of weeks later the coach was asked if the kid was still jumping offside.

And the answer: "Yeah, only now he doesn't care."

The Way I See 'Em

I had almost forgotten how good it feels to be in the .800 bracket, but last week gave us a refresher course.

The totals read 21 right in 30 picks for an even .800 and overall the slate stands 116 correct in 158 picks (discounting two ties) for a .734 percentage.

Here are this week's choices:
GULF STATE CONFERENCE: Northeast 14, Southeastern 7 — No way to analyze this one because nobody really knows what the Lions have, other than a poor record. Northwestern 20, La. Tech 10 — Never thought I'd see myself doing this ... but then I never thought I'd see Tech lose five in a row. Southwestern 25, Samford 0 — Bulldogs take a break before traveling to Monroe next week. Lamar Tech 24, McNeese 7 — Should be an easy one for the Cardinals.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE: LSU 14, Florida 8 — A great pass rush does the job that nobody else has been able to do. Alabama 20, Vanderbilt 0 — Not worth talking about. TCU 20, Auburn 14 — Still feel like the Frogs will snap out of it. Georgia 14, Kentucky 0 — Georgia trying to redeem last week's showing. Houston 21, Ole Miss 12 — Unless the Rebs can keep Burris on his back. Florida State 20, Miss. State 17 — Going along with the crowd here although I'm not as firmly convinced as many seem to be. Tennessee 14, South Carolina 7 — The best team in the country with back-to-back losses on their record.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE: SMU 20, Texas Tech 7 — Ponies aiming for a Cotton Bowl berth. Rice 20, Texas 17 — I'm a believer in Neely's youngsters. Baylor 14, Texas A&M 13 — Am predicting there will be over 60 passes thrown if the weather is good. Arkansas 50, Wichita State 7 — With teams like this on its schedule I can't see how Hog fans can gripe about the ratings, ever.

Vidalia scored again in the second period after David Yates intercepted a Bunkie pass on the Viking two yard line. With Frazier furnishing the power, the Vikings moved to the Panther 23 yard line where Hibbs took it in for his second tally of the night. Ford then kicked the PAT.

Bunkie scored on its next series on a seven-yard pass from John Pubre to halfback David Mayeux.

Allen Grabert blocked the PAT kick for Vidalia.

Vidalia completely dominated the second half, scoring in each quarter and holding the Panthers to a minus 16 yards rushing.

In the third, Hibbs intercepted another Panther pass on the Bunkie 40 and returned to the five yard line. Wiggins then drove up the middle for the Vikings' third touchdown and Ford again converted.

In the final stanza, Frazier moved in from two yards out to climax a 56-yard drive and Ford popped another PAT.

NAME DROPPING, a sport of the ages, while mixing in a few events and comments for flavor.

If you believe folks in the college football business think more of home field advantage than money you're wrong, and need only to look at the LSU schedule for the next six years for proof. A couple of examples show Mississippi State coming to the always-packed Tiger den five of six years and Texas A&M coming six of six. Of course, it's even nicer from the LSU standpoint — home field and money.

Congratulations to FERRIDAY. It has been selected as host for the 1967 state championship Dixie Boys Baseball Tournament next August ... Guess what all-America center is going to switch positions this fall? It's ELVIN HAYES, the University of Houston cage star by way of Rayville. UH coach GUY LEWIS must be sitting on top of a gold mine of talent and height in Cougar land ... By the way, UH officials are expected to announce a "Dream Game" between Houston and UCLA for next season 1967-68 in the Dome. Of course, that would match Hayes against the Bruins' 7-footer, LEW AL CINDOR.

Our vote for most beautiful football facility in the state, bar none, goes to McNeese's COWBOY STADIUM. Wish I knew some words pretty enough to describe it fairly, but can only say "see it when you can." Funny thing, everybody in press box we tried to talk to about the structure, always seemed to find a way to bring the conversation around to Brown Gym ... Wonder why?

How about an honest quote from TCU quarterback P. D. SHABAY: "I got my nose broken on the second play against SMU. After the doctor fixed it, I thought I'd be brave and asked to go back in. I almost choked when he said I could."

... A statistical surprise to me — In DARRELL ROYAL'S nine years at Texas, only three out-of-staters have gained football letters. Speaks well for all concerned ... Said Houston Post columnist JACK GALLAGHER after the Oilers trounced hapless Denver at the start of the pro season without allowing the Broncos a first down: "Denver is the nearest thing in football to an open date."

True But Sad Department: Said Northeast fan BUTCH HOFFMAN after the weird turn of events at Lake Charles last Saturday left our Indians an 18-17 loser — "I wish they'd keep score by quarters. We'd have won, 3 to 1." ... Whether the Dome Stadium amendment passes or not (and we believe it will) you have to give DAVE DIXON credit for a supreme effort. His name and game have been popping up all over the South ... he recently received a big welcome in Houston and sports writers from both the Post and Chronicle spoke of Dixon and his plan in glowing terms. Said DICK PEEBLES of the Chronicle concerning the Louisiana domed stadium tax increase proposal for New Orleans area hotel rooms, "Dixon has come up with an ingenious financing plan."

Richardson Tied

Powerful Richardson of West Monroe met an equally powerful Eastside of Farmerville club here Friday night and salvaged a 7-7 tie on a touchdown and conversion in the final three minutes.

Neither club has been defeated this season, Richardson now 6-0-1 and Eastside 6-0-2.

Ernest Waters ran eight yards for the Eastside tally in the second quarter and Alvis Hill added the important extra point with a run.

Then with 2:30 left in the game Sammy Elmore took a 10-yard scoring loss from quarterback Clarence Marshall and Don Newon added the PAT with a run for the tie.

Both teams have 3-0 league marks with one district foe remaining. Should both clubs win they will meet in a playoff at the conclusion of the regular season to decide who advances into the state playoffs.

Jimmy Hibbs and Alvin Frazier.

Vidalia's secondary intercepted three Panther aerials and each resulted in a score.

The Vikings scored first after a pass interception by cornerback Vernon Smith on the Viking 49 yard line. Eight plays later Hibbs went in for the first score of the night. Danny Ford's kick was wide.

Vidalia scored again in the second period after David Yates intercepted a Bunkie pass on the Viking two yard line. With Frazier furnishing the power, the Vikings moved to the Panther 23 yard line where Hibbs took it in for his second tally of the night. Ford then kicked the PAT.

Bunkie scored on its next series on seven-yard pass from John Pubre to halfback David Mayeux.

Allen Grabert blocked the PAT kick for Vidalia.

Vidalia completely dominated the second half, scoring in each quarter and holding the Panthers to a minus 16 yards rushing.

In the third, Hibbs intercepted another Panther pass on the Bunkie 40 and returned to the five yard line. Wiggins then drove up the middle for the Vikings' third touchdown and Ford again converted.

In the final stanza, Frazier moved in from two yards out to climax a 56-yard drive and Ford potted another PAT.

Jena, 26-13

board at all — to capture a 26-13 district 2-AA victory here Friday night.

The Giants scored on the second play from scrimmage when Gary Don Moseley got loose for 63 yards. John Hutchins added the PAT.

Jena followed this with TDs by Gene Wilbanks on an 18-yard run, Rick Norris on a one-yard plunge and quarterback Mack Fowler from the one in the final frame.

Wilbanks had a 75 yarder called back because of clipping during the Giants' methodical scoring spree.

Ferriday's tallies came on passes of 48 yards to Jehu Brabham who lateraled to Jim Burrough and 44 yards to Larry Vestal, both from AB Paul Ferris who had been out with a leg injury suffered in a jamboree back in early September.

Moseley picked up 116 yards on 10 trips, Norris 100 on 16 trips and Wilbanks 87 on 14 carries for Jena while Burrough had 78 in 14 trips from Ferriday.

minutes left in the game and broke a 13-13 tie. Waterproof, which earlier in the season beat Davidson of St. Joseph, the other Tensas Parish team, 34-0, is now 4-3 for the season and 3-3 in district 2-B play. Newellton, which dominated the statistics Friday night, dropped to 4-3 for both district and full season play.

Lonnie Mahoney dashed 41 yards for Waterproof's initial touchdown in the opening quarter and then passed 32 yards to Larry Tolbot in the second period before Newellton struck back on Darrell Williams' 15-yard TD run.

Newellton pulled even in the fourth period when Grady Humphries passed 17 yards to Charles Campbell for a touchdown to make it 13-13 and set the stage for the game-deciding safety.

Hunter Leads

RAYNE, La. (AP) — Top-ranked Catholic of New Iberia, behind the splendid running of Jimmy Hunter, defeated Rayne 27-7 in Double-A football action here Friday night.

Hunter scored on a brilliant 77-yard scamper and two quick bursts of four yards each. Elbridge Ince accounted for the other Panther score on a five-yard scamper.

Louis Cook scored the lone TD for the Wolves on a 42-yard fumble recovery.

Hang On Win

KINDER, La. (AP) — Top-ranked Kinder scored on its first drive and held on for a 7-0 victory over Landry Memorial High of Lake Charles here Friday night.

Kinder shares the No. 1 ranking in Class A with Buras.

The victory gave Kinder a 7-0 season record. Ronny Fontenot hurled a 29-yard pass to Bobo Griffith for the Yellow Jacket touchdown. Landry's deepest penetration was to the Kinder 18 in the third period.

Arcadia Wins

ARCADIA, La. (AP) — With Tom Lee scoring twice, the Arcadia Hornets, ranked second in Class B, rolled to a 37-0 conquest of Plain Dealing here Friday night.

Benton Rolls

BENTON, La. (AP) — Tommy Wallis scored four touchdowns to lead unbeaten Benton ranked fourth in Class B, to a 39-7 conquest of Cotton Valley here Friday night. Wallis is north Louisiana's top scorer and has now amassed 93 points.

Pace Latcher

DESTREHAN, La. (AP) — David Richard scored three touchdowns to pace third-ranked Latcher to its seventh straight victory — a 20-13 conquest of Destrehan — here Friday night.

Richard's touchdowns came on bursts of one, two and one yards.

Bears Bite

RAYVILLE (Special) — Delhi's Bears moved into Rayville with football on their minds and went home with a 28-7 District 2-A victory over the Hornets.

The Bears mounted a consistent attack and sent Dickey Bareswell into the end zone twice for touchdowns and four times with PAT's.

Bareswell notched his two tallies on runs of one and four yards in both the first and second quarters before Rayville got on the scoreboard with a 20-yard pass from Stanley Livingston to Larry Shoemaker.

After a scoreless third frame, the Bears came on with a 50-yard touchdown run by Allen Waldrup and a three-yard scoring plunge by Danny Boone. The win leaves Delhi with a 1-1-1 district record and drops Rayville to 1-2 in the loop and 5-2 overall. The Bears are 4-2 on the season.

Mangham Upset

MANGHAM (Special) — Quarterback Charles Stewart smashed one yard for a touchdown in the second period and Sterlington made it stand up for a 7-0 upset victory over Mangham in a district 2-B game here Friday night.

The victory gave the Panthers a 5-2 record for the year and kept them in the running for the district title behind Sicily Island with a 5-1 mark. Mangham fell to 5-2 for the year and the loss dealt its district championship ambitions a hard blow, leaving the Dragons a 4-2 in the district.

Mangham's offense was ineffective all night and rolled up only 96 yards rushing and passing and collected six first downs. Sterlington got 195 yards and rang up 14 firsts.

The winners drove 40 yards late in the game to the Mangham one-foot line but lost the ball on a fumble. Roger Huckaby kicked the extra point following Stewart's touchdown.

WISNER (Special) — Wisner's Bulldogs got off to a slow start here Friday night but followed Eric Hoggatt and Carl Shipp to a 32-0 District 2-B win over hapless Crowville.

Hoggatt and Shipp each scored twice.

The win pushed Wisner to a

5-1 District record and left Crowville still winless in seven outings.

Hoggatt got the first score in the second period on a 10 yard run and Shipp came back with the second tally on a 15 yard sprint.

Then to close out the first half, Hoggatt connected on a 35-yard pass to Shipp to give the Wisner Bulldogs a 19-0 third quarter advantage.

They came back with an additional 13 points in the fourth with a two-yard plunge by Lynn Walters and a 12 yard run by Hoggatt.

Hoggatt and Johnny Davis each ran PAT's for the hosts.

Two of the Wisner scoring opportunities came when Crowville punts went out of bounds on its own 27 and 30 yard lines.

Warriors Knock Off Davidson

Surging St. Frederick came up with its second straight victory, this time knocking off Davidson of St. Joseph 19-12 in the Warriors' Homecoming tilt.

The Warriors of Dan McClure, unless until they knocked off Davidson 48-13 last week, rained for touchdowns in the first, second and fourth periods to capture the impressive victory.

Robbie Schott scored twice for St. Frederick, first on a 23-yard scamper and later from the one yardline. The first TD capped a 64-yard march.

Schott's second TD was set up when sophomore middle guard Joe Marsala blocked a Davidson punt, giving the Warriors possession at the visitors' 33.

The third St. Frederick tally came on an eight yard pass from Albert Snyder to Vinny Anzalone after the Warriors took over at Davidson's 40.

Davidson's big fullback David Miller, who was equally effective on offensive and defensive from a linebacker post, scored both times for St. Joe. His first tally came from 32 yards out and his second was on a six yard run.

St. Frederick finished with 15 first downs while Davidson had 14 and the Warriors had a total offense of 267 yards on 171 rushing and 96 passing. Davidson finished with 237 total yards.

The Warriors, with only 17 boys remaining on the squad, travel to Newellton next week for a district bout with Bears.

49ers Said Critical Of Merger Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Members of the San Francisco 49ers team of the National Football League are critical of the proposed NFL merger with the American Football League, the San Francisco Examiner said Friday.

The Examiner said the criticism was voiced in a poll taken after passage by Congress of legislation to allow the NFL and AFL to combine into a single, expanded league.

The Examiner said the 49er players contended:

1. The "marriage" represents a near wipeout of their bargaining power.
2. Players will become mere pawns under the new arrangement.
3. The maneuvering by which the bill exempting the merger from antitrust laws was tacked to an administration anti-inflation bill in order to bypass the House Antitrust Subcommittee "took the players voice away" and is suspect as "owner political manipulation."
4. The owners "solved their problems by putting up the players' negotiating rights."
5. A professional football players' union, such as was suggested by the Teamsters Union last year, may be forced into being.
6. With the merger being given final House approval Thursday night, "The owners are letting themselves in for bigger problems than they ever could imagine."

State Fair Setting Just Like Last Year

By STUART HILL
World Sports Writer

SHREVEPORT — It's the same setting and the same script for the traditional State Fair game here tonight between Northwestern and Louisiana Tech, but the actors have changed.

The two squads will move onto the field just off the midway for their 51st meeting with the situation identical to last year.

VIDALIA'S MIKE GREER will see quite a bit of action at tight end for Louisiana Tech Saturday night when the Bulldogs play Northwestern State at State Fair Stadium in Shreveport. Greer has caught three passes for 63 yards this season. He alternates with Larry Brewer of Minden at tight end. Tech enters the Gulf States Conference game with a 0-5 record while the Demons are unbeaten in four starts.

Dallas Is Choice Against Cleveland

By BOB GREEN
NEW YORK (AP) — Advice to Mike Rathel, who normally handles the pro picks: Get back from vacation in a hurry or the percentage goes below .500.

The only redeeming feature in last week's flock of form reversals was the correct forecast of Miami's upset of Denver. That made it a dismal 5-4-2 for the week and 46-15-5, or .754, for the year.

Here's this week's guesses, all games Sunday:

NFL

Dallas 33, Cleveland 30—The big one of the week pits the league's best, rushing offense (Cleveland, 180-yard average) against the league's best passing (Dallas, 282). The strong defense will be hard pressed to contain Leroy Kelly and Ernie Green the Browns' runners. The Browns have won six straight from the Cowboys, but the Don Meredith-Bob Hayes passing combo should end the string—just barely.

St. Louis 28, Washington 21—The Cards have yet to lose and this is no time to start if they can put the same pass rush on Washington's Sonny Jurgensen that they did on Meredith it may be easy. Their customary comeback in the second half didn't really get off last week and may not be necessary Sunday.

Green Bay 35, Atlanta 7—Atlanta Coach Norb Hecker still is seeking his first victory for the Falcons, but won't find it when he comes home to Green Bay. His old buddies have the league's best defense and that over-powering Bart Starr-Jim Taylor-Paul Hornung offense.

Chicago 28, Los Angeles 24—The Rams won the first meeting this year but will find it very difficult to make it two straight in the George Halas-George Allen duel. To do so, they must contain Gale Sayers. It isn't Northwestern was undefeated and Tech was winless, just like this season, but the Bulldogs came home with a rousing 42-14 victory to log their first win of the season.

Tech, apparently plagued by personnel problems, has had little offensive success this season while Northwestern, experiencing one of its better seasons, has put together a band of Demons that was jelled before the season ever got underway.

NSC is the leading offensive and defensive team in the Gulf States Conference. Tech is on the bottom-most rung in league statistics.

Most observers have indicated that it will be only a matter of time before Coach Joe Ailliet rallies his Bulldogs, which have dropped their first five outings. The Tech camp has undergone frequent shuffling in an attempt to find the proper combination.

Northwestern's Jack Clayton got his charges off and rolling with a 49-0 win over Louisiana College and has not slowed down the pace.

Tech ran against the top defensive team in the nation in its opener, the University of Southern Mississippi, and has trouble finding opponents' goals since that game.

For many of the players on the Bulldog and Demon squads, the game will represent a meeting of former teammates and opponents. Both Northwestern and Tech recruit heavily both the Shreveport area.

Two outstanding Tech performers are likely to return to action amid the carnival aura.

Senior tri-captain Paul Clark of Shreveport is expected to be recovered from a knee injury incurred in the Arkansas State contests and Robert Brunet of Cutoff, hobbled with foot and groin troubles, and will probably swap out with Ruston's Eddie Taylor in the backfield.

Phil Robertson of Dixie will continue to lead the Tech attack, composed mostly of an artillery charge with Shreveport freshman Terry Bradshaw also returning to the scene of some of his high school performances.

Cornerback Tom Croft suffered a pinched knee cartilage in the Northwestern fray last week and will be replaced by Mike Lynch of New Orleans.

Other line changes will see freshman Larry Brewer of Minden at tight end and senior Dickie Walden return to right guard after a week's absence.

Freshman sensation Steve Gaspard of Cottonport leads the receiving end of Northwestern's well-rounded attack. Gaspard has hauled in 19 errands for 244 yards and three touchdowns.

Fullback Russ Gielow heads the Demon ground game with 162 yards on 25 carries while Malcolm Lewis and Donald Guidry share quarterbacking duties. Guidry has connected on 29 of 52 attempts for 347 yards with Lewis running a close second with 17 completions of 35 tries for 285 yards.

At Dodd, Northwestern's 1965 GSC Athlete-of-the-year, could turn into a punt for the air-minded Techsters. Dodd has clipped off five interceptions from his safety spot and returned them for a total of 89 yards.

Cornerback Tom Croft suffered a pinched knee cartilage in the Northwestern fray last week and will be replaced by Mike Lynch of New Orleans.

Other line changes will see freshman Larry Brewer of Minden at tight end and senior Dickie Walden return to right guard after a week's absence.

Freshman sensation Steve Gaspard of Cottonport leads the receiving end of Northwestern's well-rounded attack. Gaspard has hauled in 19 errands for 244 yards and three touchdowns.

Fullback Russ Gielow heads the Demon ground game with 162 yards on 25 carries while Malcolm Lewis and Donald Guidry share quarterbacking duties. Guidry has connected on 29 of 52 attempts for 347 yards with Lewis running a close second with 17 completions of 35 tries for 285 yards.

At Dodd, Northwestern's 1965 GSC Athlete-of-the-year, could turn into a punt for the air-minded Techsters. Dodd has clipped off five interceptions from his safety spot and returned them for a total of 89 yards.

Northwestern's Jack Clayton got his charges off and rolling with a 49-0 win over Louisiana College and has not slowed down the pace.

Tech ran against the top defensive team in the nation in its opener, the University of Southern Mississippi, and has trouble finding opponents' goals since that game.

For many of the players on the Bulldog and Demon squads, the game will represent a meeting of former teammates and opponents. Both Northwestern and Tech recruit heavily both the Shreveport area.

Two outstanding Tech performers are likely to return to action amid the carnival aura.

Senior tri-captain Paul Clark of Shreveport is expected to be recovered from a knee injury incurred in the Arkansas State contests and Robert Brunet of Cutoff, hobbled with foot and groin troubles, and will probably swap out with Ruston's Eddie Taylor in the backfield.

Phil Robertson of Dixie will continue to lead the Tech attack, composed mostly of an artillery charge with Shreveport freshman Terry Bradshaw also returning to the scene of some of his high school performances.

Tribe Visits Lions Tonight

Seeking 1st Conference Win Of Year

By KEITH PRINCE
World Sports Editor

HAMMOND — Boasting one of the most potent offenses and most depressing records among Gulf States Conference teams, Northeast seeks to unlock the key of opportunity once again tonight when it takes on Southeastern here at 7:30.

The Indians of Coach Dixie White are 3-2 overall this year, but both defeats have been in league games, dropping a 23-14 decision to unbeaten Northwestern and the 18-17 nightmare to McNeese last week.

Meanwhile, Southeastern will be trying to win its second straight tonight after three consecutive losses. Bowing to Southern Mississippi, Southwest and Trinity University of San Antonio, Tex., the Lions bounced back by ripping Louisiana College, 49-0.

But, of course, that win doesn't tell much — except that it was expected. And, the Lions enter tonight's contest as the biggest question mark in the league. In its three losses Southeastern played extremely well against Southern before falling, 15-13, and played not-so-well against Southern before falling, 15-13, and played not-so-well against both Southwest (35-6) and Trinity (14-7) before coming back to regroup forces last week.

As a comparison to McNeese, SLC is supposed to be tougher defensively and as good offensively. Its offense is well balanced, averaging 126.0 yards rushing and 104.5 passing. Lion halfback Charles Whitney is the No. 6 rusher in the league with a 4.1 average and quarterback Cotten is the fifth ranked passer, clicking on 35 of 85 passes for 328 yards.

Of course, Northeast takes a back seat to nobody in rushing offense. The Indians have four of the top five GSC runners in their backfield. Speed merchant Dalton LeBlanc is the league leader in both yards (313) and average (7.1).

Alton Thomas is second with a 5.5 average, quarterback Steve Mansur fourth with a 4.5 and fullback Bobby Scafield fifth with 4.4 and second in yards with 305.

As a team, the Indians are averaging 246.6 yards a game rushing and 55.0 passing.

However, the key to tonight's contest looms around the question of whether or not the highly regarded Tribe backs can run against the equally well respected Southeastern defense.

The rushing defense of Southeastern takes a backseat to nobody, also. In fact, it is currently the GSC's No. 1 team in rushing defense, allowing only 110.2 yards a game.

Both teams are expected to be physical ready for the game. However, SLC coach Pat Kenelly complained of several minor injuries which had handicapped the Lions.

The Lions' mentor said that eight players were on the injury list, and two — Vaughn Walton and Dickie Bates — would definitely be out for the contest.

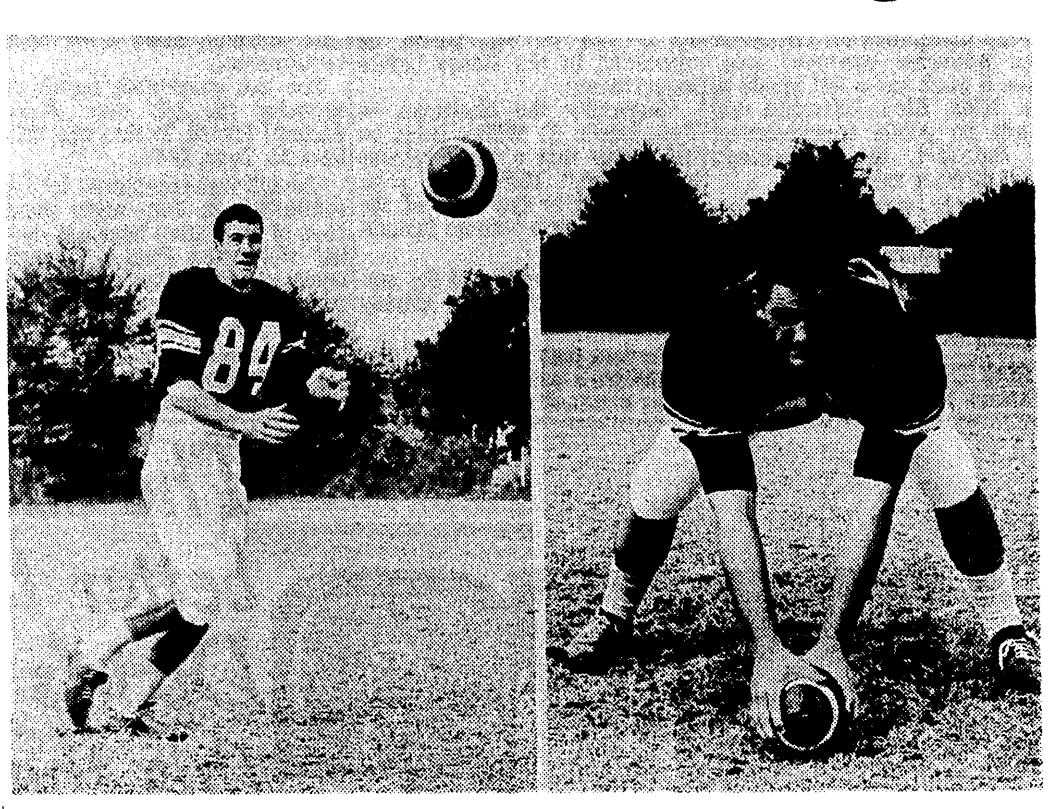

Kenelly said the other injuries while not major, "were temporary nagging injuries which handicapped practice and progress."

As for Northeast, Thomas Eddleman who was injured against McNeese is set to go in the defensive backfield, and linebacker Ron Gaetano is expected to be ready for part time duty if necessary.

However, Gaetano will not start. Butch Shulman secured that slot for another week last Saturday when he played a tremendous game against McNeese, getting credit for 13 tackles.

Cornerback Nic LaBarbera, who was also a late arriver because of injuries before the season began, was second in tackles.

Cornerback Nic LaBarbera, who was also a late arriver because of injuries before the season began, was second in tackles with seven.

THE SMALLEST and the biggest players in Northeast State's offensive lineup are end Al Miller (left), 177 pounds, and center Vic Bender, 222. Both have been standouts for the Indians this fall and will try to help Northeast win its first Gulf States Conference game of the campaign tonight when the local college takes on Southeastern in Hammond. Miller is from El Dorado, Ark., and Bender from North Miami, Fla.

Sooners Could Use Irish Luck

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Oklahoma's football supporters have had to wait while the Sooners rebuilt a team that had sagged from its standing as the nation's greatest nine years ago.

Now, with the bulk of the job having been accomplished, they have to worry about weight.

That's because the Sooners, in their big game against top-ranked Notre Dame Saturday, will be outweighed 31 pounds a man in the defensive line and 18 pounds a man in the offensive line.

The oddsmakers think Oklahoma will need the luck of the Irish to win and have installed Notre Dame a 13½-point favorite.

Each team is unbeaten in four starts. Oklahoma, which had only a 3.7 record last season, is in 10th place in the latest Associated Press college poll.

Notre Dame stopped Oklahoma's 47-game winning streak in 1957 when the Sooners, under Bud Wilkinson, were the powerhouses among the major teams.

Michigan State, which dropped to second in the rankings last week despite a victory, takes on ninth-ranked Purdue in a game that is likely to decide the Big Ten championship. The Spartans are 5-0 while Purdue has a loss to Notre Dame and four victories on its record.

A Purdue victory could virtually clinch a Boilermaker trip to the Rose Bowl. The Spartans played in the Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1 game last time around and, under conference rules, cannot represent the Big Ten in 1967.

The game will match two flashy quarterbacks, Bob Griese of Purdue and Jimmy Raye of Michigan State. Griese has completed 64 of 104 passes for 804 yards and five touchdowns. Raye, who is also a fine runner, has hit on 24 of 51 passes for 395 yards and three touchdowns.

The Spartans are seven-point favorites.

It'll be a big day in the Southeastern Conference, too, because Alabama, the defending national titleholder and ranked No. 4, faces Vanderbilt, and Florida, No. 8, take on Louisiana State. Georgia, which shares the SEC lead with Alabama and Florida at 2-0, meets Kentucky.

UCLA, No. 3, plays at California; Southern California, No. 5, goes against Clemson; sixth-ranked Georgia Tech plays Tulane and Nebraska, No. 7, meets Colorado.

Other leading games match Army and Pittsburgh, Michigan and Minnesota, Arizona and Utah, Arkansas and Wichita State, Baylor and Texas A&M, Texas and Rice, Harvard and Dartmouth, Duke and North Carolina State, Ohio State and Wisconsin and Navy against William and Mary.

G-Bar-B Affair Largest Yet

Figures announced this week reveal that last weekend's G-Bar-B Stables presentation by the Ouachita Valley Quarter Horse Association was the largest such show of the year in Louisiana. Previously, a quarter horse show at Baton Rouge held the top statistical honor. However, the G-Bar-B affair drew 410 entries to out-distance the Baton Rouge show easily.

The entry list included participants from Ohio, North Carolina, Colorado and Nevada. These far-reaching entries established the Ouachita Valley QHA event as a "quality show."

Carlton Salley, Shreveport veterinarian show announcer, called it the largest show in the state in three years.

The large entry qualified the meet as a class A show with the American Quarter Horse Association.

Winners were:

Grand champion mare — Pistol's Bit, Roland Stacy, Natchez, Miss.

Open cutting horse — Vegas Boy owned by Walt Gardner, Las Vegas, Nev., ridden by J. F. Fisher.

Open cutting event — Snapper Cole, owner, Jimmy O'Reil, Dewitt, Ark.; rider, Brison Gill.

High point trophy to Dub Dale, Tyler, Tex.

Youth Division

Stallion — St. Three Bar, owner Kendall Gillen, Baton Rouge.

Mare — Super Beth, owner Steve Brooks, Monroe.

Grand champion — Mr. So Big, owner Susan Lirio, Port Allen.

Showmanship trophy to Margie Godwin, Monroe.

All-around youth trophy to Susan Lorio with Margie Godwin close second.

Monroe area youths placing high in events included Margie Godwin, second western pleasure; Billy Aycock, third stallion; Judy Boggs, sixth geldings; Day Oakley, fourth geldings; Day Oakley, sixth showmanship.

Performance classes for Monroe area youths included: Frank Snellings, second pole bending; Judy Boggs, first barrel racing; Margie Godwin, second western riding; Day Oakley, fourth western riding; Judy Boggs, fifth western riding.

Northeast In 2nd Cross Country Win

Northeast State's cross country runners again missed first place in the individual standings but not in the team totals as they swept to their second straight victory Friday afternoon by edging McNeese, 27-31.

The Indians placed entries in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th and 8th spots to beat the Cowboys in the distance run of 3.2 miles at Forsythe Park here.

McNeese's Canadian star, Ted Jackson, was the individual winner with a 15:30 clocking and the 'Pokes also took second on Gory Cox' 15:38 time. In last week's Northeast opener against Northwestern here, the visitors' Bob Dufalo finished first but Northeast won the meet, 21-37.

New Iberia junior Bobby Keasler repeated as the top Northeast individual, finishing 3rd in 15:57 after a second-place windup last week. He was followed by rookies Frank O'Hara and Gordon Dupre' in 4th and 5th, Jim Bodin came in 7th, Mike Roberts 8th, Jeff Rowdon 9th and Cully Warren 11th.

The loss dropped McNeese's record to 1-3.

Bob Groseclose's Northeast club will be in action again Wednesday when they meet Northwestern in a return engagement at Natchitoches.

LSU Frosh Trip State On Fumbles

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Louisiana State's freshman football team took advantage of two Mississippi State frosh fumbles for two touchdowns, whipping the little Maroons 28-0 Friday.

It was the third consecutive win of the season for the Baby Bengals, who had previously beaten Ole Miss 31-7 and Memphis State 32-0.

The loss was the second of the season for the Bullpups, who had fallen to the Alabama frosh 27-14 on Oct. 3.

The scoring began when LSU's defensive end Arthur Davis recovered a State fumble at the Bullpup 11. It took the Louisiana freshmen just three plays to score with Mark Lumpkin going the final nine around right end.

Roy Hurd converted the first of three extra points.

On the next kickoff, Davis again came up with a Bullpup fumble and five plays later, Leroy Sarver went over from the one.

LSU picked up its final touchdown in the third period, when Sarver raced around left end from 22 yards out.

76ers Defeat St. Louis Hawks

Warriors Knock Off Davidson

Surging St. Frederick came up with its second straight victory, this time knocking off Davidson of St. Joseph 19-12 in the Warriors' Homecoming tilt.

The Warriors of Dan McClure, winless until they knocked off Crowleyville 48-13 last week, ramed for touchdowns in the first, second and fourth periods to capture the impressive victory.

Robbie Schott scored twice for St. Frederick, first on a 23-yard scamper and later from the one yardline. The first TD capped a 64-yard march.

Schott's second TD was set up when sophomore middle guard Joe Marsala blocked a Davidson punt, giving the Warriors possession at the visitors' 23.

The third St. Frederick tally came on an eight yard pass from Albert Snyder to Vinny Anzalone after the Warriors took over at Davidson's 40.

Davidson's big fullback David Miller, who was equally effective on offensive and defensive from a linebacker post, scored both times for St. Joe. His first tally came from 32 yards out and his second was on a six yard run.

St. Frederick finished with 15 first downs while Davidson had 14 and the Warriors had a total offense of 267 yards on 171 rushing and 96 passing. Davidson finished with 237 total yards.

The Warriors, with only 17 boys remaining on the squad, travel to Newellton next week for a district bout with Bears.

Davidson	6	0	6	0	12
St. Frederick	7	0	0	0	19
S-Robbie Schott 23 run (Steve Walker run)
D-David Miller 22 run (run fall)
S-Vinny Anzalone 8 pass from Albert Snyder (run fall)
D-Miller 4 run (run fall)

49ers Said Critical Of Merger Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Members of the San Francisco 49ers team of the National Football League are critical of the proposed NFL merger with the American Football League, the San Francisco Examiner said Friday.

The Examiner said the criticism was voiced in a poll taken after passage by Congress of legislation to allow the NFL and AFL to combine into a single, expanded league.

The Examiner said the 49ers players contended:

1. The "marriage" represents a near wipeout of their bargaining power.

2. Players will become mere pawns under the new arrangement.

3. The maneuvering by which the bill exempting the merger from antitrust laws was tacked on an administration anti-inflation bill in order to bypass the House Antitrust Subcommittee "took the players voice away" and is suspect as "owner political manipulation."

4. The owners "solved their problems by putting up the players' negotiating rights."

5. A professional football players' union, such as was suggested by the Teamsters Union last year, may be forced into being.

6. With the merger being given final House approval Thursday night, "The owners are letting themselves in for bigger problems than they ever could imagine."

State Fair Setting Just Like Last Year

By STUART HILL
World Sports Writer

SHREVEPORT — It's the same setting and the same script for the traditional State Fair game here tonight between Northwestern and Louisiana

Tech, but the actors have changed.

The two squads will move onto the field just off the midway for their 51st meeting with the situation identical to last

Northwestern was undefeated and Tech was winless, just like this season, but the Bulldogs came home with a rousing 42-14 victory to log their first win of the season.

Tech, apparently plagued by personnel problems, has had little offensive success this season while Northwestern, experiencing one of its better seasons, has put together a band of Demons that was jelled before the season ever got underway.

NSC is the leading offensive and defensive team in the Gulf States Conference. Tech is on the bottom-most rung in league statistics.

Most observers have indicated that it will be only a matter of time before Coach Joe Alliet rallies his Bulldogs, which have dropped their first five outings. The Tech camp has undergone frequent shuffling in an attempt to find the proper combination.

Northwestern's Jack Clayton got his charges off and rolling with a 49-0 win over Louisiana College and has not slowed down the pace.

Tech ran against the top defensive team in the nation in its opener, the University of Southern Mississippi, and has trouble finding opponents' goals since that game.

For many of the players on the Bulldog and Demon squads, the game will represent a meeting of former teammates and opponents. Both Northwestern and Tech recruit heavily both the Shreveport area.

Two outstanding Tech performers are likely to return to action amid the carnival aura.

Senior tri-captain Paul Clark of Shreveport is expected to be recovered from a knee injury incurred in the Arkansas State contests and Robert Brunet of Cutoff, hobbled with foot and groin troubles, and will probably swap out with Ruston's Eddie Taylor in the backfield.

Phil Robertson of Dixie will continue to lead the Tech attack, composed mostly of an artillery charge with Shreveport freshman Terry Bradshaw also returning to the scene of some of his high school performances.

Cornerback Tom Croft suffered a pinched knee cartilage in the Northwestern fray last week and will be rechecked by Mike Lynch of New Orleans.

Other line changes will see freshman Larry Brewer of Minden at tight end and senior Dickie Walden return to right guard after a week's absence. Freshman sensation Steve Gaspard of Cottonport leads the receiving end of Northwestern's well-rounded attack. Gaspard has hauled in 19 orials for 244 yards and three touchdowns.

Fullback Russ Gielow heads the Demon ground game with 162 yards on 25 carries while Malcolm Lewis and Donald Guidry share quarterbacking duties. Guidry has connected on 29 of 52 attempts for 347 yards with Lewis running a close second with 17 completions of 35 tries for 285 yards.

Al Dodd, Northwestern's 1965 GSC Athlete-of-the-year, could turn into a pundit for the air-minded Techsters. Dodd has clipped off five interceptions from his safety spot and returned them for a total of 89 yards.

Persol Defeats

Lincoln In 10

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Persol spotted Amos (Big Train) Lincoln 21½ pounds and four inches in height and then completely outboxed and outpunched the third ranking heavyweight contender from Los Angeles in gaining a lopsided 10-round decision Friday night.

On Injury List

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Jets placed Bill Rademacher, a reserve flanker, and Jim O'Mahoney, an outside linebacker, on the waiver list Friday and reactivated Jim Gray for Sunday's American Football League game against Oakland.

Tribe Visits Lions Tonight

Seeking 1st Conference Win Of Year

By KEITH PRINCE
World Sports Editor

HAMMOND — Boasting one of the most potent offenses and most depressing records among Gulf States Conference teams, Northeast seeks to unlock the key of opportunity once again tonight when it takes on Southeastern here at 7:30.

The Indians of Coach Dixie White are 3-2 overall this year, but both defeats have been in league games, dropping a 23-14 decision to unbeaten Northwestern and the 18-17 nightmare to McNeese last week.

Meanwhile, Southeastern will be trying to win its second straight tonight after three consecutive losses. Bowing to Southern Mississippi, Southwestern and Trinity University of San Antonio, Tex., the Lions bounced back by ripping Louisiana College, 49-0.

As a team, the Indians are averaging 246.6 yards a game rushing and 55.0 passing.

However, the key to tonight's contest looms around the question of whether or not the highly regarded Tribe backs can run against the equally well respected Southeastern defense.

The rushing defense of Southeastern takes a backseat to nobody, also. In fact, it is currently the GSC's No. 1 team in rushing defense, allowing only 110.2 yards a game.

Both teams are expected to be physical ready for the game. However, SLC coach Pat Kennedy complained of several minor injuries which had handicapped the Lions.

Kennedy said the other injuries while not major, "were temporary nagging injuries which handicapped practice and progress."

As for Northeast, Thomas Edleman who was injured against McNeese is set to go in the defensive backfield, and line-backer Ron Gaetano is expected to be ready for part time duty if necessary.

However, Gaetano will not start. Butch Shulman secured that slot for another week last Saturday when he played a tremendous game against McNeese, getting credit for 13 tackles.

Corner back Nic LaBarbera, who was also a late arriver because of injuries before the season began, was second in tackles.

Corner back Nic LaBarbera, who was also a late arriver because of injuries before the season began, was second in tackles with seven.

Tigerland Preps For Homecoming

GRAMBLING (Special) — The Grambling College campus took on a happy holiday spirit Friday on the eve of the Jackson State game as old grads returned by the hundreds, with optimism for Homecoming.

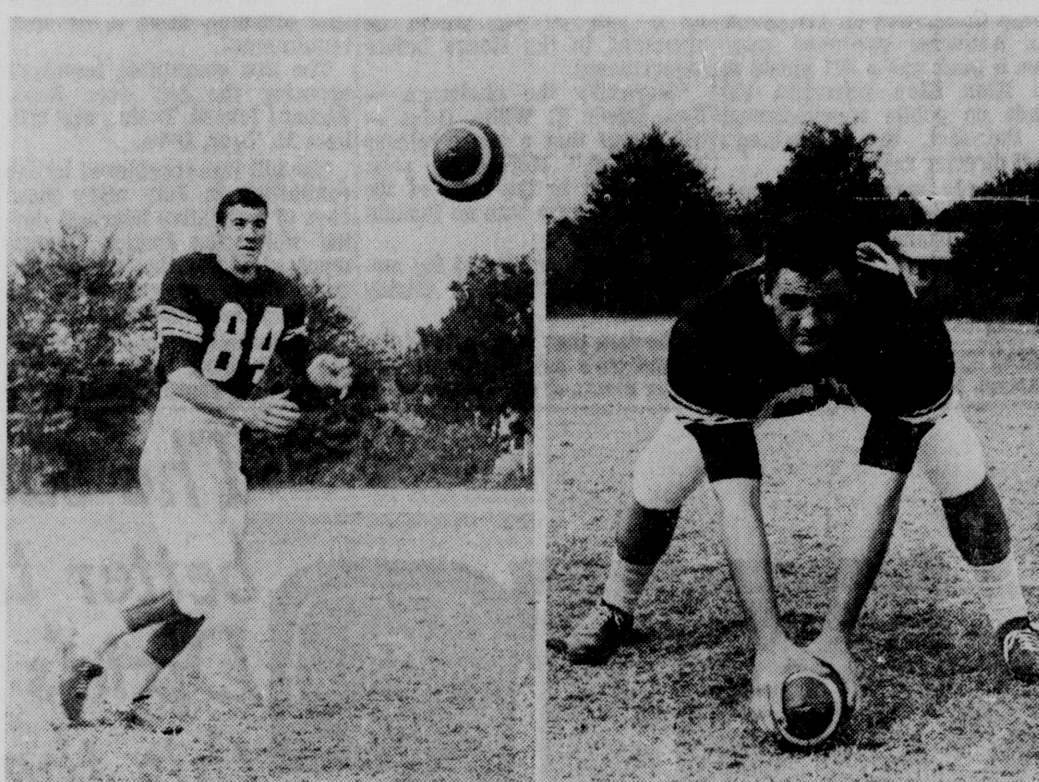

On the football practice field it was a different story as a not-so-even tempered group of Tigers reviewed assignments in an effort to erect a strong pass defense.

Grambling spent most of the week zoning and refining the secondary.

Coach Eddie Robinson and his staff recited the pass-defense catechism again Friday.

Jackson State arrived at noon and held a brisk workout at 3 p.m. under the push-button direction of quarterback Claudis James.

Action is expected to be wide-open today as Grambling has its top passer, James Harris, back in the lineup to help trip the switch.

THE SMALLEST and the biggest players in Northeast State's offensive lineup are end Al Miller (left), 177 pounds, and center Vic Bender, 222. Both have been standouts for the Indians this fall and will try to help Northeast win its first Gulf States Conference game of the campaign tonight when the local college takes on Southeastern in Hammond. Miller is from El Dorado, Ark., and Bender from North Miami, Fla.

Sooners Could Use Irish Luck

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
Oklahoma's football supporters have had to wait while the Sooners rebuilt a team that had sagged from its standing as the nation's greatest nine years ago.

Now, with the bulk of the job having been accomplished, they have to worry about weight.

That's because the Sooners, in their big game against top-ranked Notre Dame Saturday, will be outweighed 31 pounds a man in the defensive line and 18 pounds a man in the offensive line.

The oddsmakers think Oklahoma will need the luck of the Irish to win and have installed Notre Dame a 13½-point favorite.

Each team is unbeaten in four starts. Oklahoma, which had only a 3-7 record last season, is in 10th place in the latest Associated Press college poll.

Notre Dame stopped Oklahoma's 47-game winning streak in 1957 when the Sooners, under Bud Wilkinson, were the power-houses among the major teams.

Michigan State, which dropped to second in the rankings last week despite a victory, takes on ninth-ranked Purdue in a game that is likely to decide the Big Ten championship. The Spartans are 5-0 while Purdue has a loss to Notre Dame and four victories on its record.

A Purdue victory could virtually clinch a Boilermaker trip to the Rose Bowl. The Spartans played in the Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1 game last time around and, under conference rules, cannot represent the Big Ten in 1967.

The game will match two flashy quarterbacks, Bob Griese of Purdue and Jimmy Raye of Michigan State. Griese has completed 64 of 104 passes for 804 yard and five touchdowns. Raye, who is also a fine runner, has hit on 24 of 51 passes for 395 yards and three touchdowns.

The Spartans are seven-point favorites.

It'll be a big day in the Southeastern Conference, too, because Alabama, the defending national titleholder and ranked No. 4, faces Vanderbilt, and Florida, No. 8, take on Louisiana State. Georgia, which shares the SEC lead with Alabama and Florida at 2-0, meets Kentucky.

UCLA, No. 3, plays at California; Southern California, No. 5, goes against Clemson; sixth-rated Georgia Tech plays Tulane and Nebraska, No. 7, meets Colorado.

Other leading games match Army and Pittsburgh, Michigan and Minnesota, Arizona and Utah, Arkansas and Wichita State, Baylor and Texas A&M, Texas and Rice, Harvard and Dartmouth, Duke and North Carolina State, Ohio State and Wisconsin and Navy against William and Mary.

76ers Defeat

St. Louis Hawks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers overcame a 13-point first half deficit and led by Bill Cunningham's second half scoring spree defeated the St. Louis Hawks 119-110 Friday night in a National Basketball Association game.

Trailing 38-25 early in the second quarter, Philadelphia, with Hal Greer dumping in 17 points, outscored the Hawks 37-19 to take a 62-57 lead at intermission.

In winning their second game in as many starts, the 76ers gained a 76-65 lead early in the second half. The Hawks, however, closed the gap to 79-77 with 3:15 remaining in the third period.

HUAC Remains Silent On Approving Bill Aimed At Ku Klux Klan Terrorism

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities approved more than a week ago a bill aimed at Ku Klux Klan terrorism but made no public announcement of the fact, the committee's staff director said Friday.

Not only was no announcement made of the bill's approval at an unannounced meeting Oct. 13 but no report of the meeting or of the action has yet appeared in the Congressional Record.

Staff director Francis J. McNamara said a formal report on the committee's action, taken by a vote of 7-2, would be presented in the House before adjournment.

"Normally the chairman — Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La. — will direct that a press release be drafted," McNamara said, adding that in the case of the Klan bill "there was no thought given to this."

McNamara attributed the omission to the "rush of closing business."

The fact that no report of the committee's action was printed in the digest of the Congressional Record was considered unusual although there is no such requirement.

The two committee members opposing the bill were Reps. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., and William M. Tuck, D-Va.

The bill was considered by the committee in July after three days of legislative hearings during which the Justice Department, civil liberties groups and civil rights organizations all said they were against the bill.

The committee laid the measure aside after some members had raised constitutional objections to provisions making it a crime for members of criminal conspiracies to advocate violence and terrorism.

Other parts of the bill would impose stiff penalties on members of such conspiracies who kidnap or kill persons in interstate commerce or who use interstate commerce to promote or plan crimes of violence.

In St. Martinville, La., Willis was surprised by word that knowledge of the committee's action on the bill had become public. Asked why the bill was not announced he said: "We're out any day now."

The bill will be brought up at the next session of Congress, he printed up and I expect it is to be added.

McNamara said later that the committee does not formally announce anything in the daily digest except for open meetings. He said the committee had taken no formal action to authorize an announcement in the case of the Klan bill.

U.S. Remains Firm Against Seating Red China

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Chinese have seats. But Sen. Renan Fuentetaba, chairman of the Chilean delegation to the General Assembly, expressed "special satisfaction" at the recommendation made Thursday night in the report of a national policy panel of the United Nations association of Far East.

The General Assembly starts a debate a month from Friday on a move from eight Communist and nonaligned countries to replace the Chinese Nationalists with the Chinese Communists in the United Nations.

"I have hope," he said in a statement, "that this report will be the prelude to a renewing action of Washington which I judge to be in harmony with the President Johnson's trip to the United States."

The World For WOMEN

MONROE MORNING WORLD, Saturday, October 22, 1966 — 1-B

Northeast State College's active Chapter, Miss Wanda Langley, active vice-president, and Mrs. Siddons Service, active's advisor, Mrs. Chisholm, patroness, is seated at the refreshment table.

Zeta Tau Alpha Chapter Has Observance Of Founder's Day

Mrs. Charles Chisholm, patroness of Zeta Delta chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha social fraternity, pledges, alumnae, and patronesses of the Twin City area to observe Founder's day in her West Monroe home Saturday.

Guests were greeted in the foyer by alternating hostesses, Mrs. Siddons Service, chapter's general advisor, Mrs. Gordon Gates, city Pan - Hellenic president, and Mrs. Jesse McDonald, alumnae president. A massive arrangement of white gladioli centered with the turquoise and silver dressed Zeta doll was focal decoration in the entrance hall.

Following the Founders' Day Service, a festive meal was served from a table covered in turquoise linen banded in gray. A pyramid of white chrysanthemums and turquoise grapes flanked by silver candelabra holding glowing tapers centered the table. Twin den tables were decorated with miniature chrysanthemums in autumn colors, while tables in the playroom featured fresh fruit and ornamental peppers as the focal decor. Lemons, ivy and hurricane lamps adorned poolside tables.

'Mary O'Kelly Day' Climaxed With Banquet On Hotel Roof

One hundred and ten members and guests attended Monroe Business and Professional Women's Club banquet on the Hotel Frances Roof climaxed the activities of "Mary O'Kelly Day," proclaimed by Mayor W. L. Howard, Tuesday. The event was also an observance of the 29th annual National Business Women's Week.

Mayor Howard as guest speaker, chose the banquet theme, "Plans For Progress in Three Dimensions Through Club, Community and Country," as his topic.

President Johnson in an official proclamation designated this week for citizens to learn and appreciate the many contributions which business and professional women are making in the economic, social, cultural, business and professional life in our country.

To climax "Mary O'Kelly Day," the honoree was escorted to the stage by Mrs. Helen Trichel where her many accomplishments were reviewed by her lifelong friends and club members, Miss Maibel Hood, Miss Alice Baur and Mrs. Fay Heard. Mrs. Evelyn Bledsoe at the piano accompanied Mrs. Vivian Combs who sang "My Lady" to Miss Mary. Mrs. Oleta Eaker, BPW president, presented Miss O'Kelly with a Nike statue the symbol of strength, freedom and triumph.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burdoux presented the Golden Dornknot Award to Thomas N. Dunn, Employee Services Supervisor of Olin Mathison Corporation, for the firm which opened doors of opportunity to women in this area.

During the entertainment period, Frank McDermott presented "Chit Chat Humor." Past club presidents in attendance were Miss O'Kelly, Miss Evelyn Bledsoe, Mrs. Bledsoe, Mrs. Gladys Miles, also past state president, Miss Hood, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Mrs. Lucille Mathis, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Mrs. Marguerite Meek, Mrs. Billie Harrell, Mrs. Ruby McElroy, Mrs. Sara Kennon, Mrs. Burdoux, Miss Ruth Whitley, Mrs. Nethel McDermott, Mrs. Lorraine Keith.

Blue Featured In Decor At Bridal Party

Wednesday morning at 11:30 Miss Jan Touchstone, bride-elect of Ray-burh Leroy Doege of Houston, Texas, was honored with a brunch in the Deborah Drive home of Mrs. Burchall Liles.

The betrothed couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kirt Touchstone of Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Doege of Houston, Texas, will exchange nuptial vows November 5 in Grace Episcopal Church.

In the table's decorations Mrs. Liles chose a blue theme. An antique English silver chalice filled with white spray as softly draped with blue chiffon. Royal blue goblets and blue mats were used to enhance the theme.

Close friends and relatives of the honoree were served tomato aspic, stewed fruit, chicken - rice casserole, hot biscuits and assorted sweet rolls.

Miss Touchstone was wearing a red knit sheath and Mrs. Liles chose for the morning party a royal blue wool model.

LUNCHEON

An earlier courtesy to the bride-elect was a luncheon at Baton Rouge Country Club in Baton Rouge on Saturday, at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. John Blackman and Mrs. Harvey Perry entertained for Miss Touchstone for the pre-nuptial event.

Depicted in the decor at the luncheon table were the colors of Delta Delta Delta, the honoree's sorority, silver, blue and gold. Antique silver goblets were used in the appointments.

Miss Touchstone was wearing a beige and brown silk wool ensemble for the bridal party.

Floral Arrangements Reflect Autumn Colors At DKG Meet

Autumn shades were reflected in floral arrangements for the October dinner meeting of Eta chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, held in the twin Gold Rooms of Hotel Frances.

Decorating the main table were yellow Fuji chrysanthemums, bronze and yellow chrysanthemums with green sprays of fern overlaid with gold. Enhancing the centerpiece was a tall glittering candle holder with a lighted taper. A ribbon of waxed boxwood extended the length of the table.

On long tables, arranged in fan shape, decorations featured candelabra studded with Fuji chrysanthemums, bronze daisies, and chrysanthemums. Rust colored wheat, glittered greenery, with amber votive lights completed the seasonal effect.

Mrs. W. S. Vincent, program chairman, in her talk, stressed the value of opportunity the creative child should be given in grade school. She stated that creativity has been and is the cornerstone of our civilization.

Mrs. Vincent presented the evening's speaker, Dr. Ruth Bruner, professor and office administration's department head at Northeast Louisiana State College. Dr. Bruner in developing Delta Kappa Gamma's theme of the year, "Nature and Nature of Creativity," chose as her subject "Creating A New You." She pointed out the importance of practicing creativity and that discontent of oneself seems to stimulate creative spirit.

Program committee for the year includes besides Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Joyce Mehl, Miss Elaine Canady, Miss Ruth Simmons, Miss Kathryn Douciere, Mrs. Orestha Luttrell and Miss Ramona Wigley.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Eloise Slater, chairman, Mrs. Analise Hayward, Mrs. Olive Leigh Cochran, Mrs. Addie Humble, Miss Mabel Lann, Mrs. Lemert, Miss Josephine McCranie, Mrs. Eula Pearl Montgomery, Mrs. Birdie Mae Mulhearn, Miss Bettie Oxford, Mrs. Roy Fiser, Mrs. Annie Lee West Stahl and Miss Annie Windes.

Zeta Tau Alpha Chapter Has Observance Of Founder's Day

Mrs. Charles Chisholm, patroness of Zeta Delta chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha social fraternity, pledges, alumnae, and patronesses of the Twin City area to observe Founder's day in her West Monroe home Saturday. Mrs. Fred Bennett and Mrs. Kenneth Adams, actives, assisted as co-hostesses for the event. Guests were greeted in the foyer by alternating hostesses, Mrs. Siddons Service, chapter's general advisor, Mrs. Gordon Gates, city Pan - Hellenic president, and Mrs. Jesse McDonald, alumnae president. A massive arrangement of white gladioli centered with the turquoise and silver dressed Zeta doll was focal decoration in the entrance hall.

Following the Founders' Day Service, a festive meal was served from a table covered in turquoise linen banded in gray. A pyramid of white chrysanthemums and turquoise grapes flanked by silver candelabra holding glowing tapers centered the table. Twin den tables were decorated with miniature chrysanthemums in autumn colors, while tables in the playroom featured fresh fruit and ornamental peppers as the focal decor. Lemons, ivy and hurricane lamps adorned poolside tables. Alumnae who assisted with serving were Mrs. Harry Bell, Mrs. John Kelso, Mrs. Harrel Lary, Mrs. Warren Smith, and Mrs. W. C. Alleman. Social

'Mary O'Kelly Day' Climaxed With Banquet On Hotel Roof

One hundred and ten members and guests attended Monroe Business and Professional Women's Club banquet on the Hotel Frances Roof climaxed the activities of "Mary O'Kelly Day," proclaimed by Mayor W. L. Howard, Tuesday. The event was also an observance of the 29th annual National Business Women's Week.

Mayor Howard as guest speaker, chose the banquet theme, "Plans For Progress in Three Dimensions through Club, Community and Country," as his topic.

President Johnson in an official proclamation designated this week for citizens to learn and appreciate the many contributions which business and professional women are making in the economic, social, cultural, business and professional life in our country.

To climax 'Mary O'Kelly Day,' the honoree was escorted to the stage by Mrs. Helen Trichel where her many accomplishments were reviewed by her lifelong friends and club members, Miss Maibel Hood, Miss Alice Baur and Mrs. Faye Heard. Mrs. Evelyn Bledsoe at the piano accompanied Mrs. Vivian Combs who sang "My Lady" to Miss Mary. Mrs. Oleta Eaker, BPW president, presented Miss O'Kelly with a Niki statue the symbol of strength, freedom and triumph.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burdeaux presented the Golden Doorknob Award to Thomas N. Bunn, Employee Services Supervisor of Olin Mathison Corporation, for the firm which opened doors of opportunity to women in this area.

During the entertainment period, Frank McDermott presented "Chit Chat Humor."

Past club presidents in attendance were Miss O'Kelly, Miss Evelyn Barbour, Vicksburg, Miss. Mrs. Gladys Miles, also past state president, Miss Hood, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Mrs. Lucille Mathis, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Mrs. Marguerite Meek, Mrs. Billie Harrell, Mrs. Ruby McElroy, Mrs. Sara Kennon, Mrs. Burdeaux, Miss Ruth Whalley, Mrs. Nethel McDermott, Mrs. Lorraine Keith.

Floral Arrangements Reflect Autumn Colors At DKG Meet

Autumn shades were reflected in floral arrangements for the October dinner meeting of Eta chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, held in the twin Gold Rooms of Hotel Frances.

Decorating the main table were yellow Fuji chrysanthemums, bronze and yellow chrysanthemums with green sprays of fern overlaid with gold. Enhancing the centerpiece was a tall glittering candle holder with a lighted taper. A ribbon of waxed boxwood extended the length of the table.

On long tables, arranged in fan shape, decorations featured candelabra studded with Fuji chrysanthemums, bronze daisies, and chrysanthemums. Rust colored wheat, glittered greenery, with amber votive lights completed the seasonal effect.

Mrs. W. S. Vincent, program chairman, in her talk, stressed the value of opportunity the creative child should be given in grade school. She stated that creativity has been and is the cornerstone of our civilization.

Mrs. Vincent presented the evening's speaker, Dr. Ruth Bruner, professor and office administration's department head at Northeast Louisiana State College. Dr. Bruner in developing Delta Kappa Gamma's theme of the year, "Nature and Nature of Creativity", chose as her subject "Creating A New You." She pointed out the importance of practicing creativity and that discontent of oneself seems to stimulate creative spirit.

Program committee for the year includes besides Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Joyce Mehl, Miss Elaine Canady, Miss Ruth Simmons, Miss Kathryn Douciere, Mrs. Oreaatha Luttrell and Miss Ramona Wigley.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Eloise Slater, chairman, Mrs. Analise Hayward, Mrs. Olive Leigh Cochran, Mrs. Addie Humble, Miss Mabel Lann, Mrs. Lebert, Miss Josephine McCranie, Mrs. Eula Pearl Montgomery, Mrs. Birdie Mae Mulhearn, Miss Bettie Oxford, Mrs. Roy Fiser, Mrs. Annie Lee West Stahl and Miss Annie Windes.

Dear Abby

Preserving 'Marriage' Has Left This One In A Pickle

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: After 14 years of marriage, my husband asked me for a divorce. I am 34 and have no training for any kind of job. Besides, I knew that no matter what kind of alimony he said he'd pay, he'd never keep up with the payments, so I decided that in order to preserve our marriage I'd agree to certain things.

He could have a room of his own and come and go as he pleased. He could bring his friends over any time with no questions asked. I was to keep house and cook for my regular allowance. I agreed to this without realizing the friends he could bring over were women.

Our children are too young to know what is going on now, but they'll be asking questions pretty soon. I have no pride left, but what can I do!

STUCK

DEAR STUCK: Are you married to this tyrant, or doing a stretch in a penal institution? Get a lawyer, lady, and let him explain what you husband's responsibilities are to you and his family. You didn't preserve your marriage, you PICKLED it.

DEAR ABBY: A lady with whom I was rather well acquainted passed away last Sunday after a lingering illness, during which time her family was aware of the hopelessness of her condition. The day following her death her two teenage daughters were back in school going about their business as usual, never indicating their loss or sorrow in any way.

Their friends and teachers were shocked at this apparent lack of feeling. Am I wrong to feel that they should have stayed at home for the one day between their mother's death and her funeral, or have times changed?

OUT OF IT AT 45

DEAR OUT: How other people bear their personal problems, react to their losses, or show their grief should not concern you. Save your moral yardstick for measuring your own behavior.

DEAR ABBY: I am a man, 58 who is considering marrying a 38-year-old divorcee who has a 13-year-old boy.

All the men I have talked to who have married women with teen-agers have told me that if they had to do it over again, they wouldn't do it. Expense is not a factor. What is your advice?

NEGATIVE

DEAR NEGATIVE: I, too, am negative, but only because you are. Were you to marry this woman and there be discord between you, the boy would be the innocent victim. He deserves better.

DEAR ABBY: Last night something happened to me that is really worth writing home about. I have no home, so I am writing to you because I just have to tell somebody.

I am a cook in a restaurant. A gentleman came back in the kitchen and handed me a $10 bill, saying, "I want to thank you for one of the best meals I have ever had." Abby, it wasn't the $10 I appreciated as much as his kindness in wanting the

Try this tasty tomato treat. Combine 2 shredded wheat biscuits, crumbled, 1/2 cup of grated cheese and 2 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine. Halve 4 tomatoes. Place about 2 tablespoons of mixture on each tomato half. Bake in pre-heated 350-degree oven or camping reflector oven about 15 minutes or until cheese melts. Makes 4 servings.

Count on baking cupcakes in a moderate oven (350 or 375 degrees) for 20 to 30 minutes.

Use Drapery Hooks In Rugs When Hanging Out To Dry

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

Your useful nylon net is wonderful for cleaning bathroom bowls, or for use as a tub scrubber, when you use a staple gun to attach a large pompon of it to the end of an old plunger handle.

You can buy the net to match your bathroom and paint the plunger handle accordingly, so that it is not the usual eye-sore. Also, it is more sanitary as you can rinse it out with boiling water without fear of damaging bristles or plastic handle as on a regular brush.

Mrs. W. E. Liberge

Dear Heloise:

When I wash heavy throw rugs, I usually break two or three clothespins trying to hang them up.

The idea came to me to use drapery hooks instead of clothespins, by inserting the hooks along one edge of the rug. I did and it worked like a charm.

Pat Golas

Dear Heloise:

Ever wonder what to do with your nylons that have had their drive?

Use them to tie bundled-up newspapers for that paper drive.

Lay one stocking on the floor, pile up the newspapers in a stack about 12 inches high, and tie tightly with the stocking. (It stretches.)

Flip over the stack and tie with a second stocking, crossing the first one. Tie a triple knot in each.

The stockings will not break, the papers stay put, and are easy to carry.

Helen Martin

Dear Heloise:

I have found an easy way to clean egg beaters.

By using a bottle brush, the job is done in a jiffy and with little effort.

Eleanor Brown

Thank you, Eleanor, for giving us the easy solution for cleaning those tricky gadgets in jig-time.

The bottle brush is smaller around so gets into the beaters much better than a vegetable brush.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

At last I've found a use for the stack of paper grocery bags I have.

My house is so arranged that I cannot detour after shampooing the rugs.

I open those bags, put them down one side, cut out the double reinforced bottom and discard it. I lay them on the rug and have a long strip of clean paper to walk on.

Several of these protect the rugs while drying. (Newspapers good as the printers' ink comes off on the rugs while damp.)

L. S. S.

Dear Heloise:

I clip the envelopes of package mixes together with a clip type clothes pin near the top of the envelopes.

1/2 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 pounds lean beef round or chuck, cut into large, bite-sized pieces
6 slices bacon
2 cloves garlic, finely minced
2 tablespoons butter, warmed
12 small whole fresh mushrooms
1 cup condensed beef bouillon
1 1/2 cups dry red wine
12 small white onions
12 small carrots, sliced
6 slightly bruised peppercorns
4 whole cloves
1 bay leaf, crumbled
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1/4 teaspoon dried marjoram leaves
1/4 teaspoon dried thyme leaves

The day before: Mix flour, salt and pepper in a paper or plastic bag. Add a few pieces of beef at a time and shake until well coated. In a large skillet cook bacon over moderate heat until lightly browned but not crisp. Drain bacon and cut into 1-inch pieces. Place bacon in a 3-quart casserole. Add garlic to bacon fat in skillet and cook until tender. Add beef and cook over moderate heat until browned, turning frequently. Pour brandy over meat and ignite with a match. When flame goes out, remove meat and garlic and place in the casserole. Add mushrooms to skillet and brown lightly; place in casserole. Mix bouillon and 1 cup of the red wine in skillet and bring to a boil. Stir to loosen meat particles. Pour into casserole. Add onions, carrots, peppercorns, cloves, bay leaf, parsley, marjoram and thyme to the casserole. Add remaining 1/2 cup red wine. Cover tightly. Heat oven to 300 degrees F. (low).

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: After 14 years of marriage, my husband asked me for a divorce. I am 34 and have no training for any kind of job. Besides, I knew that no matter what kind of alimony he said he'd pay, he'd never keep up with the payments, so I decided that in order to preserve our marriage I'd agree to certain things.

Their friends and teachers were shocked at this apparent lack of feeling. Am I wrong to feel that they should have stayed at home for the one day between their mother's death and her funeral, or have times changed?

DEAR OUT: How other people bear their personal problems, react to their losses, or show their grief should not concern you. Save your moral yardstick for measuring your own behavior.

DEAR ABBY: I am a man, 58 who is considering marrying a 38-year-old divorcee who has a 13-year-old boy.

All the men I have talked to who have married women with teen-agers have told me that if they had to do it over again, they wouldn't do it. Expense is not a factor. What is your advice!

NEGATIVE

DEAR NEGATIVE: I, too, am negative, but only because you are. Were you to marry this woman and there be discord between you, the boy would be the innocent victim. He deserves better.

DEAR ABBY: Last night something happened to me that is really worth writing home about. I have no home, so I am writing to you because I just have to tell somebody.

I am a cook in a restaurant. A gentleman came back in the kitchen and handed me a $10 bill, saying, "I want to thank you for one of the best meals I have ever had." Abby, it wasn't the $10 I appreciated as much as his kindness in wanting the

Try this tasty tomato treat. Combine 2 shredded wheat biscuits, crumbled, 1/2 cup of grated cheese and 2 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine. Halve 4 tomatoes. Place about 2 tablespoons of mixture on each tomato half. Bake in pre-heated 350-degree oven or camping reflector oven about 15 minutes or until cheese melts. Makes 4 servings.

Count on baking cupcakes in a moderate oven (350 or 375 degrees) for 20 to 30 minutes.

Clutch Serves As Handy Little Bag

By FLORENCE DE SANTIS

The clutch is a handy little bag, especially when it's a fold-over that can expand as needed. Enger-Kress has been making them for a long time in all sorts of fabrics, colors and patterns.

For fall they have a winner in fur. Their Little Grab Bags, as they call their clutches, are now in stenciled leopard, black monkey fur or fluffy red fox.

They are a great accent for daytime suits in the leopard or fox, for cocktail and evening dresses in the monkey fur, and they're already being snatched up everywhere as a new delightful fad.

Seminar Set For Monroe In November

Eight specific legal areas will be discussed at a one-day seminar here Friday, November 4. The seminar is sponsored by the committee on Continuing Professional Education of the Louisiana State Bar Association.

Jesse D. McDonald of Monroe, chairman of the committee, said that seminar topics will include: insurance and workmen's compensation, common use of trusts in wills, jurisdictional problems in divorce cases, Louisiana mineral law, cross examination of medical witnesses, title problems from tax sales, the law of negligence, and current developments in the law of trusts, estates, probate and immovable property.

Lecturers are Richard H. Switzer, Kenneth R. H. and Thomas A. Harrell, all of Shreveport, and Ewell P. Walther, Jr. of New Orleans. All are attorneys.

The program marks the second annual Continuing Professional Education seminar for lawyers in Northeast Louisiana. The program, approved by the House of Delegates of the bar association, is designed to assist lawyers in keeping current on recent developments in Louisiana law, McDonald said.

New Orleans Pair Robs Two Clerks

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A man in a big white car blocked off a street and two accomplices took $7,125 from two clerks driving to their grocery from a bank here Friday.

Joseph Suhor, 17, told police he and a fellow clerk were driving on the 800 block of Desire Street when a man blocked the way with a large sedan.

Two other men approached his car, Suhor said, and one opened the door and ordered: "Give me the bag." Suhor said he tried to push away the man on his side of the car but his friend, Ashton Donbe, 20, said, "He's got a gun on you."

One gunman grabbed the keys from Suhor's car and drove quickly away with his two partners.

Evolution In Education Is Discussed

GRAMBLING (Special) — Dr. Regina Goff, assistant commissioner, Office of Disadvantaged and Handicapped, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C., delivered the main address at the 16th annual conference of the Louisiana State Bar Association Friday morning at Grambling College.

Speaking on the topic, "Challenge Through Federal Legislation for In-Service Education of Teachers," Dr. Goff said that the cultural evolution and quest for knowledge is on, and the federal government has given over $76 million to this end to schools across the country.

The former college professor cited poor teaching methods as one of education's woes. Awareness of the shortcomings prompted the federal government to make massive efforts in its various aids to education. The assistant commissioner also suggested the initiation of effective in-service programs and the increased use of demonstration technique equipment such as opaque projectors and tape recorders as helpful aids in the teaching process.

She added that although the national government was making efforts to aid education, the final effort still rests on the home front with the teachers, supervisors and the local school systems.

The new official was formally welcomed by Grambling President R. W. E. Jones.

The morning session concluded with a demonstration of the use of the multi-sensory media and their use in instruction.

The demonstration was headed by Roy B. Moss, head, Grambling audio-visual aids center.

The afternoon session featured group discussions on various methods of improving the child's learning process, the deep implications of special federal education programs such as Headstart, National Defense Education Act institutes, Upward Bound and experienced teacher programs.

Dr. Robert W. Hunter, dean,

Division of Education, presided over the afternoon proceedings with J. K. Haynes, executive secretary, member of Louisiana Higher Education Assistance Commission, presenting the projections.

Dr. Helen Richards, head, elementary education at Grambling, was chairman of the planning committee.

Dr. Robert W. Hunter, dean,

Parking Meters
LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — One hundred seventy-five new parking meters have been installed in the downtown area of Lake Providence, according to city officials.
The meters are being purchased on a rental basis of $1.50 per meter per month from Rockwell Manufacturing Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., with a total cost price of $10,150 minus $875 trade-in allowance for the old meters.
The finishing process of resetting posts and painting is being done by the Town Street Department.

Undergoing Training
JONESVILLE (Special) — Seaman Recruit Frankie L. Bass, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bass of Jonesville is undergoing nine weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego, Calif.
He is receiving instructions in Naval customs, courtesies and organization, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, shipboard drills and sentry duty.
A program of physical fitness, military drill and inspections keeps the recruits mentally and physically alert during their training.
His Navy Classification tests will determine whether he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship after his graduation.

Featured Speaker
LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — David L. Foil, Alexandria, district governor of Rotary International, will be featured speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the Lake Providence Rotary Club on Wednesday.

To Attend Meet

Children Benefit
HOMER (Special) — Eighteen Claiborne Parish children with educational handicaps benefitted from state-supported educational services during the year 1965-66, State Superintendent of Education, William J. Dodd, noted this week. They were members of a class for children classified as mentally retarded.
The class was operated by the Claiborne Parish School Board, which was reimbursed by the State Department of Education under terms of legislation adopted in 1964. This class is but one example of the interest which Louisianians are taking in the special requirements of exceptional children, Dodd said.

Seminar Set For Monroe In November

Eight specific legal areas will be discussed at a one-day seminar here Friday, November 4. The seminar is sponsored by the committee on Continuing Professional Education of the Louisiana State Bar Association.

Jesse D. McDonald of Monroe, chairman of the committee, said that seminar topics will include: insurance and workmen's compensation, common use of trusts in wills, jurisdictional problems in divorce cases, Louisiana mineral law, cross examination of medical witnesses, title problems from tax sales, the law of negligence, and current developments in the law of trust estates, probate and immovable property.

Lecturers are Richard H. Switzer, Kenneth Rigby, and Thomas A. Harrell, all of Shreveport, and Ewell P. Walter, Jr. of New Orleans. All are attorneys.

The program marks the second annual Continuing Professional Education seminar for lawyers in Northeast Louisiana. The program, approved by the House of Delegates of the bar association, is designed to assist lawyers in keeping current on recent developments in Louisiana law, McDonald said.

Parking Meters

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — One hundred seventy-five new parking meters have been installed in the downtown area of Lake Providence, according to city officials.

The meters are being purchased on a rental basis of $1.50 per meter per month from Rockwell Manufacturing Co., Pittsburg, Pa., with a total cost price of $10,150 minus $875 trade-in allowance for the old meters.

The finishing process of re-setting posts and painting is being done by the Town Street Department.

Undergoing Training

JONESVILLE (Special) — Seaman recruit Frankie L. Bass, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bass of Jonesville is undergoing nine weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center in San Diego, Calif.

He is receiving instructions in Naval customs, courtesies and organization, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, shipboard drills and sentry duty.

A program of physical fitness, military drill and inspections keeps the recruits mentally and physically alert during their training.

His Navy Classification tests will determine whether he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship after his graduation.

Featured Speaker

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — David L. Foil, Alexandria, district governor of Rotary International, will be featured speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the Lake Providence Rotary Club on Wednesday.

To Attend Meet

JONESBORO (Special) — Among the lay members to attend the Louisiana Conference Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information Workshop at the Ramada Inn in Alexandria today will be Raymond Jeffress of Jonesboro First Methodist Church.

Children Benefit

HOMER (Special) — Eighteen Claiborne Parish children with educational handicaps benefitted from state-supported educational services during the year 1965-66, State Superintendent of Education, William J. Dodd, noted this week. They were members of a class for children classified as mentally retarded.

The class was operated by the Claiborne Parish School Board, which was reimbursed by the State Department of Education under terms of legislation adopted in 1964. This class is but one example of the interest which Louisianaans are taking in the special requirements of exceptional children, Dodd said.

Revival Services

WINNFIELD (Special) — Revival services will begin Monday at South Winnfield Baptist Church where Rev. D. L. Calender is pastor.

Evangelist for these services will be Rev. Curtis Rozelle, pastor of Mill Creek Baptist Church.

Services will begin at 7 p.m. each night through Sunday Oct. 30.

Stock Mart Has Small Gains; Trading Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market wallowed in a mixed pattern Friday with the averages making small gains but declines exceeded advances. Trading was moderate.

The tone improved as the session wore on but the result wasn't strong enough for a clear-cut decision on the upside.

Some analysts said the market might have taken note of a recommendation by a Presidential panel of business men and labor leaders of tax increases for individuals and corporations if President Johnson's proposed $3 billion cut in Federal spending in fiscal 1967 isn't enough to take care of the Vietnam war and key domestic programs.

One analyst noted that there were a few conspicuous soft spots but found encouragement from the standpoint that there was no real extension of the weakness.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials advanced 3.62 to 787.30, closing at its best level of the day. The Industrial Average of 200 stocks advanced 2.2 to 284.3 with Industrials up 1.3, rails off 3 and utilities off 1.3.

Standard & Poor's 500-stock index, which represents 85 percent of the quoted value of all stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, gained .35 at 781.39. The New York Stock Exchange common stock index was up $0.15 at $42.07.

Of 1,396 issues traded, 608 declined and 529 advanced. There were 49 new 1966 lows and 4 new highs.

Volume fell to 5.69 million shares.

Among the 15 most active stocks, nine advanced, four declined. Xerox and SCM were unchanged.

Eastern Air Lines, off 3 1/2 at 59 1/4 on 242,600 shares, was the most active stock. Control Data, off 2 1/4 at 24 1/4, also was heavily traded.

KLM Royal Dutch Air Lines recovered 3 1/4. KLM had announced it would issue $14 million of new common stock.

Ling-Temco-Vought, which offered to buy 1 million of its common shares for cash and stock worth $50 a share, advanced 7 1/2 to 48 1/4.

Rubbers, nonferrous metals, oils and drugs advanced.

Goodrich gained 1 1/4 and Good-year added 1 1/4. American Smelting advanced 1 1/4 and Anaconda was up by the same amount. Texaco gained 2 and Royal Dutch was up 1 1/4. Schering was ahead by 3 1/4.

Steels were mixed with Jones & Laughlin up 1/2 and U.S. Steel ahead 3/4 while Bethlehem and Republic were off 1/4.

General Motors advanced 1/4 and Ford, Chrysler and American Motors were unchanged.

The mixed pattern prevailed among aircrafts with Boeing up 1/4 and Douglas Dynamics off 1/4 and United up 1/4.

The electronics were mostly off. Zenith dropping 1 1/4 and Sperry Rand losing 1/4.

American Telephone gained 1/4 and Consolidated Natural Gas lost 1/4.

Anaconda and American Smelting advanced 1/4.

Eastman Kodak gained 1/4 and du Pont and Union Carbide lost 1/4.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. The Exchange's index declined $0.10 to $12.49. Volume edged up to 1.17 million shares.

Paddington advanced more than 2 points. Fractional gains were made by Kaweco Chemical, Paddington and Syntex. Small losses were taken by Morr-Oliver, Edo and Technicolor.

Corporate bonds advanced slightly.

Trading On Grain Mart

Is General

CHICAGO (AP) — Selling became fairly general in the grain futures market in late trading and nearly all contracts sold under previous closes.

Corn still held small gains but wheat and rye had become weak and soybeans mostly slightly easier. Brokers said the offerings appeared to have represented some profit cashing for the weekend.

The early commercial support which dealers supposed included some for export accounts virtually ceased after mid-session, however, it was described as only moderate at best.

Wheat was 1/2 to 1 cent a bushel lower, December $1.73 1/4-1/2; corn 1/4 to 3/8 higher, December $1.36-35 1/2; oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, December 75 1/2 cents; rye 1/4 to 1/2 lower, December $1.22; soybeans 1/4 to 1/8 lower, November $2.95 1/2-97.

Food Sales

Up In Dixie 12 Per Cent

ATLANTA (AP) — The Commerce Department reported Friday food sales in the South increased 12 per cent during the first half of this year as compared with the same period last year.

Food sales were up from $8.48 billion to $9.47 billion, the department's regional office said.

A 12 per cent gain was reported for all food sales, including those in grocery stores.

Shreveport Man Killed By Smoke

EL CERRITO, Calif. (AP) — Smoke inhalation caused the death of Emmet O. Foster, 47, of Shreveport, La., police said Friday.

Investigators reported Foster apparently fell asleep with a cigarette in his hand at an El Cerrito hotel Thursday.

WAYS TO SERVE others are discussed by these officers of Altrusa International who are in Monroe for the 12th Annual District Four Conference currently being held at the Frances Hotel. Discussing the theme "Women's Work Opens World Doors" are (left) Mrs. Summer Hunt, district

Monroe Woman Given Grant By Altrusa

Mrs. Dorothy Snodgrass of Ala., and Mrs. Mable McKinney spoke on the Founders Fund. Activities today will be climaxed with a Governor's Banquet at 7:45 p.m. and the conference will windup Sunday with a meeting of the board of directors at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Snodgrass was trained under the program as a practical nurse.

She was recognized at a buffet held at the Frances Hotel room on the theme, "Women's Work Opens World Doors." The session climaxed the second day of events of the 12th annual conference of the Fourth District composed of Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Former Louisiana gov. Jimmy Davis and the Plainsman Quartet entertained at the meeting.

Speakers included Mrs. Lessie Gardner, Shreveport, international committee member on the formation of youth clubs by Altrusa.

Mrs. Gardner said that the name Altrusa Club had been selected for such groups. The letters stand for ability, service, training, responsibility and achievement.

Mrs. Edith Harper, Memphis, Tenn., a public relations woman and chairman of the international committee for celebrating the group's golden anniversary next year outlined plans for activities for individual chapters.

Mrs. Charlotte Rhett, Biloxi, Miss., outlined the recent activities of the organization's grants in aid for foreign students.

Mrs. Irene Jones, Huntsville, represented at the annual convention of the Louisiana State Nurses Association scheduled to open Monday in New Orleans will be the Monroe District Nurses Association, with 10 delegates.

The convention, headquartered at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel, will continue through Friday.

Local delegates will represent all phases of nursing activities.

The delegates will be: Public Health section, Mrs. Thelma Applewhite, Mrs. Jody Bergeron and Mrs. Frank Berry; EACT section, Miss Carol Lee Gartin; General Duty, Mrs. Inez Larkin and Miss Jeanne A. Short; Private Duty, Mrs. Edith Farris and Miss Geneva Cascio; and NSA section, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkham.

Miss Josephine Cascio, president of the Monroe District Nurses Association, will attend, representing the entire district.

Mrs. Jimmy Blasengame and Sister Bridgida, both board members at large of the state association, will also attend.

Scheduled for the agenda of the meeting are reports on actions taken at the American Nursing Association in June; reports from officers, section and committee chairmen; and voting on proposed changes in the LSNA by-laws, along with the adoption of current and long-term goals for the year 1966-67.

Several Monroe area people will present papers at the convention. Dr. Gallagher, chairman of the intersectional committee as well as chairman of the EACT section for the LSNA, will give two talks. These will be on "The Maturity of the House of Delegates" and "Report on the Actions Taken by the EACT Section of the American Nurses Association at the ANA Convention in June."

The latter paper will be presented to the House of Delegates.

International Gains Noted For Quarter

NEW YORK (Special) — Sales and earnings of the International Paper Companies during the third quarter continued to gain over the previous year reaching record levels for the period, it has been announced by Edward B. Hinman, president and chief executive officer.

New earnings for the third quarter rose to $24,183,905 (53 cents a share), a gain of 13 percent over third quarter earnings in 1965 of $21,518,728 (48 cents a share), Mr. Hinman reported.

For the nine months, net earnings amounted to $75,073,492 ($1.71 a share), an increase of 26 percent over 1965 earnings for the nine-month period of $59,566,526 ($1.35 a share).

Third quarter sales amounted to $260,175,241, up nine percent over the 1965 period when sales were $230,059,990. Nine months' sales by the companies this year exceeded $1-billion for the first time, reaching a total of $1,080,177,134, an increase of 13 percent over the first nine months of 1965, when sales totaled $959,498,770.

For the year 1965, nine months' earnings reflected the impact of the strike in the companies' southern mills. Nine months' earnings a year ago also included five cents a share from sale of Longview Fibre Company stock, of which two cents a share fell in the third quarter.

"Operations are continuing at near capacity levels reflecting high demand in almost every segment of the companies' operations," Mr. Hinman reported to the companies' shareholders. "As we move into the fourth quarter, indications are that the present high rate of economic activity will continue for the balance of the year and that our companies will continue to enjoy good volume."

West Monroe First Phase Is Approved

The first phase of a state project to improve drainage in West Monroe has been given approval, Mayor W. B. (Bert) Hatten said Friday. The work will center in the areas of South Fifth, Coleman, Lindenmen and Filhiol Avenue on the southside, and Stella and Mill streets.

The work consists of installing larger drainage facilities. Hatten said West Monroe's drainage problem was being aggravated by construction on Interstate Hwy. 20, thus prompting the state action. He added the work was confirmed Friday by Gov. John J. McKeithen's office.

"I am pleased with the good cooperation of the governor's office and Sen. (Jamar) Adcock after we contacted them on this problem," Hatten said. "They responded promptly to expedite the initial project approval."

reservoir created thereby would be known as the John H. Overton Reservoir in honor of the late U.S. Sen. John H. Overton of Louisiana.

The approval of this authorization will mark the real beginning of this project which has been pending for almost half a century. I am anxious to see some definite progress," he said.

State May Have Case On Barber

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A 26-year-old Baton Rouge barber, under federal charges of attempting to bribe three Louisiana State University first string football players, may also face state charges.

East Baton Rouge Parish Dist. Atty. Sargent Pitcher has arranged a conference this weekend with U.S. Atty. Louis LaCour to discuss possible state charges.

Pitcher said Thursday LaCour would be his guest at the University of Florida-LSU football game here tonight.

The barber, Samuel Joseph Graziano, waived a preliminary hearing before a U.S. commissioner here earlier this week and was released on $5,000 bond on the federal charges.

Pitcher said he was unfamiliar with the case details and would decide whether to place it before the parish grand jury after he talks to LaCour.

The federal bribery law carries a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

LSU Head Football Coach Charles McClendon said the three players, halfbacks Billy Masters, and Jim Dousay and fullback Gawn DiBetta will aid the FBI in the investigation.

Permits For Construction Noted Here

Monroe building permits totaling $17,250 were approved by the Building Inspection Office during the third week in October, according to Dale B. Martha, coordinator of city building, electricity and plumbing.

Subtotals for the building projects were: residential building, $44,250; residential additions and alterations, 1,750; and moved buildings, $1,250.

Permits were issued for the following projects:

Residential building — Vina Mae James, frame storage room, 200 North 23rd Street; Fred Walker, 3094 Vendelle Circle, and The Salvation Army, brick residence, 814 Rimes Circle West.

Residential alterations and additions — Odessa Mack, 4108 Gaston; Mrs. Alma McGee, 1411 North 2nd Street, and Minnie Robinson, 4107 Curry Street.

Move Structures — Better Homes Realty, move frame residence from 2700 DeSiard to 3812 Cooper; Josephine Falletto, move frame residences from 508 Stone, 510 Stone and 512 Sonte to 407½ N. 16th, 411 N. 16th and 413 N. 16th; and Odessa Mack, move frame residence from 202 S. 6th to 4108 Gaston.

Tallulah Negro Asks For Writ

SHREVEPORT (Special) — Zelma C. Wyche, Tallulah Negro, has applied in the Monroe Division of Federal District Court here for a writ of habeas corpus in the civil division, while in the criminal division his plea for removal of his case has been turned down.

He had earlier asked that charges of simple battery against him in the Sixth Judicial District Court be removed to federal court. Judge Ben C. Dawkins Jr. Thursday remanded the case to the state court.

The executive secretary-director of the Louisiana Association of Christian Churches, Dr. Ross Allen, will be speaker at a joint meeting of the Christian Men's Fellowship of St. John's Church and First Christian Church of Monroe 7 p.m. Thursday.

The dinner meeting will take place in the fellowship hall of St. John's Church, Forsythe at Westminster.

Uncertain Peace Returns To Oakland's Negro Area

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — An uncertain peace returned to a predominantly Negro neighborhood Friday and a school boycott blamed for causing three days of sporadic violence suffered a setback.

No incidents were reported at Castlemont High School, where violence erupted Wednesday when about 250 rampaging Negro truants and nonstudents roughed up five teachers and three white students.

About 800 secondary and high school students — mostly Negroes — who stayed away from schools Friday in the boycott movement, were turned away when they showed up at the nearby University of California Berkeley campus to attend a "freedom school."

Police were cautiously optimistic that the unrest was ended. They notified off-duty officers to keep themselves available for call-backs.

Officials hoped the calm meant an end of the unexplained vandalism and violence of Wednesday and Thursday.

Since the outbreak at Castlemont on Wednesday, there had been five arson-caused fires — most of them set by gasoline bombs — 35 false alarms, 88 incidents of vandalism and 64 arrests.

Students who were denied use of UC classrooms were participating in the last day of a three-day boycott called by the Ad Hoc Committee for quality education.

This committee — headed by Oakland Negro attorney John George — has been accused of causing the disorder.

George has labeled the accusations as "blatant intimidation." He says the Ad Hoc committee, formed last April, represents nearly 30 organizations, including ministers, neighborhood groups, a Spanish-speaking advisory committee and the Congress of Racial Equality.

He said the committee demands changes of boundary lines to eliminate de facto segregation and the establishment of "educational parks" — clusters of elementary, junior and high schools to draw pupils from low income sectors to better areas. The group also seeks a guarantee that when police discipline students the parents be present.

About 700 students attended George's freedom schools on Wednesday. Thursday's attendance was lower.

United Fund Report Is Given Here

United Giver's Fund workers reported Friday at their weekly luncheon report meeting, the collection in the 1966-67 campaign of $164,896, or 55.8 percent of this year's $295,482 goal.

Fund President J. C. "Mose" Loftin compiled and released the figures at the noon meeting at the Holiday Inn, calling for a concerted effort among workers to complete their contacts and bring the drive to a successful conclusion.

Charles Bird is the current campaign's general chairman. In individual drive units, Loftin released these breakdowns:

Monroe Area — $115,803.04 collected, or 58.4 percent of a $198,333 goal.

West Monroe Area — $27,690 collected, or 43.5 percent of a $63,625 goal.

Sterlington Area — $4,210 collected, or 72.1 percent of a $5,841 goal.

Professional and Individual Gifts Division — $17,102 collected, or 61.7 percent of a $27,683 goal.

Plans will be announced later for the campaign's next report meeting and the drive's victory banquet.

Secretaries Designated At Meeting

Two Monroe secretaries received their designation as Certified Professional Secretaries Friday at a meeting of the National Secretaries Association in Shreveport.

They are Mrs. Helen Timmerman and Mrs. Norma Floyd. Only three persons in Louisiana won the national rating this year. There are a total of 44 in Louisiana with the CPS designation.

Mrs. Timmerman attended the College of the Sacred Heart and the University of Southwestern Louisiana. She is secretary to the vice president of operations of Ford, Bacon and Davis in Monroe and was recently elected treasurer of NSA to be formed here soon.

Mrs. Floyd has been employed at Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. in Monroe since 1959 and is secretary to the personnel assistant of the Forest Products Division of the company. She is a graduate of Texarkana College.

Guest Speaker Slated Here

An Assemblies of God missionary, the Rev. Bernard L. Bresson, will be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. Sunday service at Central Assembly of God Church Hall at Calypso, it was announced by the Rev. Gerald E. Davis Sr., pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Bresson entered the missionary field in 1963, serving as principal of Evangelical High School, an accredited Assemblies of God institution for natives of Nigeria, located in the City of Jos. It was founded five years ago, and all the faculty members, with the exception of the principal, are Nigerians.

In the Sunday service here, the missionary will feature slides of scenes and activities in the mission field, and a display of curios and costumes.

DOCKWORKERS STRIKE LONDON (UPI) — More than 4,000 dock workers were idled Friday in a union jurisdictional dispute.

Fifty-one ships were affected by the walkout and 1,567 fellow dockers were unable to work. The strike was by members of two unions charging each other with placing workers in areas not in their jurisdiction.

PETITE DENISE Marie Gossen of Rayne, La., was crowned Friday Queen of the International Rice Festival at Crowley. Dr. John Bertrand of Acadia Parish presented the young queen her crown. Comedy At Strauss Is Literary Lunacy

By TRAVIS MAYO
World Staff Critic

Friday night at Strauss Playhouse was a frustrating and disappointing time for the technical crew when Roman candles refused to ignite and a basement of explosives refused to boom forth on the recorded sound track, but all the fizzes were technical and a competent cast more than made up for everything.

The Moss Hart-George Kaufman plot was deliberately bawled back in 1936 because a sophisticated treatment of all too painful problems of Depression-ridden people was believed to be the best remedy. Today, however, some of the barbs have lost their sharpness.

One can imagine how they must have rolled in the aisles in '36 when the innocent Donald

Curtis Rape as the hot-under-the-collar income tax investigator makes his stormy exit with convincing furor and the thug-gish Department of Justice men are properly menacing.

Bill Johnson as the boss' son looks the executive and is properly cast as the romantic interest, but is somewhat slow with his lines — a minor flaw that can be blamed on opening night jitters.

Eula Davenport as Penelope is a lovable, effervescent actress who soon wins as many friends off stage as on. Marianne Grasser as the tipsy actress makes her brief scene a lively one.

Don Lomax as Grandpa is best in his pensive moods, seated in his comfortable chair, puffing his pipe and delivering the more witty lines in a convincing style. Willoughby Thomas as Boris is broadly comic and does more than justice for the character.

The play is considerably livened by the sight gags of Henry Haas Jr. and by the well-timed lines of Bill Blythe, the hobbyist and explosive expert. Since much of Act II is humor at the expense of the Depression-age wealthy, Hugh Matthews and Frances Albright as the Kirbys are put through the mill and prove worthy.

WAYS TO SERVE others are discussed by these officers of Altrusa International who are in Monroe for the 12th Annual District Four Conference currently being held at the Frances Hotel. Discussing the theme "Women's Work Opens World Doors" are (left) Mrs. Summer Hunt, district

Monroe Woman Given Grant By Altrusa

Mrs. Dorothy Snodgrass of Monroe was recognized Friday night as a recipient of the Monroe - West Monroe chapter of Altrusa International's Founders Fund grant as the group continued a four-state district conference here.

Mrs. Snodgrass was trained under the program as a practical nurse.

She was recognized at a buffet held at the Frances Hotel on the theme, "Women's Work Opens World Doors." The session climaxed the second day of events of the 12th annual conference of the Fourth District composed of Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Former Louisiana Gov. Jimmy Davis and the Plainsman Quartet entertained at the meeting. Speakers included Mrs. Lessie Gardner, Shreveport, international committee member on the formation of youth clubs by Altrusa.

Mrs. Gardner said that the name Altrusa Club had been selected for such groups. The letters stand for ability, service, training, responsibility and achievement.

Mrs. Edith Harper, Memphis, Tenn., a public relations woman and chairman of the international committee for celebrating the group's golden anniversary next year outlined plans for activities for individual chapters.

Mrs. Charlotte Rhett, Biloxi, Miss., outlined the recent activities of the organization's grants in aid for foreign students.

Monroians Scheduled In New Orleans

Represented at the annual convention of the Louisiana State Nurses Association scheduled to open Monday in New Orleans will be the Monroe District Nurses Association, with 10 delegates.

The convention, headquartered at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel, will continue through Friday.

Local delegates will represent all phases of nursing activities. The delegates will be: Public Health section, Mrs. Thelma Applewhite, Mrs. Jody Bergeron and Mrs. Frank Berry; EACT section, Miss Carol Lee Gard; General Duty, Mrs. Inez Larkin and Miss Jeanne A. Short; Private Duty, Miss Edith Paris and Miss Geneva Cascio; and NSA section, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkham.

Miss Josephine Cascio, president of the Monroe District Nurses Association, will attend, representing the entire district.

Mrs. Jimmy Blasengame and Sister Bridgida, both board members at large of the state association, will also attend.

Scheduled for the agenda of the meeting are reports on actions taken at the American Nursing Association in June; reports from officers, section and committee chairmen; and voting on proposed changes in the LSNA by-laws, along with the adoption of current and long-term goals for the year 1966-67.

Several Monroe area people will present papers at the convention. Dr. Gallagher, chairman of the intersectional committee as well as chairman of the EACT section for the LSNA, will give two talks. These will be on "The Maturity of the House of Delegates" and "Report on the Actions Taken by the EACT Section of the American Nurses Association at the ANA Convention in June." The latter paper will be presented to the House of Delegates.

Miss Gard, chairman of the EACT section of the Monroe District and chairman of the economic security committee of the EACT section of the state, will talk on Minimum Standards set up by the EACT Section of the LSNA on Economic Security.

International Gains Noted For Quarter

NEW YORK (Special) — Sales and earnings of the International Paper Companies during the third quarter continued to gain over the previous year reaching record levels for the period, it has been announced by Edward B. Hinman, president and chief executive officer.

New earnings for the third quarter rose to $24,183,905 (55 cents a share), a gain of 13 per cent over third quarter earnings in 1965 of $21,318,728 (48 cents a share), Mr. Hinman reported. For the nine months, net earnings amounted to $75,073,492 ($1.71 a share), an increase of 26 per cent over 1965 earnings for the nine-month period of $59,566,526 ($1.35 a share).

Third quarter sales amounted to $360,178,241, up nine per cent over the 1965 period when sales were $330,059,990. Nine months' sales by the companies this year exceeded $1-billion for the first time, reaching a total of $1,080,177,134, an increase of 13 per cent over the first nine months of 1965, when sales totaled $959,498,770.

For the year 1965, nine months' earnings reflected the impact of the strike in the companies' southern mills. Nine months' earnings a year ago also included five cents a share from sale of Longview Fibre Company stock, of which two cents a share fell in the third quarter.

"Operations are continuing at near capacity levels reflecting high demand in almost every segment of the companies' operations," Mr. Hinman reported to the companies' shareholders. "As we move into the fourth quarter, indications are that the present high rate of economic activity will continue for the balance of the year and that our companies will continue to enjoy good volume."

West Monroe First Phase Is Approved

The first phase of a state project to improve drainage in West Monroe has been given approval, Mayor W. B. (Bert) Hatten said Friday. The work will center in the areas of South Fifth, Coleman, Lindermen and Filhiol Avenue on the southside, and Stella and Mill streets.

The work consists of installing larger drainage facilities.

Hatten said West Monroe's drainage problem was being aggravated by construction on Interstate Hwy. 20, thus prompting the state action. He added the work was confirmed Friday by Gov. John J. McKeithen's office.

"I am pleased with the good cooperation of the governor's office and Sen. (Jamar) Adcock after we contacted them on this problem," Hatten said. "They responded promptly to expedite the initial project approval."

reservoir created thereby would be known as the John H. Overton Reservoir in honor of the late U.S. Sen. John H. Overton of Louisiana.

"The approval of this authorization will mark the real beginning of this project which has been pending for almost half a century. I am anxious to see some definite progress," he said.

State May Have Case On Barber

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A 26-year-old Baton Rouge barber, under federal charges of attempting to bribe three Louisiana State University first string football players, may also face state charges.

East Baton Rouge Parish Dist. Atty. Sargent Pitcher has arranged a conference this weekend with U.S. Atty. Louis LaCour to discuss possible state charges.

Pitcher said Thursday LaCour would be his guest at the University of Florida-LSU football game here tonight.

The barber, Samuel Joseph Graziano, waived a preliminary hearing before a U.S. commissioner here earlier this week and was released on $5,000 bond on the federal charges.

Pitcher said he was unfamiliar with the case details and would decide whether to place it before the parish grand jury after he talks to LaCour.

The federal bribery law carries a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

LSU Head Football Coach Charles McClendon said the three players, halfbacks Billy Masters, and Jim Dousay and fullback Gawayn DiBetta will aid the FBI in the investigation.

Permits For Construction Noted Here

Monroe building permits totaling $47,250 were approved by the Building Inspection Office during the third week in October, according to Dale B. Martha, coordinator of city building, electricity and plumbing.

Subtotals for the building projects were: residential building, $44,250; residential additions and alterations, 1,750; and moved buildings, $1,250.

Permits were issued for the following projects:

Residential building — Vina Mae James, frame storage room, 200 North 23rd Street; Fred Walker, 3604 Vondelle Circle, and The Salvation Army, brick residence, 814 Rimes Circle West.

Residential alterations and additions — Odessa Mack, 4108 Gaston; Mrs. Alma McGee, 1411 North 2nd Street, and Minnie Robinson, 4107 Curry Street.

Move structures — Better Homes Realty, move frame residence from 2700 DeSiard to 3812 Cooper; Josephine Falletto, move frame residences from 508 Stone, 510 Stone and 512 Sonté to 407½ N. 16th, 411 N. 16th and 413 N. 16th; and Odessa Mack, move frame residence from 202 S. 6th to 4108 Gaston.

Tallulah Negro Asks For Writ

SHREVEPORT (Special) — Zelma C. Wyche, Tallulah Negro, has applied in the Monroe Division of Federal District Court here for a writ of habeas corpus in the civil division, while in the criminal division his plea for removal of his case has been turned down.

He had earlier asked that charges of simple battery against him in the Sixth Judicial District Court be removed to federal court. Judge Ben C. Dawkins Jr. Thursday remanded the case to the state court.

Uncertain Peace Returns To Oakland's Negro Area

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — An uncertain peace returned to a predominantly Negro neighborhood Friday and a school boycott blamed for causing three days of sporadic violence suffered a setback.

No incidents were reported at Castlemont High School, where violence erupted Wednesday when about 250 rampaging Negro truants and nonstudents roughed up five teachers and three white students.

About 800 secondary and high school students — mostly Negroes — who stayed away from schools Friday in the boycott movement, were turned away when they showed up at the nearby University of California Berkeley campus to attend a "freedom school."

Police were cautiously optimistic that the unrest was ended. They notified off-duty officers to keep themselves available for call-backs.

Officials hoped the calm meant an end of the unexplained vandalism and violence of Wednesday and Thursday.

Since the outbreak at Castlemont on Wednesday, there had been five arson-caused fires — most of them set by gasoline bombs — 35 false alarms, 88 incidents of vandalism and 64 arrests.

Students who were denied use of UC classrooms were participating in the last day of a three-day boycott called by the Ad Hoc Committee for quality education.

This committee — headed by Oakland Negro attorney John George — has been accused of causing the disorder.

George has labeled the accusations as "blatant intimidation." He says the Ad Hoc committee, formed last April, represents nearly 30 organizations, including ministers, neighborhood groups, a Spanish-speaking advisory committee and the Congress of Racial Equality.

He said the committee demands changes of boundary lines to eliminate de facto segregation and the establishment of "educational parks" — clusters of elementary, junior and high schools to draw pupils from low income sectors to better areas. The group also seeks a guarantee that when police discipline students the parents be present.

About 700 students attended George's freedom schools on Wednesday. Thursday's attendance was lower.

Bozo Drops From Sky To Visit Stricken Boy

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP) — A clown named Bozo dropped out of the sky from Boston Friday to visit a little boy named Stephen, and almost everybody in Clifton knew why he was here.

But Stephen Mokis Jr., 6, had no idea that Bozo had come by plane and bus just to visit him. Stephen doesn't even know he has leukemia, a type of cancer.

The mercy mission from Boston brought a hole busload of television performers, producers, directors, technicians and press agents into this woods-surrounded Newark suburb where Stephen lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mokis, and his two little sisters, Donna and Tina.

Stephen's wish to see his favorite television personality in the flesh bloomed into a complete show for 500 pupils at St. Philip's School. Dressed in his best black suit, white shirt and black tie, Stephen sat on Bozo's lap before the show and seemed hardly aware of all the commotion.

All he knew was that for some strange reason his own nose had a squeak in it, just like Bozo's, and in no time at all he had learned Bozo's magic trick of putting a broken fan back together just by saying, "Ozo-Bozo-kazam-kazoo!"

Stephen's parents learned two years ago that he had leukemia. He has been going to Memorial Hospital in New York for treatment, sometimes five times a week, a trip which takes from one to two hours each way.

But he has only spent about four weeks as a hospital patient.

"He's been able to lead a fairly normal life," his father said. "He's been able to go to school, except on the days when he has to go into the hospital."

"Most of the time he's been able to play outdoors with the other kids. Every now and then the doctors advise against it because of his low resistance to disease."

Mrs. Mokis originally hoped only that Stephen might see his hero, Bozo, or possibly get a phone call from him. She asked a neighbor, news photographer Anthony Camerano, who talked to a colleague in Boston, who turned out to be Bozo's neighbor.

At first the plans were for Bozo alone to visit the boy. But everyone who heard about Stephen wanted to do something and the scheme mushroomed until the whole show — cast, technicians, producers — decided to make the trip. Northeast Airlines offered the plane.

"I told Stephen there was going to be a Halloween party at the school so he wouldn't get too excited," she said. "I had to tell him something when he saw me baking the cake."

It wasn't too hard to keep the secret, she said, because after two years in a situation like this "you learn to hide your feelings."

Fines Levied In Session Of Court

Charges of driving while intoxicated recurred throughout the day at West Monroe City Court Friday and in all cases the defendants were found guilty and the maximum fines imposed.

Paying fines of $300 on the DWI charge and an additional $25 for reckless driving were Gary W. Park, 18, of Winnboro, William L. Sutton, 47, of 206 Mouton Ave., West Monroe, Mark Lynn Montgomery, 20, of Bossier City and Charlie V. Smith, 22, of Calhoun.

Phil M. Ramshur, 22, of 406 Browning St., West Monroe received a fine of $300 on a charge of aggravated assault. Tried for the same offense, Joe Watkins, 39, of 1240 Hayes St., West Monroe, received a 30-day suspended sentence.

Appearing in court to pay fines for speeding were James E. Moody, 18, of Rt. 3, Box 379, West Monroe, $20; Charles Blanchard, 17, of 102 Navajo Trail, West Monroe, $10; Lee T. Bailes, 40, of Columbia, $10; Marvin W. Elmore, 29, of Choudrant, $20; Jesse W. Trainer, 22, of 212 Moreland Dr., West Monroe, $15; Bobby Turnage, 33, of 602 Splane Dr., West Monroe, $15; and Charles Whitaker, 29, of 110 Winnboro Rd., Monroe.

Paying fines for reckless driving were Earnest Moss, 29, of 103 Richardson Dr., West Monroe, $25; George A. Wiley, 21, of 417 Oakland St., West Monroe, $20; Joy C. Cook, 21, of 309 Drew St., West Monroe, $25; LaVelle T. Paschal, 17, of Rt. 4, Box 462, West Monroe, $25 and Jackie M. Wilson, 19, of 305 Splane St., West Monroe, $25.

10 True Bills Reported By Grand Jury

The Ouachita Parish Grand Jury Friday returned 10 true bills and 14 no true bills of 24 cases reviewed this week.

True bills will be named after arrests are made or bonds posted, sheriff's authorities said.

The grand jury was discharged following inspections of parish and state public facilities.

On E. A. Conway Memorial Hospital, the report read "that in spite of the handicaps and problems created by overcrowded conditions and the lack of adequate facilities and staff," it was found "that the hospital is being maintained by its staff in commendable condition."

The grand jury report also praised Louisiana Training Institute and the Green Oaks Detention Home.

Other facilities meeting approval were the jail extension and parish jail.

Dr. Ross Allen To Speak Here

The executive secretary-director of the Louisiana Association of Christian Churches, Dr. Ross Allen, will be speaker at a joint meeting of the Christian Men's Fellowship of St. John's Christian Church and First Christian Church of Monroe 7 p.m. Thursday.

The dinner meeting will take place in the fellowship hall of St. John's Church, Forsythe at Westminster.

Secretaries Designated At Meeting

Two Monroe secretaries received their designation as Certified Professional Secretaries Friday at a meeting of the National Secretaries Association in Shreveport.

They are Mrs. Helen Timmerman and Mrs. Norma Floyd. Only three persons in Louisiana won the national rating this year. There are a total of 44 in Louisiana with the CPS designation.

Mrs. Timmerman attended the College of the Sacred Heart and the University of Southwestern Louisiana. She is secretary to the vice president of operations of Ford, Bacon and Davis in Monroe and was recently elected treasurer of the new charter chapter of NSA to be formed here soon.

Mrs. Floyd has been employed at Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. in Monroe since 1959 and is secretary to the personnel assistant of the Forest Products Division of the company. She is a graduate of Texarkana College.

Guest Speaker Slated Here

An Assemblies of God missionary, the Rev. Bernard L. Bresson, will be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. Sunday service at Central Assembly of God Church Hall at Calypso, it was announced by the Rev. Gerald E. Davis Sr., pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Bresson entered the missionary field in 1963, serving as principal of Evangel High School, an accredited Assemblies of God institution for natives of Nigeria, located in the City of Jos. It was founded five years ago, and all the faculty members, with the exception of the principal, are Nigerians.

In the Sunday service here, the missionary will feature slides of scenes and activities in the mission field, and a display of curios and costumes.

DOCKWORKERS STRIKE

LONDON (UPI) — More than 4,000 dock workers were idled Friday in a union jurisdictional dispute.

Fifty-one ships were affected by the walkout and 1,567 fellow dockers were unable to work. The strike was by members of two unions charging each other with placing workers in areas not in their jurisdiction.

Comedy At Strauss Is Literary Lunacy

World Staff Critic

Friday night at Strauss Playhouse was a frustrating and disappointing time for the technical crew when Roman candles refused to ignite and a basement of explosives refused to boom forth on the recorded sound track, but all the fizzes were technical and a competent cast more than made up for everything.

The Moss Hart-George Kaufman plot was deliberately banal back in 1936 because a sophisticated treatment of all too painful problems of Depression-ridden people was believed to be the best remedy. Today, however, some of the barbs have lost their sharpness.

One can imagine how they must have rolled in the aisles in '36 when the innocent Donald sion of wisecracks and a wholesome use of theatrical devices and an all-pervading aura of humor.

For followers of little theater dramatics, the settings, lighting and direction of Friday night's play could be held up as a standard for others to try to reach. Staging was done with as much care as one would take in outfitting his own living quarters, that is, if one lived with a family of eccentrics.

Playwrights Hart and Kaufman have conjured a species of dramatic personae which transcends plot and mounts into the realm of the sublimely ridiculous. Every stage clown ever imagined shows up at one time or another during the three acts — the firebug, the batty writer, the rebel 'Russ-shun' and the boyfriend on relief.

Curtis Rape as the hot-under-the-collar income tax investigator makes his stormy exit with convincing furor and the thug-gish Department of Justice men are properly menacing.

Bill Johnson as the boss' son looks like the executive and is properly cast as the romantic interest, but is somewhat slow with his lines — a minor flaw that can be blamed on opening night jitters.

Eula Davenport as Penelope is a lovable, effervescent actress who soon wins as many friends off stage as on. Marianne Grasser as the tipsy actress makes her brief scene a lively one.

Don Lomax as Grandpa is best in his pensive moods, seated in his comfortable chair, puffing his pipe and delivering the more witty lines in a convincing style. Willoughby Thomas as Boris is broadly comic and does more than justice for the character.

The play is considerably lived-by the sight gags of Henry Haas Jr. and by the well-timed lines of Bill Blythe, the hobbyist and explosive expert.

Since much of Act II is humor at the expense of the Depression-age wealthy, Hugh Matthews and Frances Albright as the Kirbys are put through the mill and prove worthy.

Much of the depth of the play depends upon the lovers, portrayed by A. Kay Williams and Bill Johnson. Miss Williams, whether shocked, humiliated, romanced or exasperated, is masterful.

All the members of the irresponsible, carefree household are happy as jaybirds and by the time they gather around the table for the final benediction the audience is carefree too.

STRAUSS PLAYHOUSE: "You Can't Take It With You," stage comedy in three acts by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, originally appearing on Broadway at the Booth Theater in 1926. Little Theater of Monroe production directed and produced by Bill Haddad, Oct. 21, 22, 23, 26 through 29, 1966. Stage manager, C. J. Fontana; Lighting by Mona Brooks; Makeup by Mahari; Sound by Frances Yel-dell; Costumes by Marianne Grasser and Miss Brooks and sets by members of the Theatre School's senior class. The cast:

Penelope Sycamore Eula Davenport
Essie Janet Dawson
Alice Sandra Walker
Rheba Bill Blythe
Mr. DePinna Henry Haas Jr.
Ed John Filhiol
Donald Jack Bailes
Martin Vanderhof Don E. Lomax
Alice A. Kay Williams
Henderson Curtis Rape
Tony Kirby Bill Johnson
Boris Willoughby Thomas
Gay Marianne Grasser
Mr. Kirby Hugh Matthews
Mrs. Kirby Frances Albright

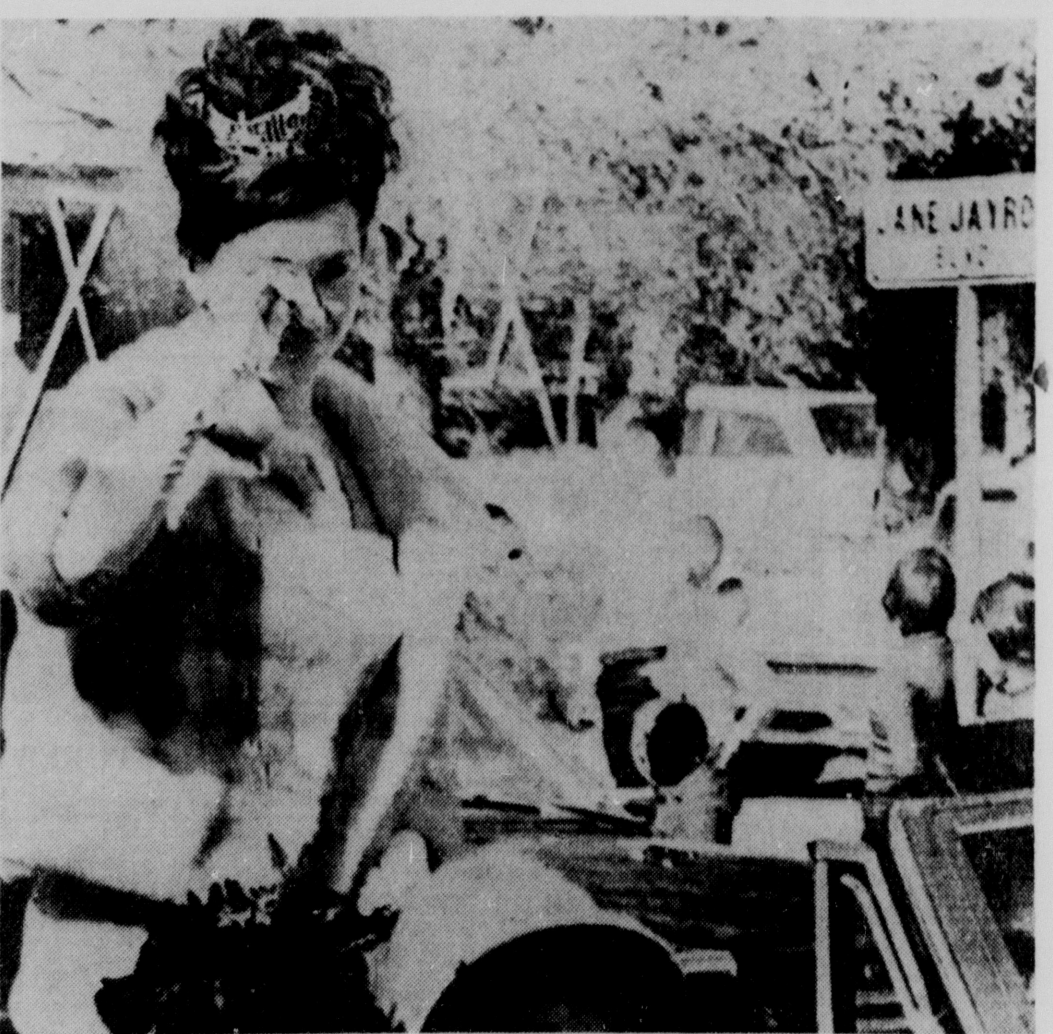

is exploited by the authors as the fall guy for all their pokes at the government's income tax and the W.P.A.

Still, the main idea of the play is timeless and as fresh today as then. Grandpa Vanderhof gets to the core of the play when he says "Go ahead and be what you want to be." He serves as an example of the man who got out of the "rat race" and made the most of life by being himself.

The primary dramatic situation — two young lovers are nearly parted because of their families — is as timeless as "Pyramus & Thisbe" and love is never out of style.

"You Can't Take It With You" has no great dramatic impact and its virtues are grounded in escapism, but what it lacks as tight-knit drama it makes up in individual bits of insight from the grandfather.

For those who like their Hart-Kaufman well roasted, the play offers a crackling success.

Airlines Flooding CAB With New Service Bids

WASHINGTON (AP) — Large and small airlines flooded the Civil Aeronautics Board Friday with proposals for new air services between the Gulf States and the Midwest.

They were responding to a CAB order of Sept. 19 setting up an investigation into the needs for improved airline transportation between the Gulf states and the four major commerce centers of Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, New Orleans, Memphis, Chicago, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, New Orleans, Chicago and Nashville-Chicago.

Some of the applicants urged the board to broaden the investigation to include a number of other important cities.

Western Air Lines, Los Angeles, asked for three routes from Dallas-Fort Worth, to Detroit, Kansas City and St. Louis, and others between Houston and St. Louis, New Orleans and Chicago, Chicago, Memphis, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and St. Antonio.

Western also requested a route between the Twin Cities, St. Louis and New Orleans.

Olin Plant Begins Work In Louisiana

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — A plant capable of making 150,000 tons of high nitrogen fertilizer yearly has begun operations here, the Olin Matheson Chemical Corp. announced Friday.

C. W. Smith, executive vice president for the corporation's chemicals division, said the new plant cost more than $8 million. The plant makes urea prills, which is a high nitrogen fertilizer also used as a high-protein cattle feed supplement. Smith said production from the plant will be used chiefly for agriculture.

The urea plant is the last major building in the $45 million expansion program started last year by Olin at the Lake Charles chemical complex.

State Group Made To Aid Amendment

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A statewide organization opposed to passage of the two-term amendment was formed at a meeting here Friday.

The group elected a steering committee comprised of Claude B. Duval of Houma, Louis J. Michot of Lafayette, Judge James N. Lee of Bunkie and Frank J. Voelker of Lake Providence.

"In our state the governor has vast power," said Duval, chairman of the organization.

"He has complete veto authority over any legislation, and his appointive powers are virtually unrestricted. Passage of the amendment would destroy a constitutional safeguard designed to protect the people against the building of a political machine."

Corporation's New Records Announced

PORTLAND, ORE. (Special) — Georgia-Pacific corporation in the first nine months of 1966 set new records in sales, earnings and cash flow in its way to another all-time peak year in 1966.

It was reported by R. H. Chestnut, chairman, and R. B. Pamplin, president.

Saying that "commercial building and most industrial markets are good, thus more than offsetting the drop in single family housing starts," the executives of the producer of diversified forest products and minerals said that sales for the nine months ended September 30, 1966 rose 18 percent to $503,000,000 from $426,000,000 a year earlier.

Net income went up 10 percent to $39,240,000 equal to $2.06 a common share from $1.89 a share in 1965.

Cash flow increased amounting to $70,080,000 or $4.06 a share, as compared with $63,100,000 or $3.69 a share a year before, or a gain of 12 total percent.

Medies Name Tulane Man As President

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — The Central Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists named Dr. Gordon C. Johnson of Tulane Medical School in New Orleans as its president-elect here Friday.

The chairman of Ob-Gyn department of Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Dr. C. Paul Hodgkinson, was elevated to the presidency.

Dr. Parker Hughes of Des Moines, Iowa, was elected vice president, and Dr. Thomas W. McElin of Evanston, Ill., was picked for a fourth term as secretary-treasurer. Dr. David G. Decker of Rochester, Minn., was re-elected assistant secretary.

Airlines Flooding CAB With New Service Bids

WASHINGTON (AP) — Large and small airlines flooded the Civil Aeronautics Board Friday with proposals for new air services between the Gulf States and the Midwest.

They were responding to a CAB order of Sept. 19 setting up an investigation into the needs for improved airline transportation between the Gulf states and the four major commerce centers of Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, Dallas-Detroit, Houston-St. Louis, San Antonio-Chicago, Memphis-Chicago, New Orleans-Chicago and Nashville-Chicago.

Some of the applicants urged the board to broaden the investigation to include a number of other important cities.

Western Air Lines, Los Angeles, asked for three routes from Dallas-Fort Worth, to Detroit, Kansas City and St. Louis, and others between Houston and St. Louis, New Orleans and Chicago, Chicago, Memphis, Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

Western also requested a route between the Twin Cities, St.

Olin Plant Begins Work In Louisiana

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—A plant capable of making 150,000 tons of high nitrogen fertilizer yearly has begun operations here, the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. announced Friday.

C. W. Smith, executive vice president for the corporation's chemicals division, said the new plant cost more than $8 million. The plant makes urea prills, which is a high nitrogen fertilizer also used as a high-protein cattle feed supplement. Smith said production from the plant will be used chiefly for agriculture.

The urea plant is the last major building in the $45 million expansion program started last year by Olin at the Lake Charles chemical complex.

State Group Made To Aid Amendment

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A statewide organization opposed to passage of the two-term amendment was formed at a meeting here Friday.

The group elected a steering committee comprised of Claude B. Duval of Houma, Louis J. Michot of Lafayette, Judge James N. Lee of Bunkie and Frank J. Voelker of Lake Providence.

"In our state the governor has vast power," said Duval, chairman of the organization.

"He has complete veto authority over any legislation, and his appointive powers are virtually unrestricted. Passage of the amendment would destroy a constitutional safeguard designed to protect the people against the building of a political machine."

Corporation's New Records Announced

PORTLAND, ORE. (Special)—Georgia-Pacific corporation in the first nine months of this year again set new records in sales, earnings and cash flow on its way to another all-time peak year in 1966, it was reported by O. R. Cheatham, chairman, and R. B. Pamplin, president.

Stating that "commercial building and most industrial markets are good, thus more than offsetting the drop in single family housing starts," the executives of the producer of diversified forest products and minerals said that sales for the nine months ended September 30, 1966 rose 18 per cent to $503,000,000 from $426,000,000 a year earlier.

Net income went up 10 per cent to $39,240,000 equal to $2.06 a common share from $35,520,000 or $1.89 a common share in the year ago period. Cash flow increased amounting to $70,980,000 or $4.06 a share, as compared with $63,100,000 or $3.69 a share a year before, or a gain of 12 total per cent.

Medics Name Tulane Man As President

BILOXI, Miss. (AP) — The Central Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists named Dr. Gordon C. Johnson of Tulane Medical School in New Orleans as its president-elect here Friday.

The chairman of Ob-Gyn department of Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, Dr. C. Paul Hodgkinson, was elevated to the presidency.

Dr. Parker Hughes of Des Moines, Iowa, was elected vice president, and Dr. Thomas W. McEllin of Evanston, Ill., was picked for a fourth term as secretary-treasurer. Dr. David G. Decker of Rochester, Minn., was re-elected assistant secretary.

Amendment No. 3 Deals With Debt

By MILO DAKIN
World Staff Writer

The proposed Amendment No. 3 to the state constitution prohibits the incurring of debt or issuance of bonds backed by state taxes, except by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

This legislative act, passed in 1965, would restrict bond issues to capital improvements or to repel invasion or suppress insurrection. It further provides that if a bond issue is for capital improvements, the requested projects must be clearly defined, including the amount of the Quarter-Century Club of International Paper Co.

Survivors include one son, Marshall Byargeon of Vidalia; three daughters, Miss Mary Byargeon, Mrs. Myrtle Ruffield, and Mrs. Margie Warren, all of Bastrop; one brother, Foster Byargeon of Archibald; five sisters, Mrs. Jean Landers and Mrs. Cinderella Thompson, both of Monroe, Mrs. Gladys Taylor of Swartz, Mrs. Mollie Doss of Kilbourne, and Mrs. Katie Montgomery of Bastrop; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Billy Wayne Byargeon, Bobby Lee Byargeon, Billy Gean Byargeon, David Cook, Pete Brumfield, and Edward Warren, Aubra Anthon, and Reagan Randall.

Mrs. Lula Smith

RAYVILLE (Special) — Funeral services for Mrs. Lula Smith, 82, of Rayville, will be held 10 a.m. today at the chapel of Mulhearn Funeral Home here with burial in Rayville Masonic Cemetery.

She died at her residence late Thursday after a long illness.

O. T. Stephenson

BASTROP (Special) — Funeral services for Osborne Thomas Stephenson, 83, Bastrop, will be held 1 p.m. today at Rayville Funeral Service chapel with burial at Friendship Cemetery near Baskin. Mr. Stephenson died of an apparent heart attack Thursday.

money to be used for each. It also requires that each project's order of priority be stated in the act or in a capital budget adopted according to present law.

The constitution at present prohibits the state from issuing bonds except for repelling invasion or suppressing an insurrection, but two methods have been used in the past to issue bonds for other purposes. One is to amend the constitution which must pass the Legislature and approval of the voters. The last such issue was for $60 million under the administration of former governor Jimmie Davis in 1962. The other method used is the creation of special state agencies or commissions with authority to issue bonds. Since 1962 such agencies have been authorized to issue up to $354.5 million in bond principal.

Under this amendment, the public would no longer be required to vote on a bond issue, but by requiring the two-thirds legislative vote, the practice of skirting the constitution by a majority legislative vote would be halted.

The provision listing improvement requests by priority should result in urgent construction being met first. Also by having the full faith and credit of the state behind bonds, instead of special commissions or agencies, as is the case now, the interest rates will generally be lower.

These special agencies and commissions however which have constitutional authority now, would still have bond power without the two-thirds legislative vote.

These special agencies and commissions however which have constitutional authority now, would still have bond power without the two-thirds legislative vote.

Amendment No. 3 Deals With Debt

By MILO DAKIN
World Staff Writer

The proposed Amendment No. 3 to the state constitution prohibits the incurring of debt or issuance of bonds backed by state taxes, except by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

This legislative act, passed in 1965, would restrict bond issues to capital improvements or to repel invasion or suppress insurrection. It further provides that if a bond issue is for capital improvements, the requested projects must be clearly defined, including the amount of the Quarter-Century Club of International Paper Co.

Survivors include one son, Marshall Byargeon of Vidalia; three daughters, Miss Mary Byargeon, Mrs. Myrtle Rumfield, and Mrs. Margie Warren, all of Bastrop; one brother, Foster Byargeon of Archibald; five sisters, Mrs. Jean Landers and Mrs. Cinderella Thompson, both of Monroe, Mrs. Gladys Taylor of Swartz, Mrs. Mollie Doss of Kilbourne, and Mrs. Katie Montgomery of Bastrop; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Billy Wayne Byargeon, Bobby Lee Byargeon, Billy Gean Byargeon, David Cook, Pete Brumfield, and Edward Warren, Aubra Anthon, and Reagan Randall.

Mrs. Lula Smith

RAYVILLE (Special) — Funeral services for Mrs. Lula Smith, 82, of Rayville, will be held 10 a.m. today at the chapel of Mulhearn Funeral Home here with burial in Rayville Masonic Cemetery.

She died at her residence late Thursday after a long illness.

O. T. Stephenson

BASTROP (Special) — Funeral services for Osborne Thomas Stephenson, 83, Bastrop, will be held 1 p.m. today at Rayville Funeral Service chapel with burial at Friendship Cemetery near Bastrop. Mr. Stephenson died of an apparent heart attack Thursday.

money to be used for each. It also requires that each project's order of priority be stated in the act or in a capital budget adopted according to present law.

The constitution at present prohibits the state from issuing bonds except for repelling invasion or suppressing an insurrection, but two methods have been used in the past to issue bonds for other purposes. One is to amend the constitution which must pass the Legislature and approval of the voters. The last such issue was for $60 million under the administration of former governor Jimmie Davis in 1962. The other method used is the creation of special state agencies or commissions with authority to issue bonds. Since 1962 such agencies have been authorized to issue up to $354.5 million in bond principal.

Under this amendment, the public would no longer be required to vote on a bond issue, but by requiring the two-thirds legislative vote, the practice of skirting the constitution by a majority legislative vote would be halted.

The provision listing improvement requests by priority should result in urgent construction being met first. Also by having the full faith and credit of the state behind bonds, instead of special commissions or agencies, as is the case now, the interest rates will generally be lower.

These special agencies and commissions however which have constitutional authority now, would still have bond power without the two-thirds legislative vote.
